OREGON TEAM FACING IDAHO

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oregon. (Special to The Observer.) — University of Oregon will meet Idaho in the opening conference football game for both teams here Saturday. The game should be hard fought as the teams appear evenly matched.

Reservations have been pouring in for the game and if it doesn't rain, between 1000 and 10,000 persons are expected, according to Jack Benefiel, graduate manager.

There were several weak spots in the Oregon team as were exhibited by the Multnomah tilt, and which Coach Smith intends to strengthen before the Idaho game. He was pleased with his defense, however, although the backs and the ends occasionally fell down on their jobs. As a whole the defense does not need much bracing in so far as line bucking is concerned, although the backs have not yet learned to block forward passes effectively.

M. A. C. Game Test.

Smith used more than twenty men in the Multnomah affair to get the best possible combination. He is yet undecided what his line-up will be against Idaho, saying it will depend a great deal upon the showing the players make this week.

Bliss and Bailey, guards, Sinclair, tackle and Smith, end, all four lettermen, Harrison, the efficient punter, and McMullen, substitute center, were unable to start Saturday. It is expected they will be fully recovered from their injuries in time to get into the Idaho game.

About twenty-five men were taken along to the Stanford game last year, and there seems to be a lot of competition for a place on the squad which will make the trip October 31, as it will mean the pruning of nearly two-thirds of the squad.

The following men are showing up best at present:

Centers—Carl Johnson, of Oregon City, Nick Carter of Myrtle Point, Pat Hughes of Portland, John McMullen of Portland.

Guards—Gene Shields of Stevenson, Wash., Ken Bailey of Van Nuys, Calif., Jackson Bliss of Berkeley, Calif., Hal Harden of Marshfield, Francis Quinn of Portland, Walter Socolofsky of Salem, Harry Leavitt of Portland, Rodney Farley of Astoria.

Pendleton Man Shows.

Tackles—Albert Sinclair of Eugene, Bert Kerns of Spokane, Wash., Bert Gooding of Woodburn, Homer Dixon of Elk City, John Warren of Pendleton, Harold Mangum of Portland, Arley Marsh of Elndra, Edgar Kelly of Medford, Arthur Hodgor of Live Oak, Calif., Paul Peaks, of Long Beach, Calif.

Ends—Bob Mautz of Portland, Lauren (Ick) Reynolds of Portland, Edward Grant of Portland, Sherman Smith of Grants Pass, James Powers of Portland, Dwight Hodges of Oregon City, Del Monte of Portland, Frank Riggs of Portland, Charles Falk of San Francisco.

Quarterbacks — Louis Anderson of Marshfield, Parley Stoddard of Baker, Walter Cushman of Portland, Fred Harrison of Astoria.

Halfbacks—Wallace Langworthy of Marshfield, Beryl Hodgen of Athens, Victor Wetzel of Portland, Arnold Kiminki of Astoria, Elme Pusati of Astoria, William Harriman of Eureka, Calif., George Mimnaugh of Portland, John Mutschenbarker of Klamath Falls.

Fullbacks—Lynn Jones of Salem, Otto Vitus of Eugene.

THREE CAST-OFFS.

Cast-off pitchers played a prominent part in winning a second American league pennant for Washington.

Two veterans, Coveleskie and Reuther, deflected from the start. In the home stretch, when the Nats were slipping, a third vet, Ferguson, stepped into the breach and tided the club over a very rough spot.

* * *

When you figure that this trio of near-discards won over 40 games, you get some idea of the important part they played in the success of Washington.

On the day the pennant was clinched, Reuther turned in his eighteenth victory of the season. The same afternoon, by winning the second game of a double header, Ferguson clinched the championship.

The day previous, Coveleskie, pitted against Cleveland, the team that turned him adrift, won his twentieth game of the year.

* * *

For two veteran pitchers to win 40 games after being regarded as through by a majority of major league managers, was certainly a break for Stanley Harris.

VALUABLE PLAYER.

The selection of Roger Peckinpaugh as the most valuable player in the American league for the season of 1925, was a most happy one.

Without a doubt Peckinpaugh is the greatest shortstop I have ever seen in action during my 20 years' connection with the American league.

Hans Wagner, famous shortstop of the National league, is the only one I would give a higher rating. I regard Peckinpaugh the equal, probably a bit the peer of Wagner as a fielder. The advantage Wagner enjoyed at the bat, however, entitles him to the edge over Peckinpaugh.

Peckinpaugh is not only a great ball player, but also a real gentleman. The type of athlete who is a credit to the game, who adds lustre to the good name of the national pastime.

Peckinpaugh is a fine character of the Walter Johnson model, modest, unassuming, yet most courageous. It is indeed a compliment to the latter trait that he should achieve greatness after 16 years of effort.

* * *

Incidentally, it is a feather in the cap of the Washington club to have two of its stars selected in successive years as the most valuable players in the American league.

A Talk With a La Grande Man

Mr. Bussey Tells Something of Interest to La Grande Folks.

There's nothing more convincing than the statement of someone you know and have confidence in. That's why this talk with Mr. Bussey of Monroe avenue, should be mighty helpful here in La Grande.

E. L. Bussey, 1409 Monroe avenue, La Grande, says: "I had kidney trouble at times, particularly when a cold settled in my back. Dull pains annoyed me and my kidneys got out of order. I used Doan's Pills and from that time on I have had something on which I could rely."

MANY YEARS LATER, Mr. Bussey said: "If I have the last sign of kidney complaint, a short use of Doan's Pills is sure to give me prompt relief."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. Bussey had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

WALLOWA GAME IS FIRST TEST

La Grande's first interscholastic test on the gridiron will come Saturday afternoon when the Tigers journey to Wallowa to play the strong W. H. S. eleven, which last year smeared the blue and white colors on the local field for the only defeat of the season.

Coach MacTavish is preparing for a hard fought game, drilling his proteges mightily, and expects to have the eleven in fair shape to tackle the first obstacle on the route to a possible championship.

Wallowa high is hard to defeat in its own back yard, and usually comes out winner when La Grande invades. In 1922 Skeet Reynolds' team defeated Wallowa at Wallowa and last year the branchline champions evened up matters. Both squads are expected to put forth every effort to turn the tide and a battle royal is in prospect.

Quite a number of local fans will accompany the team.

KERR'S SCORE WINS CONTEST

Howard Kerr, better known here as "Bull Montana," was a big factor in the Commerce win over Franklin in the Portland high school football league yesterday. Kerr scored the only touchdown and made consistent yardage throughout.

A Portland newspaper describes the scoring as follows:

"After an exchange of punts shortly after the first kickoff, Kerr, Commerce right half, carried the ball through Franklin's left tackle for 7 yards. Kerr carried the ball on the next three plays, gaining on each; Nagel took the pellet once; then Kuhn carried it 3 yards to the Franklin 16-yard line. Bihr called the plunge off left tackle again and Kerr carried it through a huge hole opened by Berlow, Gilliam and Gronquist for the winning score. Nagel kicked.

"Commerce remained on the offense in the second quarter and kept the ball in Franklin territory throughout."

Kerr played on the La Grande football team last year and was selected on the all-star Eastern Oregon mythical eleven.

WALLOWA LOCALS.

WALLOWA, Ore. (Special) — Gilbert Baker returned home the latter part of the week from the "Washboard" where he has been hunting cattle for Oscar Maxwell. Mr. Baker says the cattle being taken off the ranges are in excellent condition. The recent rains have caused the new grass to become well started on practically all range areas, making excellent feed.

Frank Walker of Lotte has been busy several days the past week finishing up the combining of some of his late spring grain. The frequent rains have made the cutting of some of the late grain a very difficult task. Mr. Walker expects to finish in a few days with continued good weather.

The weather conditions have been ideal here for the past few days, with bright sunshine during the day, while the nights have been quite frosty for the past week. Much fall seeding is yet being done. Many of the farmers are still busy hauling wheat to the warehouses.

Nobel Prizes Total Four Millions to 125 Winners

STOCKHOLM (AP).—Prizes of about $4,000,000 given to 125 winners, will be the record of the Nobel Foundation on the occasion of its 25th annual awarding of prizes at the end of this year.

Funds of the foundation now amount to slightly over $8,000,000 and the prizes to be given this year will be 115,165 kroner each or about $31,000. Besides the five regular prizes of 1925, three were held over from 1924, namely, the awards in physics, chemistry and the peace prize.

Of the prizes awarded during the years 1901-1924, nine have gone to America and seven to Sweden. Germany tops the list with 26 prizes, closely followed by France with 21 and England with 14 awards.

Electric Railways Review Announced by Shannahan

ATLANTIC CITY (AP).—National electric railway operations thus far in 1925 have resulted in increases in net revenue, although there have been slight decreases in gross revenues over the same period for last year. This statement was made by J. N. Shannahan, president of the American Electric Railway association, preceding the organization's convention here.

Lower operating costs and increased rates of fare were given as the causes for the revenue situation. The loss in general traffic was attributed to uneven business and industrial conditions and an increase in the use of private automobiles.

MINERVA SAYS:

One-third of the shoes we are selling are Arch-Aid. There must be a reason for this, and there is. Each woman who buys a pair seems to be satisfied, for she tells her neighbor how much more comfort she has in Arch-Aids than the ordinary shoe, and her foot trouble is all gone. I can do my day's work with perfect ease, since I have been wearing Arch-Aid shoes. If you don't believe me, just try one pair and be convinced. Be good to your feet and they will be good to you. Good feet mean a good disposition.

Try Arch-Aid Shoes—they won't fool you.
