Home Wedding Feature of Week

A beautiful wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bidwell, at Island City yesterday at 12 o'clock, when their niece, Miss Iels Bryant, was united in marriage to Roy Bickland.

The bride, accompanied by her uncle, Mr. Bidwell, and preceded by her maid of honor, Miss Virginia Bryant, was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Lester Bickland. Mrs. Hall K. Waite played Lohengren's wedding march. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Hall K. Waite. Only the immediate families of the bride and groom were present.

The bride was lovely in a gown of bride's satin, with a tulle veil and wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a stunner bouquet of bride's roses. Her maid of honor wore apricot tulle and carried violets. The home was decorated with a profusion of white flowers. The altar before which the ceremony was performed was lighted with tall white candles.

Immediately following the ceremony a delicious two-course luncheon was served.

The happy couple will make their home near Island City, where Mr. Bickland has a farm.

Bridge Luncheon At O'Brien Home

A charming bridge luncheon took place yesterday afternoon when Mrs. E. L. Pouch and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien were hostesses at the home of Mrs. O'Brien on First street. A delicious luncheon was served at 1:15 o'clock after which nine tables were at play. The home was decorated with the idea of Halloween, a black and yellow color scheme being used. Many bouquets of beautiful yellow flowers were arranged throughout the home.

Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp won high score during the afternoon's play and the second prize went to Mrs. P. S. Robinson.

Bohnenkamps Entertain Club

Mr. and Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp delightfully entertained the club last evening at the country club. Seven tables of bridge were at play during the evening with Mrs. Leo Bouvy winning high score among the ladies and the gentleman prize going to H. A. Zurbach. The guest prize was presented to Mr. and Mrs. David Stoddard, who now make their home at Baker, and were guests in the city last night.

At the close of the play dainty refreshments were served. The table was decorated with a beautiful centerpiece of autumn leaves and flowers.

Will Greet New Methodist Pastor

Members of the La Grande Ministerial association, friends, constituents and members of the Methodist church will meet this evening at 8 o'clock to greet the Rev. and Mrs. Parker, new occupants of the Methodist parsonage, who have come here recently from Boise.

The arrangements for the reception are under the direction of the Margatha Bible class. The reception will also be in the nature of an "open house" for the purpose of creating a home atmosphere for the new members of the church. A pleasing program, under the direction of Mrs. Sherwood Williams, will be given and refreshments will be served.

Stock Returns

The jumper suit or one piece frock of this season is very apt to have a high collar arrangement of some sort. This one has an old-fashioned stock that fills the bill very acceptably.

Mrs. Wade Entertains At Bridge Party

Mrs. Charles Wade entertained with an attractive bridge party yesterday afternoon at her home on Washington avenue. The home was decorated with beautiful autumn flowers and during the afternoon four tables were at play. Mrs. Ross Eaton won high score for the first prize and the second prize went to Mrs. Charles Reddinger.

The next meeting will be October 27.

Echo Girl Married To E. F. Lovelace

A quiet wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 3:20 o'clock when Miss Lillie Carroll of Echo, and Edmund E. Lovelace were united in marriage by the Rev. George Albert Tolland, at the parsonage of the Baptist church. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stiles.

Union County Couple Wed in La Grande

Miss Nella Crawford and George H. Ruck, both of Union county, were united in marriage by Justice Hugh C. Brady Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock.

Music bath no charm to soothe the savage philogriph, play piano or squawking radio. Our neighbor's new baby seems to have stilled.

Announcements

Social announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any functions such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day, must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock. — News editor's note.

Mrs. W. P. McAdory and Mrs. H. E. Williams will be joint hostesses to the Baptist Ladies Aid society tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Williams.

The Greenwood Parent-Teacher association will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the school. A good program has been arranged.

Meat Eaters Live Longer is expert's finding

Eight years' research convinces Prof. J. R. Slonaker

An Associated Press Dispatch, dated August 10, from Leland Stanford University, California, states:

"Prof. James R. Slonaker, of the Physiology Department of Stanford University, has emerged from eight years of experimenting, with the conviction that meat eaters, as compared with vegetarians, will live longer, have more offspring and be of more hardy physique."
