Digging for Boy Buried by Landslide

The steam shovel used to dig for the body of Thomas Zygiel, 14-year-old boy of Chicago, who was buried under tons of earth, when playing in a brick clay pit. The arrow points to the spot where the body is believed to be entombed under the sticky clay. A companion similarly caught and rescued by the fire department.

SOCIAL NEWS FROM IMBLER

IMBLER, Ore. (Special)—Mrs. William Wiggins was hostess Sunday evening at a dinner in honor of the birthday of her husband. The tables were decorated with fall flowers, while flowers were arranged from the center of the room to the corners of the tables.

10 Years Ago Today--

Pat Foley, Mrs. Gangloff and Mrs. J. E. Foley left for the Round-up.

GARDEN COURT COLD CREAM

Main 87

After a social hour during which Mr. Wiggins was presented with a Bible, dinner was served to fifty guests. With C. W. Cleaver as toastmaster, toasts were given and congratulations received by Mr. Wiggins on having reached the young age of fifty-eight.

Thursday evening at eight o'clock at the Imbler Amusement hall, Miss Stella Bendshader of Eugene, Oregon, will appear in program, with readings, both humorous and dramatic, pianoforte, piano, solo and impersonations, several of the numbers to be in costume. Miss Bendshader is an instructor at the Bible university at Eugene and also teaches oratory in Eugene and is well prepared to give Imbler an evening of excellent entertainment.

The first meeting of the season of the Imbler Parent-Teacher association will be held at the Imbler high school, Friday evening at eight o'clock.

The boys of the Imbler high school are planning to go out strong for football this year. A game will be played Friday afternoon at three o'clock at the high school grounds by the local team and the Wallawa high.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Westenskow, Mable and Alfred returned Monday evening from a two week's visit in Portland.

A watermelon feed was given at the home of Frank McKennon last Friday for the seniors, juniors and nephews.

Many attend Round-up

Many took advantage of the excursion train to go to the Round-up on Saturday. Those who went from Imbler Saturday morning were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Furman, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thacher, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hingman, Mrs. Johanna Fisher, Mrs. Etta Long, Mrs. Ella Walker, Mrs. Flora Barrie, Fern McKenna.

Ruby Burns, Will Parker, Ralph Hudson, Walter Fisher and Bud Green.

Walter Stringham left last week for Walla Walla where he has accepted a position in a drug store for the winter.

The Elgin fair will be well attended by the Imblerites as most of them have made plans to attend one of the days. The exhibits will be well worth seeing and the afternoon program one of the best.

The quarterly stake conference was held in La Grande last Saturday and Sunday during the course, eight to ten, and two to four. The officers from Imbler attended as delegates.

Word was received recently by Mr. and Mrs. William Henry from their son Radcliffe telling them of the death of his little two and one-half year old daughter in Utah.

Miss Ruth Prior, who has been quite ill for several weeks is much better and will soon be able to go to school.

Miss Leta Robbs left Saturday for Portland where she will attend the Henke-Walker Business college this winter.

Kenneth Wilson left Monday for Portland to attend the Franklin high this year.

Miss Ivy Lannan will leave Friday to begin training for a school year at Monmouth.

John Colgate lost his college dog this week, the dog having been run over by a truck.

Miss Marie West spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents at Pumpkin Ridge.

REMINGTON IN COVE PULPIT

COVE—(Special)—The Rt. Rev. W. P. Remington, of Pendleton, held services at the Episcopal church Sunday morning and evening. The service in the evening included the confirmation, when a class of six, six members of the family, were taken into the church. Mr. Andrews, of San Francisco, sang.

Mrs. S. W. Crousey, Mr. and Mrs. Thackston, Mrs. Osborne and Miss Virginia Ward, of La Grande, attended the services at the Episcopal church Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Holmes and family, of La Grande, attended the morning services at the Episcopal church.

L. E. Love, who has been spending the summer in Cove left Saturday evening for Portland.

Many people from Cove attended the Round-up at Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. William Hallmark went over Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Orton and Mr. and Mrs. P. Miller and Miss Mae Keyser attended Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller attended the Round-up Saturday. They visited at the home of Mrs. Miller's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Richardson.

D. Jones and H. B. Breshman attended the Round-up Saturday. Miss Dorothy Lee Bean spent the weekend with friends at Union.

The Rev. and Mrs. S. W. Crousey, of La Grande, were Cove visitors Thursday.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. Stiner Brown, of Peoria, are spending a week in Cove. They came in on Saturday and will stay over for the Clergy Conference.

Thursday evening the Rev. Paul Roberts, dean of St. Michael's cathedral, of Boise, will deliver a lecture at the Episcopal church. Everyone is invited.

Talk about fall styles. And such scanty dresses. The less a girl wears the warmer she looks.

Some time ago I got a bottle of your Eczema cure and I find it the best remedy in the world for Eczema. I had a bad case, have had it for fourteen years, and have tried anything and everything but nothing seemed to help since I heard of your remedy so I got a bottle, applied it, and am almost cleaned up in fine shape. I talked to a friend that has it
