Greta Nissen Hailed As Latest Screen Sensation

If Greta Nissen is not, in six months time, numbered among the brightest sensations of the silver screen, then scores of well known film players in Hollywood will be forced to admit they are "second guessers."

Miss Nissen is the beautiful Norse girl discovered by Jesse L. Lasky as a wonderful screen possibility while she was playing in the original stage version of "Becky on Horseback" in New York city. Speaking of the new Paramount actress, Mr. Lasky said: "In Greta Nissen I believe we have one of the greatest finds the screen has ever had. In the versatility of the studio, she has everything—beauty, charm, grace, talent, and above all, that personality, that individuality that is so essential to screen success."
"I have seen many stars developed, but I cannot recall one about whose future I was so optimistic as I am about Miss Nissen. If ever there was a genuine example of what the film world calls a "discovery," it is Greta Nissen."
And it is a significant fact that every prominent star and director at the Paramount studio in Hollywood has gone on record as agreeing with Mr. Lasky. The fact that she was signed for Howard Higgin's new production, "In the Name of Love," and also for the leading feminine role in "The Wanderer," before she had completed her first picture, William DeMille's "Lost—A Wife," is proof positive that the screen has a new sensation.

Incidentally, Miss Nissen is more fortunate than many of the other cinema newcomers in that she had many years of the finest training in the art of pantomime, the most valuable asset a screen player can possess. From the age of five—she is not yet 15—she had the best instruction in the art of pantomime and pantomime at the Royal Opera in Copenhagen. And it was at the National theatre in Copenhagen, under the patronage of King Haakon and Queen Maude of Denmark, that she made her debut as a dancing star.
Native picture-goers will have the opportunity of seeing her at the theatre today and Tuesday when "In the Name of Love" begins its local engagement. Richard Cortez, Wallace Berry, and Raymond Hatton share featured honors with Miss Nissen in this production.
"Confessions of a Queen" at Sherrys is Thrilling Story
"Confessions of a Queen," at Sherrys was made for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer by Victor Seastrom, who together with Agnes Christine Johnson adapted it to the screen from "Kings in Exile," Alphonse Daudet's famous story.
"Confessions of a Queen," is a powerful story of love and intrigue. In tempo and theme it is unlike Seastrom's two preceding productions, "Name the Man" and "He Who Gets Slapped." Previous to that time he was director in chief with a Swedish motion picture company located in Stockholm, where he established himself as a director of unusual ability by handling all types of productions from weird fantastic tales to stories of light bubbling comedy.
The cast of "Confessions of a Queen" is headed by Alice Terry, Lewis Stone, John Bowers and Helena d'Alcy.

THRESHING IS NEARING END

CLOVER CREEK (Special)—This week will wind up the threshing in this vicinity. Hewitt brothers, Charles Watkins, Frank Hutchinson and J. P. DeVore will be the last to finish their threshing.

Lowell Williamson and Lou Stone, of La Grande, were recent business visitors to this section. George Aughey will complete his threshing this week. Mr. Aughey's injury to his hand has handicapped him, but he has continued his work.

Mrs. J. A. McCune and son, Edison, and Mrs. Delbert McCune, were recent visitors to La Grande. Clover Creek is now attired in autumn colors. Jack Frost has visited this section several times. Potatoes are being dug. There will only be a normal yield, but they are of a very good grade. J. A. McCune has the best yield. Apples are also being picked and vegetables are being put away for the winter.

Fred Davis is threshing in this section this week. He has a large machine. Stanly Shaw has moved to North Powder. Mr. Shaw does not plan to farm in this section again next year. He has been here for the past seven years.

Gravina Hobbs and Mrs. Charley Waitz were Clover Creek visitors this week. Mr. and Mrs. Waitz will leave again for California, where they will spend the winter. Mrs. Waitz has two sons who live near San Francisco.

SIDELINE FARMING PAYS

PEN DIETON, Ore.—Sideline farming has paid Shaw brothers, who operate a ranch about 10 miles south of Pendleton on McKay creek, according to one of the brothers. In addition to producing wheat and hay, they run a small flock of sheep this year and carried enough hogs to clean up waste.

They recently sold 27 head of spring lambs, which averaged more than 100 pounds in weight and brought slightly in excess of $200. Just a few days ago they marketed 12 head of hogs that had the range of the farm to pick up waste wheat that the harvester did not get. The hogs brought a little less than $200.

Seastrom, while Percy Hinton was chief cameraman.

Comedy showing, "A Royal Family," with the Spat family.

FOR SALE

A well-furnished house and big lot for $2500. Very seldom is an opportunity presented like this. The initial payment is only $500. Monthly payments on balance.

One of the unusual opportunities is presented in a furnished home and a pool one, for $1550, near the courthouses. Owner non-resident and will accept a payment of $250.

Mr. Benter, do you realize that the majority of houses for rent are for sale. I have a splendid line of listings, many which require only small payments, and priced today much lower than similar property can be purchased next spring. Now is the time to invest in La Grande property. It pays to think just a little faster than the other fellow, and it may save you the inconvenience of moving during the cold winter months.
