Neighborhood Club Compliments Teachers

About 75 teachers of the La Grande public schools were guests at a complimentary tea given by the members of the Neighborhood club Saturday afternoon at Honan hall, where the rooms were aglow with huge bouquets of marigolds, wild chrysanthemum.

Autumn foliage and branches of autumn ferns, newly inaugurated president of the historic club, assisted Mrs. A. W. Nelson, chairman, and the members of her committee to extend a welcome to the guests. Others in the receiving line were Mesdames H. S. Brown, Lowell Williamson, H. N. Ashby, S. D. Crowe, Floyd McKennon, E. L. Holmes, D. H. Jones, L. H. Brown, W. E. Buchanan, H. E. Cooldge, R. A. Wilkinson, Guy Ellis, E. G. Kirby, Nathan Zweifel and W. H. Mohr.

Those in the company who desired to play cards were entertained at 15 tables, arranged in three rows for competition. Mrs. E. A. McEachern won the prize for high score at bridge. Miss Marian Dunmore and Miss Ruby Dillon were awarded for winning scores in their respective rows in the five hundred division.

Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn and Mrs. Het Tyler received prizes in the kindergarten group.

In the program following the games, the club met sang a double number consisting of "At Twilight" by Nevin, and "My Lindy Lou" by Strickland. As an encore they offered a Lucas number, "I Passed by Your Window" Mrs. E. L. Holmes was accompanist.

Miss Florence Thompson delighted the assembled guests with her essays with dramatic readings. Miss June Wells danced "A Dainty Miss" Miss Lois Nelson playing her accompaniment.

Mrs. A. L. Richardson, with Mrs. Holmes at the piano sang an aria, "Welcome, Sweet Spring," from the Cadman song cycle, "Morning of the Year," and for an encore used Robert Terry's "The Answer."

The compliment was concluded with the serving of refreshments in the basement dining hall, where small tables were centered with baskets of marigolds. Gold, the club color, was further evidenced in the ribbon sandwiches and frosted cup cakes that were served.

Snakeskin

The snake has a little habit, we know, of shedding his skin from time to time, and the discarded epidermis is now being used to good advantage for shoes, handbags, and hats. This coat is of silk, and has a collar of imitation snakeskin carried out in silk and velvet. It is perhaps more comfortable about the neck than the real article would be.

with coffee by members of Mrs. Nelson's committee.

Russell, Mrs. Cora Serber, Mrs. Sherwood Williams, Mrs. E. Marks, Mrs. Henry Peckler, Mrs. Mabel McAllister, Mrs. Edna Robinson, Miss Violet McViville, Miss Nell Thacker and Miss Bertina Young.

The first historical mention of a balloon is a record of an aeronaut carrying several persons that descended into the city of Lyons during the latter part of the reign of Charlemagne (742-814), the flyers being charged with being sorcerers and condemned to death.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)
 Breakfast—Wheat cereal cooked with dates, thin cream, French toast, syrup, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Potatoes baked and stuffed, shredded cabbage, eye broard, orange jelly with whipped cream, drop cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Roast veal, potatoes baked with meat, gravy, buttered carrots, head lettuce with Thousand Island dressing, steamed carrot pudding, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

If the luncheon dessert is not planned for little people a variety of fresh or canned fruits can be added to the jelly before molding.

When baking potatoes with meat keep in mind the necessity of salt-ling them separately as they are put around the roast in the pan.

Potatoes Baked and Stuffed.
 Three large smooth potatoes, 12 large oysters, 2 tablespoons butter, 1/2 teaspoon salt, milk, 6 table- spoons buttered crumbs, few grains pepper.

Scrub potatoes and bake in a hot oven for one hour. Split in half lengthwise and scoop out the inside, taking care not to break the skin. Put potato pulp through ricer and season with salt and pepper. Beat with a fork or muffed spoon until light. Line the potato shells with this potato, filling it up roughly around the oyster. Arrange on a baking sheet and put two pan-broiled oysters in each case. Bake with bits of butter and cover with buttered crumbs. Put into a hot oven to broil the oysters and brown the crumbs and potato border.

Who Will Buy Your Washer For You?

Will it be the arguments of a salesman; will you listen to extravagant claims—or will you test a machine at your own home and under your own conditions? Wise buyers demand assurance before investing their money. Can there be a more conclusive proof that the "EASY" is a safe investment than a demonstration in your own home with your own washing?

The "EASY" washes ALL of the family wash clean. So do some other washers, but in the "EASY" wool blankets and other fluffy materials come out with their downy and tufty surfaces restored. The same applies to flannel materials because there is no rubbing or applied friction, which has a tendency to harden the surface of materials of this character. Shirt cuffs, collars and bands need no hand rubbing. Sheer and dainty things could not be washed more carefully by the housewife using her hands as suction cups in the bathroom wash basin, because the three suction cups in the "EASY" gently force soap suds back and forth through the mesh sixty times per minute. The "EASY" also thoroughly cleanses badly soiled overalls and similar things.

Check also the many other leading and exclusive features of the "EASY." Note its gear drive running in a bath of oil—no belts to slip or give trouble; its straightline lever action eliminating friction—increasing wear and cutting down current consumption; its wide open tank—no heavy parts to lift; its sturdy and durable construction; observe its conveniently located safety switch. Let the "EASY" in action prove to you that there is half a century of satisfaction back of its clothes-washing principle.
