Stanges, Larisons Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stange and Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Larison entertained the club last evening at the Larison home on O avenue. Seven tables of bridge were at play during the evening with the club prizes going to Mrs. R. L. Porech and Al Andrews. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stoddard received the guest prizes.

The spacious rooms of the Larison home were artistically decorated with autumn flowers and after the play refreshments were served.

Alpha Club Meets With Nelsons

The members of the Alpha club were delightfully entertained last evening when Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nelson were host and hostesses at their home on Cedar street. The home was attractively decorated with beautiful roses and aster, a color scheme of pink and white predominating.

During the evening five tables were at play with Mrs. H. M. Day winning high score among the ladies and the gentlemen's prize going to William Stegert. A two course luncheon was served at the close of the play.

60 Attend Session of Presbyterian Aid

Sixty ladies were present yesterday afternoon when the Presbyterian Ladies Aid society met in the community room of the church. Mrs. I. C. Bowser led in the devotional. Mrs. J. T. Richardson, president, presided over the business meeting, after which an excellent program was given. It J. Hammer sang two solos, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Harley Richardson, after which Mrs. Richardson played a piano solo. Miss Johnson, one of the high school teachers, gave an excellent reading.

After the program delicious refreshments were served. The hostesses were: Mrs. Alfred Cook, chairman; Mrs. J. T. Richardson, Mrs. Ray Bush, Mrs. H. E. Swan, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. C. A. Hingman, Mrs. C. H. Blystone, Mrs. Ed Bean, Mrs. G. M. Curtis, and Mrs. I. C. Bowser.

M. E. Ladies Aid Plans Fall Activities

The first division of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church held an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Floyd McKennon. The president, Mrs. S. C. Smith, presided over the business meeting and also led in the devotional. During the business meeting all ladies who came for Gooding college were requested to bring it to the church Sunday morning of Thursday evening. Plans were discussed for the churchazaar to be held December 5 and also for the reception to be given for the new pastor and his wife Thursday evening, October 10. All ladies who are members of the M. E. church were urged to attend the county convention of the Methodist Ladies Aid of Union October 21. Transportation will be provided by calling Mrs. S. C. Smith at Mrs. Sherwood Williams.

A social hour was enjoyed before adjournment and refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Leslie Duncan and Mrs. Walter Perry.

New Pastor and Wife Given Surprise Party

The members of the South Methodist church gave a delightful surprise party Tuesday evening at the parsonage for the Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Hall, who recently took charge of the south church here. They presented the pastor and his wife with many gifts needed at the parsonage.

The evening was spent socially after which the ladies presented served delicious refreshments.

Guild Meets at Cochran Home

Mrs. George T. Cochran and Mrs. A. V. Cople were hostesses to the members of St. Peter's Episcopal Guild yesterday afternoon when they held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Cochran. Fifteen ladies were present and during the business session, presided over by Mrs. J. C. Camp, president, plans were made for a cooked food sale to be held soon.

At the close of the business meeting the afternoon was spent socially and a dainty lunch was served.

Eighty-Five Attend Auxiliary Meeting

The Young Women's Educational Auxiliary of the Methodist church met on Tuesday evening of this week in the church basement. Eighty-five young women were present at this meeting, one of the largest which the Auxiliary has ever enjoyed. The topic for the evening was "The Lure of Distant Ports," and the committee in charge of the program presented one number for each of the great world ports. For each number, a short travelogue, descriptive of the port and its people, was given. The program follows:

San Francisco and Honolulu, travelogue by Mrs. F. A. Epling, and a Hawaiian dance, in costume, by Jean Williams and Lois Nelson, assisted by Dorothy Brownton and Grace Gebel. The girls in the dance accompanied by their ukuleles, sang the familiar "Aloha Oe."

Yokohama, travelogue by Mrs. J. E. Woodell, and a glee-verse dance, in costume by the girls who rendered the Hawaiian number.

Hongkong, travelogue by Mrs. Floyd McKennon, and a Chinese fairy tale, told by Mrs. Beatrice Young in Chinese costume.

Bombay, travelogue by Mrs. Ray Williams, and a reading by Mrs. Harold McDaniel from Rabindranath Tagore.

Savoy, travelogue by Mrs. Glen Campbell, and two songs by Miss Daisy Robbs, "Santa Lucia" and "O Sole Mio."

Barcelona, travelogue by Mrs. H. E. Dixon, and a Spanish dance by Miss Sally Siegrist.

Gibraltar, travelogue by Mrs. Ralph Byers, and a comedy skit, "The Customs House," the various characters being taken by Miss Nell Mahaffey, Mrs. Raymond Swan, Mrs. Tom Walstinger, and Mrs. E. F. Hensler.

New York, travelogue by Mrs. George Pierce. This number was accompanied by a tableau of the Statue of Liberty, impersonated by Ruth Byers, and a song, composed by Mrs. Pierce and sung by her two children in patriotic costume. Between each number of the program, a quartet in nautical dress, composed of Mrs. Claude Cooper, Mrs. Vera Waitenberg, Miss Mima Cooper and Mrs. H. F. Tyler, sang.

At the close of the program, which was of exceptional interest, the committee in charge turned the meeting over to the president, and after a brief business session, refreshments were served. The committee for this meeting consisted of Mrs. F. A. Epling, Mrs. Floyd McKennon, Mrs. Ray Williams, Mrs. George T. Cochran, Mrs. J. E. Woodell, Mrs. H. E. Dixon, Mrs. Ralph Byers and Mrs. Glen Campbell. The accompanists for the various numbers were Mrs. Sherwood Williams, Miss Lois Nelson and Miss Gladys Miller.

Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. Adskim Entertain at Bridge

Mrs. Hess T. Eaton and Mrs. John Adskim entertained at four tables of bridge last evening at the home of Mrs. Eaton on Second Street. Pretty fall flowers were used to decorate the home. At the close of an enjoyable evening a dainty two-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. George T. Bantz won high score and the second prize went to Mrs. Walter Frouman.

Will Attend Union Convention

Both divisions of the La Grande Methodist Ladies Aid society voted acceptance of the Union society's invitation to Union for a county convention October 21, when they met yesterday. The Union convention is to be an all-day affair, according to word sent by Mrs. Edith Play, secretary of the hostess committee, will include a noon luncheon to which each delegate is to contribute a covered dish. The Union society will furnish coffee, sugar and cream.

Reports of the work done by the local members will be given by Mrs. Sherwood Williams, president.

Altar Society In Meeting

The first regular meeting of the Altar society was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Julius Roeseb, when Mrs. Roeseb and Mrs. Hugh Brady were hostesses. Twenty ladies were present and after an interesting business session presided over by Mrs. Harry Laver, president, a social hour was observed and dainty refreshments were served.

The home was beautifully decorated with the season's flowers.

Mrs. Wilson Entertains Aid

This second division of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thomas Wilson on Cedar street. During the business session, with Miss George Haare, president, presiding, the county convention to be held at Union was discussed. About fifteen ladies were present.

A social hour was observed and refreshments served after the business meeting.

There will be a reception at the Christian church tomorrow night for the new members of the church. The entire congregation is invited.

The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet to-

MINERVA SAYS:

One-third of the shoes we are selling are Arch-Aid. There must be a reason for this, and there is. Each woman who buys a pair seems to be satisfied, for she tells her neighbor how much more comfort she has in Arch-Aids than the ordinary shoe, and her foot trouble is all gone. I can do my day's work with perfect ease, since I have been wearing Arch-Aid shoes. If you don't believe me, just try one pair and be convinced. Be good to your feet and they will be good to you. Good feet mean a good disposition.

Try Arch-Aid Shoes—they won't fool you.
