Neighborhood Club Luncheons
A series of luncheons will be given this fall by the ladies of the Neighborhood club for the benefit of the Scholarship loan fund, with a committee in charge. It is announced today.

Mrs. P. A. Epling has the distinction of serving the first of these luncheons yesterday afternoon at her home on Seventh street, assisted by Mrs. A. E. Hendrickson, Mrs. Floyd McKennon and Mrs. J. E. Woodell. Covers were laid for twelve and a delicious luncheon was served, after which a delightful afternoon was spent at bridge.

The home was artistically decorated in a yellow and lavender color scheme, fall flowers being used.

Mrs. Larison Entertains
Mrs. G. L. Larison entertained the members of the Wednesday bridge club yesterday afternoon at an attractively appointed luncheon at the Country club. The table was decorated in a lovely pink color scheme, flowers serving as the centerpiece. Luncheon was served with covers laid for sixteen.

Following luncheon the afternoon was spent at bridge at the Larison home on O avenue. Mrs. F. L. Holmes won the club prize and the guest prize was given to Mrs. Earl Stoenfeld. Bouquets of pink asters were also used to decorate the home.

O. E. S. Meets With Officials
The Order of the Eastern Star held its regular meeting last evening at the Masonic parlors. Worthy Grand Matron Caroline Lewis, of Seaside, was present and gave an interesting address following the business session. Several officers and members were present, including Worthy Patron Percy Palsom, of Pendleton, who also spoke during the evening.

The rooms were decorated with baskets of beautiful autumn flowers and before adjournment refreshments were served.

Clio Club Meets With Bohnenkamp
Mrs. and Mr. W. H. Bohnenkamp Jr., entertained the Clio club last evening at their residence on First

Original
We seldom see a neckline that shows much originality these days, but here is one that decided to do something different. Hereafter the fashion line is a cutout section which is partly concealed by a flowing tie. This was the inspiration of a famous French designer.

The home was attractively decorated with beautiful autumn flowers, a pink and lavender color scheme being used.

Six tables of bridge were at play with Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp winning high score among the ladies, the gentlemen's prize going to Chase Bohnenkamp and the guest prize to W. H. Bohnenkamp Sr. After the play a dainty two-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Harris Hostess Yesterday
Mrs. Sam Harris entertained at bridge yesterday afternoon at her home on Adams avenue. Four tables were at play with Mrs. L. M. Hoyt winning high score, the second prize going to Mrs. J. E. O'Connell and the third to Mrs. W. D. Mitchell.

Baskets of beautiful asters were artistically arranged throughout the home and at the close of the afternoon's play a delicious luncheon was served.

Announcements
Social announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any functions such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day, must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock. — News editor's note.

The Parent-Teacher association of Central school will meet at the school Friday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock. All parents are urged to attend.

The Greenwood Parent-Teacher association will hold its first meeting of the school year Friday afternoon, September 25, at 2:30 o'clock. All parents are requested to be present.

The reception of the Christian church for its new members, which was to have been given Friday evening, has been postponed indefinitely on account of the untimely death of Mr. Groves.

Delinquency Contribution Charge
EUGENE, Ore.—Mrs. Jane Cruzan of this city was arrested on tending to contribute to the delinquency of a minor, and a warrant was issued for the arrest of her son, Roland Cruzan, 17, charging him with contributing to the delinquency of a minor girl. The arrest of Mrs. Cruzan followed that of two youths accused by a 15-year-old West Springfield girl a few days ago. One of the youths, 20, has since married the girl.

Twins Born Seventeen Days Apart

Seventeen days after Mrs. A. J. Mayhugh of Toledo gave birth to a baby girl, a husky son was born to her. The girl (left) weighed five pounds and the boy eight.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)
Breakfast—Chilled melon, cereal, thin cream, scrambled eggs on Graham toast, milk, coffee.
Luncheon—Vegetable soup with meat stock, cottage cheese salad, rye bread and butter sandwiches, apple sauce, molasses cookies, milk, tea.
Dinner—Casserole of macaroni and beef, lima beans in cream, cabbage with sour cream dressing, whole wheat bread, peach cream pie, milk, coffee.
A child under 10 years of age should not be served the sour cream dressing on his cabbage. Lemon juice lightly seasoned with salt and a bit of sugar should be poured over very finely minced cabbage for juniors.

Peach Cream Pie
Five or six peaches, ½ cup sugar, 2 cups scalded milk, ¼ teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons flour, 2 eggs, 4 tablespoons powdered sugar, unbaked pie shell.
Pure peaches and slice into pie dish lined with plain pastry. Sprinkle with ¼ cup sugar; mix flour, salt and remaining sugar and stir into yolks of eggs. Slowly add hot milk, stirring constantly. Stir until sugar is perfectly dissolved. Pour over peaches. Bake in a moderate oven for 30 minutes. Beat whites of eggs until stiff and dry with powdered sugar. Spread over pie and return to the oven for eight minutes to puff and brown the meringue.

OREGON TRAIL FOX FARM,
H. W. Smith, Prop.,
La Grande, Ore.
AGAIN TO THE FARMER:
Just for a start as a sideline, try a pair of my silver fox. I actually believe after three years you will be calling your farm and orchards your sideline, and your fox your main income as to profits. Are you clipping out and saving these messages? If not do so by all means. Remember, I own the highest profit values in the west—and sell for less.

may the fashion dictators, is a very dark brown.
The coat will be double breasted, with set very close to the figure and must not reach not lower than the knees. There will be only two buttons.
Apart from overcoats, little change is predicted for men's clothing. Greys and browns will be the predominant colors. Double breasted lounge coats will not be much in vogue, whereas the old type of coat with three buttons and only the center one buttoned up, is coming into style again.
As for trousers, there is a tendency to abandon the cuffs for flowing straight legs having plenty of width.
Evening dress fashions will not change. Dinner jacket or tuxedo retain its popularity.
The derby is a strong favorite after having suffered something of a setback.

Radical Returns to Tokio to Face Music
LONDON (AP).—Revolutionary changes in the shades and colors of cloth for men's overcoats are forecast by the mentors of styles in fashionable Saville row. "Powder blue," a color which has been used very little in the past for men's clothing is to replace the dark blue nap cloth in vogue last year. The only alternative to the new shade,

"I Want a Home—Not a Career"

"I have had my share of fame and fortune and I have learned it is a fleeting thing. I want to look forward to something more enduring—a husband, a home and babies." Alona Huberna, famous cinema celebrity, was talking. She is throwing over her movie career to become the wife of Ricardo Cortez, who means more to her than the movies.
