WALLOWA TEAM HELD TO TIE

IMBLER, Ore. (Special to the Observer).—Imbler high school football team surprised spectators yesterday afternoon, here, when it held the tough Wallowa eleven to a scoreless tie.

Last year Wallowa claimed the Eastern Oregon championship along with Pendleton, basing its claim on winning from La Grande and going through the remainder of its schedule undefeated.

The game was a bit erratic throughout although lack of much practice by both squads resulted in some fumbles.

Billy Evans Says

CASE OF GROVES.
Cousin Mack is a patriot, also optimistic individual. If you doubt it, consider the case of "Lefty" Groves.

Groves cost Mack over $100,000. Jack Dunn, who made Groves, said he would win 20 games in his first year in the American League. He won't.

During the first four months that the Athletics led the American League from Groves was of little help to them. He finished only one ball game, defeating New York.

It is a rather singular coincidence that I have umpired the only two complete games that the famous "Lefty" has so far worked in the American League.

He finished his first complete game on a beautiful day against New York and won it. He next complete game was pitched Sept. 4, the day after Labor day. New York again being the victim.

As far as victories are concerned, Groves has certainly been a disappointment, yet Mack is pretty well convinced that Groves is a great pitcher, a sure-thing big league.

After his September victory over New York, I remarked to Mr. Mack, that for the first time Groves showed me the control that a big league pitcher must have to win.

Incidentally, I told him that I believed he controlled in that game was due to the fact that he did not bear down on every ball.

Groves has terrific speed for a left-hander. In getting this great speed on the ball he seems to throw himself off his stride, with the result that he loses control.

CHANGES STEEL.
"I am glad to hear you say that," remarked Mack. "Just before the start of the game I ordered Groves to cut down on his speed, suggesting that he use a half speed ball."

"I figured this would have a tendency to upset the batter who would be looking for Groves' terrific fast one and also help his control."

"My plan worked out perfectly. I am positive that most of the lack of control that he handicapped the pitching of Groves this year was due to the fact that he put all his stuff on every ball."

"Let Groves go the limit before offering any suggestions. He had been a wonder in the minors, a consistent winner. He cost me a lot of money and I wanted to give him every chance to make good, proving his game as he thought best."

"Only when he failed to prove that he could win consistently, so working did I feel that it was the proper time for me to change his style."

McGraw Predicts 1926 Come-Back

McGraw has nothing but praise for the Pirates, but predicts that the Giants will be back on top in 1926.

Big negotiations passed suddenly Friday from the buoyant stage of preliminary gestures and ceremonies, and became a sober battle with an array of cold facts and figures. The transaction was accomplished by presentation to the French negotiators of a comparatively brief memorandum in which Secretary Mellon, the American chairman, stated the American view of French settlement offer submitted Thursday. These views were sharply deflected observations as to the French ability to pay. Mr. Mellon's comments on the offer were described as unequivocal.

STEAMSHIP RAMS S-51; 3 SURVIVE

detained and all passengers were OK.

NEWPORT, R. I. (By the Associated Press.)—The position of the S-51 has been located by a seaplane piloted by Lieut. C. S. Hawkins, a radio message to the Newport naval training station stated. The submarine lies in 23 fathoms of water. There are no signs of life, the message said, but crews of rescue ships are optimistic that some of the 24 men who went down with the sub-chine might be alive. Commander Lewis Canoy, executive officer of the torpedo station here said it "looks bad" for those aboard the submarine as air publics were coming to the surface. Commander Shaw, commanding officer of the destroyer Putnam, which went to the rescue, said in his opinion the men aboard the submarine had enough air to last 72 hours and if the submarine is not rescued to breathe, it is probable that at least part of the crew might be alive. Submarine salvage ships, mine sweepers and wrecking craft have been sent to the scene.

WASHINGTON (By the Associated Press.)—The submarine S-51 was commanded by Lieutenant Rodney H. Johnson, of New York. The crew included John L. Gilman, of Portland, Ore., and Rudy Green, of Klein, Mont., the only western man aboard.

BOSTON (By the Associated Press.)—The men rescued from the submarine near Dekeyr Kill, M. S. Lira and A. Gier.

The hope that some of the crew might be alive was first given when the destroyer Putnam reported the discovery of what apparently was a buoy made up of a bunch of life preservers. Naval men at Newport expressed the hope that the buoy had been floated out of the stricken craft by members of the crew who might be alive and wanted to give their position beneath water. According to the first message from the Army of Rome, it was said that after three men were rescued "nothing else could be found. An oil spot showed up where the S-51 went down."
