"Pretty Ladies" To Open Two-Day Run At Sherrys Sunday

Monta Bell's best directorial effort of his entire career, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Pretty Ladies" will be shown Sunday and Monday at Sherry's theater.

Those who have seen this film pronounce it to be even better than his "Lady of the Night," a picture which established him as one of filmdom's premier megaphone wretches.

How Bell has managed to gather such an array of stage and screen talent into a single cast is a mystery, unless it may be attributed to his personal popularity and magnetism.

Versatile Stars On Vaudeville Bill for Sunday

An exceptional roster of vaudeville's finest in a well-balanced bill of novelties, comedy song and dance offerings will be seen at the Arcade theater Sunday.

William Moore presents Mons. Jeanette Robinson and company, featuring Mons. Robinson, the only male toe dancer of his kind on the stage today. He is assisted by a male novelty dancer and three beautiful girls who are grace personified. The act is most wonder-

Film fans will find a delightful surprise awaiting them in "Flapper Wives" at Sherrys tonight only, in the person of Miss Allison, who plays the leading feminine role.

For the first time in her career, Miss Allison, former Metro star, has an opportunity to display her emotional talents. Heretofore, this brilliant young actress confined her talents to playing light comedy and flapper roles, and very few people suspected her dramatic ability.

In "Flapper Wives," Miss Allison is seen as Claudia Bigelow, dashing young society leader who is brought face to face with the realities of life only after a tragedy has shaken her soul to its very depths. The role taxes Miss Allison's versatility to the utmost, for it demands a constant change of emotion.

At the opening of the story she is reckless and daring and masks her real feelings by a display of light-hearted abandonment. Wedded to a man several years her senior, who is extremely conventional and narrow minded, and who is very little of a companion, she finds diversion in frivolous entertainment, flirtations and thrills. But as the plot unfolds and the various influences which go to make up the drama of the story are brought to bear upon her, the carelessness, the hardness, selfishness and recklessness give way to understanding, sincerity and strength of character.

Comedy showing, "Hot and Heavy."

Silk Tariff Makes Women Smugglers More Careful

DOVER, Eng. (AP)—Women are much keener about smuggling silk into England than they were before the passage of the recent tariff. A gown which costs $50 in Paris now carries about $35 in English duty. The same ratio prevails for lingerie and silk stockings, which can be had at a low price in France because of the exchange situation.

Laces and perfumes were the chief articles that English women would try to smuggle in from France, but silk has now leaped to the fore.
