Two Youths Held in Robberies.

THE DALLES, Ore.—Ben Guthrie, 19, Marshfield, and Victor Thomas, 18, Aberdeen, Wash., are held in the city jail here pending investigation into several recent robberies in Oregon and Washington, partly confessed and partly attributed to the boys by the police. The last robbery perpetrated by the youths was at Umatilla Thursday night, when goods valued at $150 were taken. Most of the loot was recovered. Robbery of a store at Omak, Wash., the latter part of September, was confessed by the boys, who said that this loot was later stolen from them by hoboes.

HOOD RIVER, Ore. — A marriage license was issued just as Clerk Shoemaker was leaving his office, to Ralph Russell, 21, and Lizzie Thorer, 18, both of Portland. As the couple left the court house they stated that they hoped to find a minister and hold their wedding.

The Testimony of Others

IN my new book which may be had FREE upon request, on PILES and other Rectal and Colon disorders, I have reproduced nearly 100 letters from among those received from my thousands of patients. These tell you frankly of their years of suffering of their trying home remedies and even operations, and, finally, of their complete cure by my NON-SURGICAL method. These are from men and women o every station, many of whom you may know. You will learn by reading this Book why I can give a WRITTEN GUARANTEE to cure your Piles or return your fee

OREGON TRAIL FOX FARM,
H. W. Smith, Prop.,
La Grande, Ore.

To judge the quality of silver fox sold and delivered by this farm, see those at Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Charltons on Cove Avenue; they will compare with the very best, regardless where located.

Clyde left it to me to give him the best grade, and he was willing to pay the price, and did. I will do the same for you, or, you may do the choosing.

Have five pair left for sale.

La Grande Theatres

"The Dark Swan" Showing at Sherrys Today

With Marie Prevost, Monte Blue and Helene Chadwick as the trio of stars in "The Dark Swan," the Warner Bros. Classic of the Screen which will be shown at the Sherry theater today, there is little doubt that the picture, which is adapted from the novel by Ernest Pascal, will prove meritorious.

It is unusual for three players of such popularity to concentrate their efforts to one picture, but since the story by Mr. Pascal calls for three separate and dinstinct stars, each of which plays an equally important part, Warner Bros. did not hesitate to engage this trio of luminaries, so that "The Dark Swan," could be adequately and faithfully reproduced on the silver sheet.

In addition to Marie Prevost, as the beautiful and unfaithful Eve, Helene Chadwick in the role of Cornelia, who is scorned and shoved aside because of her unattractiveness, and Monte Blue in the character of Lewis Dike, whom both sisters love, Director Millard Webb has done his utmost to secure a strong supporting cast. From the names which complete the line-up of players, such as Lilyan Tashman, John Patrick, Vera Lewis, Mary McLaren, Arthur Rankin and others, it can readily be imagined that the "best seller" by Ernest Pascal will be interestingly visualized on the screen.

Comedy showing, "Bad Boy."

Big All-Star Cast in New Frank Lloyd Film

"Winds of Chance," has a featured cast of nine internationally-known film favorites plus a supporting group of more than twenty players whose names and faces are known to screen devotees in many lands. It provides a three-sided assurance of good entertainment—a famous story by a foremost author, an exceptional cast of favorites plus the direction of one of filmdom's most dependable producers, the creator of "The Sea Hawk" and other super-plays.

Foremost among the nine featured players of the cast are Anna Q. Nilsson, Viola Dana, Ben Lyon and Victor McLaglen.

Miss Nilsson is seen as the Countess Courteau, a brilliant business woman who dared the hardships of the Arctic and cast her lot with the thousands of men who came to the Yukon from every corner of the earth in search of gold, and who were bent upon success regardless of physical or social cost.

Miss Dana plays Roulette Kirby, a mite of a girl orphaned when her father is killed in a fight following the destruction of their outfit in the rapids at White Horse, and who becomes the ward of Poleon, an optimistic French Canadian packer and river pilot.

Ben Lyon assumes the part of Pierce Phillips, an inexperienced youth who loses his last dollar gambling at Dyea and earns his way to Dawson by packing outfits over the Chilkoot. Finding himself in love with the Counters and temporarily broken in spirit because of her refusal to marry him, he undergoes many unique experiences. 'Poleon, Beach's literary pride and favorite novel hero, is played by Victor McLaglen, former British film star, who was chosen by Mr. Lloyd for the character after interviewing more than 20 screen stars.

In addition to being a giant in stature, McLaglen possesses, according to Lloyd, the emotional ability of George Beban and an extreme personality.

Hobart Bosworth, as Roulette's father, Claude Gillingwater, Dorothy Sebastian and John T. Murray are other notables in the big cast.

"Winds of Chance" opens a four day engagement at the Arcade theater Wednesday.

Hoxie's New Western At Star Promises Big Thrills

An innocent man condemned to hang!

Accused of being the slayer of a notorious cattle rustler, Frank Douglas, wealthy Arizona rancher, is cast in the shadows of the hangman's noose and is saved from the shameful death of a culprit only through the bravery and heroism of his only son, Jack.

This is the central situation around which revolves the stirring situations in "Ridin' Thunder," the Blue Streak Western featuring Jack Hoxie and coming to the Star theater Wednesday and Thursday. The dramatic situation is further heightened by reason of the love of Jean Croft, the slain man's daughter, for the son of the condemned man.

Jean had been brought up in innocence of her father's profession. When she grew up it was natural enough for her to fall in love with the rancher's dashing son. Jean Croft is played by Katherine Grant, noted beauty.

Many of the scenes in the production were filmed in the heart of Arizona's great painted desert, the exact locale of B. M. Bower's story from which "Ridin' Thunder" is adapted. Director Cliff Smith was a cattle ranger many years prior to his entering the movie field.

The supporting cast also includes Jack Pratt, Francis Ford, George Connors, Bert Demarc, William McCall and Broderick O'Farrell.

A comedy and news will also be shown.

He who laughs last laughs least and he who laughs first usually has a set of gold teeth.

When a stranger promises to let you in on something it is time to get out.
