Home Wedding At Island City

A lovely wedding took place yesterday afternoon, September 30, at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne W. Wade, of Island City, when their daughter, Miss Myrtle Wade, became the bride of Edward J. Van Bloklund, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Van Bloklund. The immediate families of the bride and groom together with a few intimate friends were present.

Immediately preceding the ceremony Miss Ellen Maxfield sang "Oh Promise Me." She was accompanied by Mrs. Edward Jasper at the piano, who also played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride descended the stairs, accompanied by her father and preceded by Miss Ellen Kiddie, as maid of honor. They were met by the groom, accompanied by Lester Van Bloklund, best man, in front of an embankment of flowers and performed by the Rev. Hall K. Wallis, assisted by Miss Josie Bloklund, sister of the groom.

The bride's dress was of white satin-faced crepe and she wore the veil and orange blossoms, which had been worn by her mother. She carried a beautiful snowflake bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was charming in a dress of apricot tulle and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a delicious luncheon was served in the dining room of the home. Miss Hulda Van Bloklund was in charge of the dining room, assisted by Misses Esther and Mildred Van Bloklund and Miss Mildred Kiddie. Miss Jean Bryant caught the bride's bouquet.

The bride and groom will spend a few days at Watlowa lake, after which they will be at home to their many friends at Island City.

Mrs. Ashby, Mrs. Theisen Entertain at Bridge

The first large bridge party of the season took place Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. H. N. Ashby and Mrs. John Theisen entertained at the home of the former. The spacious rooms of the Ashby home were artistically arranged, forming a delightful setting for twelve tables of bridge. The color scheme of purple and gold was carried out in the decorations. The sun room and living room were arranged with gold, marigolds predominating, the dining room and reception room in purple, purple asters being used. Subdued lights gave a soft glow to the whole.

At the close of the play a dainty two-course luncheon was served, which was also carried out in the purple and gold color scheme. Mrs. H. E. Westmeyer won high score at bridge. Mrs. W. C. Perkins, second, and the consolation prize went to Mrs. Martin Fitzgerald. The prizes were chosen to correspond with the color scheme.

Every one of the forty-eight ladies present pronounced the party most enjoyable.

Research Class Discusses Art

Mrs. A. T. Hill, president of the La Grande Art Research class, opened the year for the class with a beautifully appointed luncheon at her home Tuesday afternoon. The tables were artistically decorated with cosmos and old fashioned bouquets, in colored crystal bowls. The place cards were mounted copies of masterpieces of art.

Taking as her keynote "The Seeding for Knowledge," Mrs. Hill told in an inspirational talk of her experiences during the summer when she visited the University of Chicago and the Chicago Institute of Art. Mrs. E. P. Mossman spoke on the mission of furthering the cause of art and Mrs. A. E. Hendrickson on "Invincible Palaces," emphasizing the corridor art.

 Deer Law Visitors Fined $100. MARSHFIELD, Ore. — R. E. Blake, J. E. Major and Harry Thompson, all of Marshfield, paid fines amounting to $400 here for killing fawns and otherwise violating the deer law. They also had one more doe than the legal limit when found at Marshfield, south of Myrtle Point, by Art Fish, district game warden, and Deputy McClers.
 Men might try talking as much as women. Then maybe their walekers would wear off instead of having to be shaved.
