Why is it that mothers make the mistake of getting a male? The key to man is his thoughts, to a woman is tongue.

TWO ADVERTISING MEN DISCUSS THE WEATHER

"How, Walter F. S., a night, what's your reaction to this little old city?"

"Well, Walter, I'm sold on it—conspicuous, reasonable, healthy."

"Same here. As I analyze the proposition for personal welfare, certainly it's a big general appeal."

"But does not its story account?"

"I would not in that, W. F., that's my slant on it precisely."

"So does not your situation on a day like today, J. B., account for the good prognostics?"

"My name on the dotted line to you, old man. Well, good-by."

"Bye-bye."

"Hurry, why are you going to the office?"

"Why, I was just starting to be called by you at my telephone."

"A wonderful call."

NOTHING IF NOT CONSIDERABLE

A biological map that plants sleep until 9 in the morning. A local man has persuaded his wife that it would be cruel for him to wake them by turning the lamp-on before breakfast.

"Darling," he cried, falling on his knees and covering her with white hands with kisses, "can't you see that I love you?"

"See, dear, heaved up to her feet tonight. "Well," she said, "I should hate to think this was not your natural way of behaving as a couple."

Income tax returns show that more than 80 million people valued their property.

Dortmund Constructing Largest Sports Hall

DORTMUND, (AP)—The largest exhibition and sporting hall of Europe is being constructed at Dortmund. Its dimensions are almost double those of the Berlin Sport Palace, and even exceeds that of the Century Hall of Brooklyn.

The wanted part is constructed entirely of wood instead of iron, according to a new system. The hall will seat 15,000 persons. Besides covering standing room for 1,000 more. Attached to the main building is a special hall intended as a hippodrome and additional standing accommodations for 100 horses. Another feature is to be a bicycle race course 200 meters in length, which is also to be used for motor cycle races.

The dimensions of the hall are such that it will be possible to hold simultaneous competitions in wrestling and gymnastics, bicycling and equestrian exhibitions. Other features are tennis courts, a large bandstand, a hall of officers, training quarters and a restaurant.

The work of sport building will be further enlarged by the municipal authorities and covered by a public park, including a football oval and a large swimming pool.

First Woman Minister Issues Singing of State Anthem

OSFENHAGEN, (AP)—Ever since Mrs. Nina Bang became the first woman Danish minister, and as such also the head of the board of education, she has done the unexpected and startling.

First the singing of the national anthem was banned, which she argued was too war-like to be sung in the public school. And then she let her prohibition, the anthem was indefinitely postponed in a ceremony in which she happened to be the minister remained silent and unobscured, pulled her colleagues of her subject to sit into their seats in their coat-tails.

Mrs. Bang plans complete reconstruction of the Danish school system according to the German method.

What's In The News?

—the announcement of a great discovery, telling of new benefits to mankind—the announcement of a new bridge—a new style in clothes—a new product for the home.

All are news—news that tells of places to go—things that have happened, or will happen—what and where to buy.

All are interesting—the advertisements especially, for they contain news which vitally affects your well-being and the comforts of your home.

Here, perhaps, is the story of how a manufacturer labored a lifetime to lighten a woman's housework. It may be that here is a merchant who has brought stuffs from the four corners of the earth to wear very close. Here is a new and delightful dish for dinner: a wonderful place to spend your vacation—or just a perfectly baked loaf of bread.

There is a news message to you in every advertisement. Read this news for home economy and enjoyment.

Advertisements are the most interesting of all news—for they interest you personally
