Local Couple Married in Portland
To the surprise of their many La Grande friends the marriage of Miss Helene Janssen and Harry L. Hughes became known today. They were married in Portland September 19. Miss Janssen is well known here having been employed in the local O-W. R. and N. freight house more than a year. She is the niece of Mrs. J. G. Stitzinger of this city. Mr. Hughes is also well known here. They will make Portland their home.

Antoine Announces Coming Wedding
Mrs. J. P. Caldwell delightfully entertained a number of girls at a seven o'clock dinner Monday evening honoring her daughter Dorothy's birthday anniversary. The house was beautifully decorated with large baskets of yellow and white flowers. The same color scheme being carried out in the decorations.

Streamers
A sport hat with streamers is something new in our lives. This one has the fashionable square crown and is made of tan felt. Tan, brown, and black grosgrain ribbons encircle the crown and fall from the right side.

Crowsfeet and Eyestrain

Nothing can be more ageing to your appearance than crowsfeet—the wrinkles caused by eyestrain. Unconsciously you may pucker your brows and squint a thousand times a day in an effort to overcome defective eyesight. Face the truth before it's too late.

Those Tousled Headed Youngsters
They are cute and attractive under almost any conditions—but how much more attractive they are if their hair is trimmed by an expert on children's work.
The average child doesn't like the ordeal of a haircut usually. And the results are often so unsatisfactory that parents are equally displeased.
These things are making our shop particularly popular with both parents and children. The hair trimming done by the expert hands of our M. Renaud is the best you can desire.
And in every other department of the Colonial you get the same satisfaction with the work you wish done. Come in, or phone for an appointment if you wish.
