

WORKMEN BUSY ON NEW DEPOT

UNION, Oregon, (Special) —

After several weeks' delay after starting the work, carpenters are busy working on the depot for the Central Railroad of Oregon, which will stand just north of the post office building and on Railroad street. Mr. Graham, president of the company was here last week and announced that the work could be pushed forward rapidly.

Josephine Hiles, a recent graduate of the Union high school, left for Monmouth last Saturday to attend the state normal school.

Class elections have been held in the local high school and nominations made for the officers of the student body. The latter will have their election this Friday.

The student body tickets for all the athletic games and the high school plays have been printed and are being sold. There is a contest on between the four classes, the one that goes one hundred percent in buying tickets will be the guests at a "feet" at the expense of the losers.

Miss Mae Shanks who went to Pendleton during the Round-Up is remaining in the latter place for a few days visit with her parents, before returning to Union.

The grand chancellor of the K. P. lodge was in Union last week with local Knight and trying to increase the attendance and interest of the local lodge.

Miss Edith Cheney, a pupil of the South School here, sent her garden display to Elgin and won the blue ribbon on her vegetables, she did the gardening as a school club member.

Announcements are out for the first number of the Elison-White chantauqua which will be given here on October 19. This first evening the people will again hear the Patton Brothers who were in Union a few years ago.

Pioneer Passes
Sarah A. Haynes, who has been in Union for almost a half century, died at her home in North Union last Monday, at the age of 87 years. Mrs. Haynes, whose maiden name was Tucker, was born in Tennessee in the year of 1838 and after living there and in Arkansas, she came to Oregon in 1877, and has ever since made Union her home. At the time of her death, Mrs. Haynes was the oldest lady in Union. She is survived by six sons, ten grandchildren and a number of other relatives. Mrs. Haynes was a devout Christian and had been for forty years a member of the Methodist church at this place.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist church in charge of Rev. C. A. Quinn and interment made in the Union cemetery, where her husband was buried a few years ago. Word has been received that Miss Opal Shappat, formerly holding a position in the Union bank, has accepted a similar position at Marshfield, where she went a few months ago on account of poor health.

The ladies Aid of the Methodist church has arranged for a cafeteria dinner to be held at the K. P. Hall next Saturday, October 3.

W. A. Maxwell, well known resident of Union, and for several years holding the office of justice of the peace, has leased his property here and expects to go to Grants Pass soon, to spend the winter.

The film, Abraham Lincoln, was presented at the Cosy theatre last Friday and Saturday and was well attended, having had the recommendation of the public school, many of the pupils going to the show.

Donald and Virgil Wilkinson, who are here attending high school, spent last week with their parents in Telocast.

The work of building a new flume and the inlet and outlet for the mill pond has been finished and the workmen are now putting in the foundation and framework for the new turbine water wheel for the flour mill.

Mrs. Charles Castor was called to Haines Monday on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Compton. Mrs. Castor left for Haines Monday afternoon.

WALLOWA FARMER NOW HARVESTING SUNFLOWER CROP

WALLOWA, Ore. (Special)—C. A. Hunter has been engaged during the past few days harvesting his sunflower crop in the valley, putting the flowers into his large silos.

Some fine crops of sunflowers have been grown on a number of the valley farms this season and will produce a large tonnage of winter feed.

Many of the dry land farmers are in the midst of fall seeding at present. A few have finished and in some fields the grain is coming up nicely.

EX-PORTLAND MAN HELD
KLAMATH FALLS, Ore.—Ralph Almeter, ex-Portland contractor, was arrested here following a raid on his home in Hot Springs addition, where, officers said, they found 60 gallons of moonshine, parts of stills and other paraphernalia of the moonshining business.

Aldmeter deposited bonds and obtained his release. He told authorities some person known to him as "Joe" had been permitted to store a "cramping outfit" in the basement of his home, and denied knowledge of any liquor there.

With his father Almeter came here six months ago. He is now constructing the new central public school.

The Charleston was invented by some timid soul jumping from a snake and landing on a porcupine.

Triumphant Return of Golf Stars to Atlanta

Throng of Atlanta sportsmen turn out at the railroad station for uproarious greeting to Atlanta's native sons who finished first and second in the national amateur golf tournament. Left is Bobby Jones, who won the title for the second time, and right is Watta Gunn, 20-year-old sensation of the tournament. The man on the right helping to carry Bobby Jones is Charles Cox, adjutant general of the state of Georgia.

Wife Beater Convicted.

OREGON CITY, Ore.—D. Hill, of Milwaukie was fined $25 and costs and given six months' suspended jail sentence in justice court here after he had been convicted of a charge of wife-beating. William P. Richards of Portland was fined

$10 for speeding and Oliver J. Smith of the same city paid a $17 fine after he had pleaded guilty to speeding 4 1/2 miles an hour between Barlow and Canby. G. W. Dunsmire, Gladstone garage man, convicted in justice court of speeding, was fined $21. He filed notice of appeal to the circuit court.

LANE WANTS ROAD AID

EUGENE, Ore.—The members of the Lane county court plan to attend a meeting of the state highway commission in Portland to discuss the question of building the new Willamette highway from Lowell bridge up the river. Lane county has in its bond fund approximately $255,000 for this project and the court is eager to begin work on the road. This is one of the federal-aid projects and the three organizations will cooperate in its construction.

MOTHER SEEKS CHILDREN

SALEM, Ore.—Edna Z. Johnson has started proceedings in the circuit court here to have a decree of adoption involving her two children set aside. Mrs. Johnson alleged that while her husband gave his consent to the adoption proceedings she had no knowledge of the transaction until after the final papers were signed.

IN THE PATH OF PROGRESS

To study any particular human mechanism properly and diagnose its ills is beyond the power of any one man.

Rapid scientific advancement demands specialists and complete modern equipment.

At the HOT LAKE SANATORIUM a competent staff of physicians and a well-equipped laboratory give each individual the best possible service.

The Hot Lake Sanatorium

Dr. W. T. Phy.

Owner and Director.

Grouse and Deer

Season Is Open

- 12 Gauge High Base Shells$1.40
- 12-Gauge Low Base Shells$1.25
- Rifle Cartridges in all sizes—I have the kind that gets the game.

F. L. LILLY Hardware
Phone M-85

ON SALE TOMORROW THE NEW WINTER RED CROWN GASOLINE

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (California)

The new winter Red Crown gasoline is especially refined to give motorists the utmost in quick starting and mileage in cold weather driving. This gasoline will be available from the red, white and blue pumps at Standard Oil Service Stations and at dealers.

WALLOWA COUNTY FAIR

ENTERPRISE

Sept. 28-29-30; Oct. 1-2-3

As Usual—

EASTERN OREGON'S GREATEST FAIR

Bank It At The U. S. National

It's Dog Gone Funny You Don't Know We Sell--

- ABERDEEN COAL
- 12" AND 16" WOOD
- CEMENT
- LIME
- PLASTER
- HAY
- GRAIN
- ROOFING PAPER
- BUILDING PAPER
- ROOFING CEMENT
- NORTHWEST HOUSE PAINTS
- POULTRY SUPPLIES
- SALT
- LAND PLASTER
- AND FIRE BRICK

Sawyer-Holmes Merc. Co.

Phone Main 17