Bride-Elect Guest At Glassware Shower
Honoring Mrs. Dorothy Caldwell, whose marriage to Arthur Phelix will be an event of next month, Miss Emma Lyman, Miss Lucille Black and Mrs. Earl Larson entertained with a glassware shower last evening at the Lyman home. Twenty girls were present and the evening was spent at games. Mrs. Ella Bean, Miss Myrtle Black, Mrs. Lily Pelee and Miss Lois Lyman winning prizes.

After the games luncheon was served. A pink and white color scheme was used in the table decorations. Flowers were in the form of bouquets. A small picture of the bride-elect and groom was found in the hat of each guest. Miss Caldwell received many beautiful gifts, including lead sea glasses, goblets, sherbets, cocktail glasses and a pitcher.

200 Welcome Dr. Parker and Family
More than 200 people attended the reception given last evening at the Methodist Episcopal church honoring the Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Parker and son. The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of autumn flowers. Addresses of welcome were given by the Rev. William Crosby Ross and the Rev. G. A. Pollard, representing the La Grande Ministerial association, and by the Rev. Hall K. Walls of the Island City community church.

The chairman of such organizations in the church also extended a word of greeting to the new pastor and his family. Those who talked were: A. W. Nelson and H. E. Dixon, representing the Men's Forum; Mrs. George Pierce, the Martha Sunday school class; Miss Mable Doty, the Young Women's Educational auxiliary; Carl Wallace, the Sunday school; Wesley Brown, the Epworth League; Mrs. B. W. Leighton, the Women's Foreign Missionary society; Mrs. Leo Hunsford, the Home Missionary society, and Mrs. Sherwood Williams, the Ladies' Aid society. Responses were given by Mr. and Mrs. Parker.

A delightful musical program was given consisting of a piano solo by Miss Lois Nelson; two vocal numbers by Mrs. Helen Stearns, accompanied by Mr. Dykhus at the piano, and a vocal duet by Paul Knautz and Sherwood Williams.

Mrs. Bay Entertains Alpha Club Members
Mrs. H. M. Bay was hostess to the Alpha club yesterday afternoon at her home on Cedar street. Bouquets of beautiful autumn flowers were attractively arranged throughout the home. During the afternoon five tables of bridge were at play, with Mrs. H. E. Watkins winning high score among the club members and the guest prize going to Mrs. Chase Hohnenkamp. The out-of-town visitors were Mrs. N. C. Hempton and Mrs. Charles Swindell, both of Portland, who are house guests of Mrs. W. H. Leisman.

Luncheon Honors State Organizer
Chapter E. P. E. O., entertained at a luncheon yesterday afternoon at the Foley hotel as a compliment to Miss Beanie Mickey, of Portland, who, as state organizer of the order, is visiting various chapters in Eastern Oregon this season. After the luncheon, an inspection meeting was conducted at the home of Mrs. Ed Klidde, at Island City, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. Wayne Wade and Mrs. Edward Van Bokland. Miss Mickey gave an encouraging talk to the members after inspecting their work.

Miss Sara Brownell reviewed the life of Edward Bok and gave an insight into his personal character. She told of his education, his connection with Scribner's magazine and the Ladies' Home Journal and sketched his new book, "Twice Thirty." Mrs. Hazel Shoemaker read Bok's poem, "God's Hand."

Mrs. Ivanhoe Is Hostess to Club
Tables dressed in marigolds and asters were laid for the members of the Thursday Auction club when Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe entertained them at a luncheon at her home on Cedar street yesterday afternoon. A three course menu was served. After luncheon, the hours were passed with cards, the prize for high score going to Mrs. A. E. Hendrickson. Mrs. Robert Pattison will be hostess to the club at her home next Thursday.

LODGE HOME NOW OPEN
PENDLETON, Ore.—The temple of Eureka lodge No. 32, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, remodelled during the past few months at an approximate cost of $25,000, was formally dedicated to the uses of the I. O. O. F. in ritualistic services. Representatives from practically all of the lodges in Mora and Umatilla counties witnessed the ceremony, which was in charge of Henry Young of Hamilton, grand master, and O. P. Steele of Pendleton, grand marshal.

Addresses were delivered by Mr. Young and by R. Alexander, past grand master, and a member of the Pendleton lodge since 1875. Since its organization in 1871, the local chapter has grown from five to 500, Mr. Alexander declared.

Sister Mary Says:
(By Sister Mary)
Breakfast — Stewed prunes, cereal, thin cream, baked oatmeal with tomatoes, crisp whole toast, milk, coffee.
Luncheon — Noodle soup, cottage cheese and carrot sandwiches, baked rice pudding, milk, tea.
Dinner — Cream of celery soup, braided pork chops, candied sweet potatoes, creamed cauliflower, pear salad, lemon jelly cake, graham bread, milk, coffee.
Pork chops can be broiled over or under a fire or pan-broiled in a hot iron frying pan over the fire. Always cook pork until "well done" whether it be roasted or broiled.
Candied Sweet Potatoes — Four medium-sized sweet potatoes, 3/4 cup sugar, one-third cup melted butter, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon lemon juice.
Wash sweet potatoes and cook in boiling water for 20 minutes. Drain and peel. Cut in lengthwise and arrange in a buttered baking dish. Sprinkle sugar over each half and pour over melted butter and lemon juice. Bake in a slow oven for one hour. A dripping pan is convenient to use for candying the potatoes. Increase the heat for the last few minutes of cooking to color the skin and potatoes.
