"Rugged Water" To Show at Star Starting Friday

No walk of life is more fraught with drama or danger than that of the United States Life-Saving Service on treacherous Cape Cod. Every thrill experienced by the courageous men, who daily gamble their own lives against the fury of the elements in an effort to save other lives, is depicted in "Rugged Water," Irvin Willat's new production for Paramount, which opens a run of two days at the Star on Friday.

We are going to give away another beautiful infant's chest, that is actually worth $50.00 to the best artist and composer. We want a motto to hang in one new office, consisting of twenty words or less, advertising our business. You can use water color paint and your brains. Three disinterested, competent judges will decide who is the winner. Age limit, between 2 and 97. The size of the chest will be 22" x 14" and it can hang either way. Contest closes October 1st.

We are unloading the 13th carload of Shingles since January 1st. Thirteen is an unlucky number, but you will be mighty lucky if you get some of these No. 2 barn shingles, as they are the heavy kind.

"Street of Forgotten Men" Has Fine Cast

Perce Marmont, Neil Hamilton and Mary Brian are featured in the leading roles of the new Herbert Brenon-Paramount production, "The Street of Forgotten Men," which will be shown at the Arcade theater on Friday and Saturday. The picture is an adaptation by Paul Scholden of George Kibbe Turner's Liberty Magazine story by that name which is an underworld romance laid on the Bowery in the late 90s.

Marmont, whom fans will remember best for his great work in "The Light That Failed" and "If Winter Comes" is cast as "Easy Money" Charlie in this picture. He is a rickety cripple who preys a handsome living out of the gullible public. Charlie inherits a baby girl whom he brings up in the belief that he is a wealthy business man and then, when she is of marriageable age, "discovers" that nothing might stand in her way of happiness.

Bridgeport White-eye, another "cripple," determines to blackmail the girl, and Easy Money Charlie is compelled to "come back to life" to save her. It is a great situation, furnishing a "thrilling" climax for the production, which is a second "Attracto Man" if there is ever to be one.

Sherrys Showing "Age of Innocence" Today, Tomorrow

"The Age of Innocence," adapted from the Pulitzer prize novel by Edith Wharton, will be the new Warner picture to be shown at the Sherry theater beginning today in which Beverly Bayne, Elliott Dexter and Willard Louis form the trio of stars to head the cast.

Since Beverly Bayne's return to the screen under the Warner banner she has acted some remarkable triumphs in "The Tenth Woman," and "Her Marriage Vow," that she was unanimously chosen to portray the exotic and fascinating Russian countess in "The Age of Innocence" who creates a furor among the narrow-minded aristocrats of New York society by reason of her unconventional views on love and marriage.

Since he frequently played opposite Beverly Bayne in the old days, it will be interesting to see Elliott Dexter in the role of Newland Archer, the conventional husband who loses his head completely over Miss Bayne's unusual beauty and charm, and is ready to give up wealth, position and prestige to win her.

The role allotted to Willard Louis, that master of whimsical drollery, promises to give him lots of scope for something delicious, in the style of the Prince of Wales in "Dean Brumby," inasmuch as he will characterize Cornelius Beaufort, connoisseur of rare things, wine and beautiful women.

This Warner Classic of the Season was directed by Wesley Suggs and photographed by Johnnie Mesall.

Comedy showing, "Oh! Bridget."

MOM'M POP

BY CRACKY—THIS TYTE TROUBLE IS GETTING SERIOUS—HE HAS EVERY CHANCE OF RECOVERING HEAVY DAMAGES—I GUESS I'D BETTER SEE ATTORNEY REYNARD ABOUT THIS—PERHAPS HE'LL GIVE ME SOME HOPE.

—I LET MY TEMPER GET AWAY WITH ME AND I THREW THE TOY AUTOMOBILE AT HIM—IT STRUCK HIM ON THE HEAD AND LANED HIM OUT.

YOUR CASE IS VERY SERIOUS—THE LEAST HE COULD DO WOULD BE TO SUE YOU FOR DAMAGES—IF HE DOES IT MAY COST YOU A LARGE SUM OF MONEY.

DO YOU SAY THAT WAS THE LEAST HE COULD DO?

YES—AND ON THE OTHER HAND HE MIGHT CHARGE YOU WITH ASSAULT TO DO GREAT BODILY INJURY WHICH WOULD MEAN A PRISON TERM AND SHOULD HIS INJURY PROVE FATAL YOU WOULD BE CONVICTED OF MANSLAUGHTER—THAT WOULD MEAN A TERM OF YEARS IN THE PENITENTIARY.
