Dinner—Baked mullberry, cream, creamed onion, baked potatoes, jellied fruit salad, ivory cream, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

If any onions are chosen for dressing, the dish is much more attractive. The onions are kept whole and are cooked just long enough to be tender but not "mushy." Cook the onions in a little water. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Cover closely and cook slowly for one hour. The amount of salt may be determined by the salt used. Bury butter fat will require less salt than butter. After the rice absorbs the moisture from the tomatoes it will be necessary to stir the mixture occasionally to prevent burning.

Spanish Rice.
Two tablespoons lard, fat or butter, 1 large Spanish onion, 1 cup sliced tomatoes, 1 cup uncooked rice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper.

Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Cover closely and cook slowly for one hour. The amount of salt may be determined by the salt used. Bury butter fat will require less salt than butter. After the rice absorbs the moisture from the tomatoes it will be necessary to stir the mixture occasionally to prevent burning.
