Mix Packs Thrills In "Rainbow Trail" At the Star

Swift action and tense dramatic situations fill "The Rainbow Trail," Tom Mix' latest William Fox picture, which opened a run at the Star theater last night. Into this incomparable Zane Grey story, which is the sequel to "Riders of the Purple Sage," Mr. Mix has packed an abundance of thrilling exploits. Combining the genius of these two westerners, Mix and Grey, has made this picture of unusual distinction.

Lynn Reynolds, who directed the picture, has succeeded in carrying on the story of "Riders of the Purple Sage" with artistic adroitness. The action in "The Rainbow Trail" starts with the first foot and continues until the romantic conclusion.

"Tony Mix" wonder horse, carries his master through perilous situations, and Mr. Mix performs many deeds of now-daring. Lucien Littlefield and Mark Hamilton, a picturesque pair, contribute several exquisitely funny incidents. Anne Cornwall is the charming heroine whom Mix rescues from George Bancroft, the villain of the drama. Steve Clemente, Fred DeSilva and Diana Miller skillfully portray character roles.

Others in the cast are Vivian Oakland, Tom Delmar, Doc Roberts, and Carol Holloway.

Much Entertainment Promised at Arcade Sunday

Another beautiful supply of vaudeville talent will be assembled and presented for your approval at the Arcade theater on Sunday next. Artistic feats of grace and strength by the versatile Kleo Lambert & Co., one of the few acts that accomplishes remarkable feats of strength. The female in this act does the understanding, handling her male partner with ease. She is deserving of special mention. Smith, Lynch & Smith, comedy singers de luxe, singers of harmony songs, sing in a rollicking syncopated style. Marks & Davis present a comedy skit entitled "Bunkaroo Center," a clean, classy comedy bit, twenty minutes of good entertainment, containing a string of witty repartee and catch phrases. Murray & Alma Ferguson, comedy providers, in their laughable absurdity taken from every day life and full of witty dialogue and funny situations. A sure-fire laugh producer and musical offering. Manuel, "Master of Mighty Dollar," card and coin manipulator, who introduces a series of subtle experiments that have proved a source of utter bewilderment to his brother magicians and public. Watch the professor. He makes money talk.

Umatilla Coroner Named.

PENDLETON, Ore. — Dr. J. M. Kavanaugh of Pendleton has been appointed coroner of Umatilla county by the county court. He succeeds the late Dr. H. S. Garfield. The appointment of Dr. Kavanaugh was unanimously endorsed by the republican county central committee.

Marshall Neilan's Latest Is "The Sporting Venus"

Marshall Neilan, famous director of light comedy and whimsical stories of real life, has returned to his favorite type of story in "The Sporting Venus," his latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, which comes to the Sherry theater on Sunday.

After a successful experiment with screen tragedy in "Toss of the Coin," Neilan returns to delicate comedy and breezy situations of his own conception in this production, and the result promises excellent entertainment.

"The Sporting Venus" is a story by Gerald Beaumont, with its locale in Scotland, England and France. Neilan, with his entire company, went abroad and shot half the picture in the actual settings, then returned to the studio to film the interiors. Blanche Sweet attempts a new type of role for her in which there is much subtle comedy, and it is a distinct change from the characters she played in "Toss," "Anna Christie" and other pictures. Ronald Colman plays opposite Blanche Sweet as a young, Scottish doctor, and Lew Cody has a picturesque role as an impoverished count whose creditors force him to marry for money. The supporting cast includes George Fawcett, Josephine Crowell, Kate Price, Edward Martindel, Arthur Hoyt and Hank Mann. Tom Geraghty adapted the story to the screen, and David Kosson is credited with the photography. "Comedy showing. "Go Easy."

Finest All Star Cast Of Year In "The Barefoot Boy."

"The Barefoot Boy," a pictureization of John Greenleaf Whittier's poem, which opened last night at the Sherry theater, boasts the finest all-star cast of any picture produced this year.

Producer David Kirkland has assembled the Blue Book of Film-dom for this exquisitely tender love story of twenty years ago and today. Frankie Lee, who is fast winning an enviable place for himself on the screen, portrays the role of "The Barefoot Boy," with unusual intelligence and charm; John Howers and Marjorie Daw make an ideal pair of lovers for the later sequence, while Sylvia Brimmer, Tully Marshall, Otis Harlan, Raymond Hutton, Virginia True Boardman and George Fawcett complete this assemblage of film celebrities. "The Barefoot Boy" is an exquisitely tender love story, based on the life of a splendid young country boy, who is ambitious for a career in the city. He comes to the city, unknown and friendless, and through sheer grit and spunk and determination, soon wins an enviable place for himself in the high places of the city. His struggles, his temptations, and his final victory make one of the most thrilling stories ever screened.

John Greenleaf Whittier would be a very proud man, were he alive today, to see what Producer David Kirkland has done with the famous poet's little gem, written over fifty years ago.

Comedy showing, "Great Guns."
