was in full swing and from then on the fun was continuous until the midnight hour brought a halt to the merrymaking.

James Ferris and Mrs. James Nelson were awarded gifts last night at 10:30 o'clock with Lucy E. Brady and little Miss Catherine Smith presiding.

Tonight, as a grand finale, a set of silverware, guaranteed for 75 years, in a cedar chest, will be given to the woman with the "most loons." An $18 Indian robe will be given the man having the most '49 currency.

As a whole, the Elks, with the success of the 1925 night fun show, assured beyond any doubt, are beginning to make arrangements for the annual community Christmas tree for the kiddies, which will probably be located at the intersection of Depot street and Washington avenue, by the Elks' temple, and for distributing potatoes, apples, fruit, meat and other provisions to the needy of La Grande. The Boys of '49 proceeds are used to finance the tree and gifts to the needy.

Besides the La Grande people present last night several out-of-town people were in attendance. Tonight scores from valley points and nearby towns are expected to attend.

RECEPTION IS GIVEN PARENTS

Practically the entire guest body remained to visit the individual classrooms after the program, the teachers withdrawing early to receive them there. The occasion was entirely informal, and was the result of a desire on the part of the high school faculty to become personally acquainted with the parents of their students. Miss Eleanor Vernon was chairman of the committee on arrangements.

The members of the glee chorus were: Soprano, Daisy Robbs; First Tenor, Juanita Spencer; Second Tenor, Edna Gekeler; Third Tenor, second soprano, Dorothy Brown; Barbara Hart; Grace Gehl; Dean Wright; and Catherine Buckley; alto, Lucille Stetson; Phyllis Ansell; Marian Har's; Charlotte Walker and Marian Miller. Myrtle Wilcock is piano accompanist.

The orchestra consists of: First violins, Bertha Dantz, Lawrence Ray, Louise Leighton and Phillip Walburn; second violins, Effie Blanchard, Marian Wagner, Gertrude Wheeler and Charlie Ason; saxophones, Amy Brown, Paul Burt and Marion Crowe; cornet, Kenneth Thompson; clarinet, Stanley Zundell; piano, Helen Price, and assistant pianist, Dorothy Brown. The orchestra is directed by Miss Ruby Lila Dillon, who also plays the flute.

Second Raspberry Crop Picked

Are Alligators Poultry?

Here's the evolution of an alligator and the pictures show that this reptile is born exactly like a chicken. Above the baby "gator" has just started to force its way out of the egg, while below it is defying zoologists to explain how so much alligator can be contained in such a small egg.

UNION FOOTBALL TEAM PREPARING FOR BAKER GAME

UNION (Special)—Hard practice is in order by the first squad of Union High school players getting in readiness for the game at Baker on Saturday of this week. Coach Pitts expects a hard battle and is giving the boys a daily grilling preparatory to the trip to the mining town.

The dramatics department of the high school is planning a couple of short plays to be given soon. This work is in charge of Mrs. Hagitt, history and language teacher.

Fred Meyers, rancher from the Home district north of Union, has moved into town in order that his children may attend a graded school. He will have a sale of his stock and other farm property in the near future.

Carl Zeemer, who lives near Elgin, was at Union Thursday on a business trip.

Ed Gustor has spent the past week in western Oregon, visiting his two sons, Cecil and Lyle, who are attending college, and as a delegate to the state meeting of the K. of P. lodge.

Ed Chime visited in Portland last week.

WOMAN SHOT FOR DEER
MILL CITY, Ore.—Mrs. J. W. Wiley of this city was accidentally shot in the left arm by J. J. H. Shivers, one of this city, while deer hunting several days ago in the Abies country. It is reported that Dr. Shivers mistook Mrs. Wiley for a deer when the party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley and Dr. Shivers, separated. Mrs. Wiley was taken to the hospital at Corvallis.

PERRY NEWS OF THE WEEK

PERRY (Special)—Among those who went China pheasant hunting the first day of the open season were: Fred Larson, K. W. Smith, Roy Johnson and G. H. Billings, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson and niece, Linnette Heber, of Spokane, are expected to arrive in Perry this week.

Mrs. Walter Martin made a trip to Pendleton Sunday. She was accompanied by her small son.

A. E. Kelly was a caller at the George Robertson home last Tuesday.

Hurt Kall made a trip to La Grande Monday.

George Johnson has been building himself a new house in La Grande. He expects to work for the M. Emily Lumber company in their new mill there.

C. C. Johnson and wife and son Harry, David Johnson and family and B. Beckel and family returned from Portland Wednesday evening. They report an enjoyable trip.

Mrs. Naomi Robertson made a trip to La Grande Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foster and son Billy, were visitors at the Ed Fell home one day the first of the week.

Harold Hamilton who had the misfortune to cut his thumb and was confined to his home for several days is able to be at work again.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murray were La Grande visitors Saturday.

The education board of the Perry school has just received an order of school supplies.

PROTECTION TAKES DEER
EUGENE, Ore.—Deer along Salt creek in the vicinity of the Southern Pacific company's rail construction operations on the Natron cut-off are very tame, due to the fact that there has been no hunting allowed on that watershed for several seasons.

Nelson F. Maccluff, supervisor of the Cascade forest, has a number of photographs taken by a timber inspector on the railway tunnel construction showing the animals in groups, evidently only 40 or 50 feet away from the camera.
