CHURCH NEWS

Presbyterian.
Our Presbyterian quartet, Mrs. A. L. Richardson, director, soprano; Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp Jr., alto; Mrs. Lawrence Dutton, tenor; and Mr. Raymond Williams, bass; with Mrs. J. A. Todford, accompanist, will resume their leadership tomorrow morning at the 11 o'clock worship hour, singing, "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears." Mr. L. J. Lindsay will play the offertory with a violin solo and the minister will bring the message. You will want to worship with us at that time and we most cordially invite all.

Our Sunday school, under the leadership of an orchestra in charge of Mrs. Florence Lynch Miller, with Mrs. Gladys Miller, accompanist, and chorus choir, commences its session at 9:45. With newly organized classes for all ages and grades in school we are prepared to offer Bible study to all. Mrs. Jno. S. Hodgins is in charge of our primary department, while Mrs. Lynne Wright is our superintendent.

The Christian Endeavor at 8:30 for the young folks. High school students especially invited to this most profitable hour, with new faces seen every week.

The evening service had a splendid beginning last week and tomorrow evening at 7:30 with a chorus choir under the leadership of Mrs. L. I. Busby, we gather again for information and inspiration. The subject: "The Hebrew Lyceum," should attract many at that hour. This service urges those who cannot avail themselves of the morning hour to join with us in the worship of our Heavenly Father.

As a part of the Kingdom of God, this church welcomes all who desire a place of worship, an assignment of service, and a church home. We are here for the community's welfare. Wm. Crosby Ross, minister.
