GRID SQUAD TO PLAY ALUMNI

Local fans will get their first chance to see the La Grande high school football squad in action Saturday afternoon when the Tigers tangle with an alumni team on the local gridiron. The game will be called at 2 o'clock.

Coch MacTavish has issued a lineup but expects to use two full backs during the contest, with the intention of giving every promising member of the squad a chance to show what he can do.

The alumni players will probably include Robert Garity, Buzz Beardsen, Owen Price, Cecil Starwood, Dee Smith, Dutch Alstott, Clarence Woodell, Eugene Motzart and several others. A team strong enough to give the Tigers an acid test is anticipated.

MacTavish is working his program on the gridiron every afternoon of the school week, with scrimmage, signal practice, etc., the main bill of fare, and is also holding three night skill practice classes each week.

'BUCKY' HARRIS NOT SO 'LUCKY'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Stanley Raymond (Bucky) Harris, 25 years old, leads his Washington Senators into their second world's series on Oct. 7 in Pittsburgh—a tribute to youth and playing managers.

When Bucky captured the American league flag in 1924 many close followers of the game were of the opinion that either the team carried Harris through or that he was "lucky." But when the series for the world title came, the youth matched with one of the most renowned managers, John J. McGraw of the New York Giants, and youth won.

Harris never has been a remarkable player but there is something about his leadership that attracts veteran and recruit as well and at all times he is prepared to receive and consider the advice of those who comprise the backbone of his club—Johnson, Peckinpaugh, Klop and Goslin. Washington, however, may expect a well turned afternoon always from its second baseman, he is an expert fielder and a dangerous batsman, and has developed into one of the best pivot men of baseball.

The Senator leader's career began in Pittston, Pa. in 1913, at the age of 18. He is a native of Port Jervis, N. Y. In 1916 Hughie Jennings of Detroit gave the youngster a trial at Detroit. Within a month he went to Scranton of the New York State league and thence to Muskegon, Mich., where he played third base and had a batting record of .199.

Norfolk, Va., had him in 1917, but on May 29 he became a member of the Reading club of the International league. He played 79 games and hit for .256. The following year found him with Buffalo, playing short stop and second base in 35 contests and batting for .241. In 1919 with Buffalo he became one of the International league's best infielders and increased his hitting figures to .282. It was on Aug. 5 of that year that the Senators obtained him.

In 1921 and 1922 Harris participated in every game with the Senators, hitting for .239 and .269. In 1923 he had an average of .282 and in 1924 his mark was .265.
