

New Fall Styles From Authoritative Style Centers

THE LAMBS' CLUB, NEW YORK

THE American young man sets his own style. These styles are established through three sources—universities, the business world and the stage.

There are certain places in the country which have come to be style centers! Young men members of exclusive clubs at large universities, men who frequent the Lambs' Club of New York City and the members of the New York Stock Exchange have been found to be among the first to wear the season's newest styles.

ALLEGED NEGLIGENCE OF WOMEN CALLED "BRUSH"

ATLANTIC CITY (AP)—Charges against American women of "brushing" boys and children" were characterized as "nothing but a lot of brush" by Ada Hesse Swann, home service expert of the American Gas association, in an address today.

"The only new fashion I know of that has taken permanent hold on American women is to change the word housekeeping to house-making," the speaker said.

Eastern Oregon Observer, October 14, 1898—1. Olneyburg shipped a car of produce east last week.

Prof. Tucker, of the Iowa school was in the city Saturday. He has an attendance of over 10 pupils, and a nine month school.

S. P. Richardson has a camp of 30 men on Spring creek at work on his logging contract with the Grande Ronde lumber company.

Carl Row, editor of the Walla Walla Observer, son of Hon. J. L. Row, of Alsea, surprised his many friends by introducing an accomplished young lady of Moonmouth, formerly Miss Bertha Whitaker, as his wife. They will make their home at Joseph.

George Fourth left last week for San Francisco, where he goes to accept a position as private secretary and bookkeeper for Henry Pierce, who has disposed of his interests in this valley and invested in California.

Manager Robert Smith of the Grande Ronde lumber mills while in La Grande last week stated that their mills were now one hundred and ten carloads behind in their orders, and he was obliged to wire their agents in different parts of the country not to accept any more orders for lumber in order that they might fill the orders now on hand.

At the Perkins hotel in Portland on last Tuesday evening Maud A. Geer, daughter of Governor A. Geer was united in marriage to Haim Cooper, of Union.

Many who keep cows are buying the soap at the sugar beet factory, as it only costs 50 cents per ton and makes not only cheap but good feed.

George Truckman has delivered to the factory 140 tons of sugar beets from a 6-acre tract of land. He has 40 more and loaded eight cars in three days. He hauls 6000 pounds to the factory, requiring six horses to pull out of the fields. Four horses are used the balance of the distance. His beets are going 18 per cent.

John Heiland and family have moved from their farm to their recently purchased property in the city.

The Alliance Flouring mill run last Sunday to complete a large flour shipment to China so it would reach Portland in time to be loaded on the outgoing steamer. They made it.
