DOG SHORT "TAIL LIGHT"

OREGON CITY, Ore.—An accident report far from the stereotyped form was received by the sheriff's office here from W. J. E. Vick of Liberal, who told of the killing of a dog on the highway near Molalla. Vick's report read: "Am reporting the killing of a yellow dog in front of L. Marson place, about two miles northwest of Molalla on the county road. Particulars: Two dogs ran out and one collided with my auto. Judging from his actions, I think he wanted to commit suicide, for there was plenty of other places to run to if he just wanted to be running. "P. 8.—Wearing no collar, no tail-light."

BEND FIREFMEN SAVE CAT

BEND, Ore.—A tomcat, stranded in the roof of a local school, resulted in the Bend fire department answering a rescue call. A plan that the fire department members devised to get the cat down was to use the instructors in the school. Several lengths of ladder were used in getting the cat from the roof of the building.

Neilan's Famous "Sporting Venus" A Real Novelty

"Sporting Venus" at Sherry's brings together the combination of Marshall Neilan as director, Blanche Sweet, Ronald Colman and Lew Cody as featured players, and Gerald Beaumont as the author.

The combination of Blanche Sweet, playing under the direction of Marshall Neilan, was last seen on the screen in "Toss of the D'Urbervilles." Now they come together again in a story of an entirely different type.

"The Sporting Venus" is a story with its locale in England, Scotland and France, and Neilan and his entire company make a trip of some 14,000 miles in order to photograph scenes in their exact locations.

The supporting cast includes Josephine Crowell, George Fawcett, Kate Price, Edward Marland and Hank Mann. "The Sporting Venus" is a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production.

Mary Philbin Plays Fashion Plate Role

Fourteen widely known screen personages are prominently cast in support of Mary Philbin, star of "Fifth Avenue Models" Universal-Jewel to be shown in the Arcade theater commencing today. It is one of the biggest casts in point of prominence of players to be used in a long time.

This production is the screen version of the sensational novel, "The Best in Life," by Muriel Hine. The story became a best seller at once and the author was acclaimed has re-enacted the thrilling struggle and romance of the Alaskan gold rush of 1897 and 1898 which Mr. Beach wove into an absorbing yarn.

"Winds of Chance" is said to represent the most accurate film play of its kind ever attempted, and produced by the man who made the famous "The Sea Hawk" on the same pretentious scale, the pictorial story of our last frontier, with its wildness, its unique friendships, its quick fortunes and its failures, is reputed to be replete with thrilling incidents, surprises and tense dramatic scenes with unusual heart appeal.

Numerous soundings who participated in the actual rush to Dawson City after the discovery of gold and several of the Arctic's most celebrated characters are among the thousands of characters who support the principal members of the cast.

Diva, Chalkoot, the Summit, Lander, White Horse, Miles Canyon, Sheep Camp and Dawson City as it was in boom days are among the backgrounds of the big drama, with all of the atmosphere of the rush preserved and enhanced in the filming.

A man can't understand why a woman can't understand why he can't understand.
