GUARD THY TONGUE.—Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile. Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.—Psalm 34:13,14.

The average man's ideal of interior decoration is a square meal.

When football scores indicate scholastic as well as athletic supremacy college activities will at last be happily balanced.

The age has produced an instrument that tells when a man has been indulging in liquor. Many newly-made mounds in cemeteries will tell the same thing. Safety and bootleg liquor are unknown to each other.

Apparently Colonel Mitchell has a strong ally in Rear Admiral Sims, retired. The admiral, who has gained a reputation for being quite frank and outspoken long before now, was quoted yesterday as severely criticizing the navy department's aviation policy. Like Mitchell, he could not well afford to make such statements without having a sound foundation for them. It looks like a hard winter for the old army and navy grayheads.

LOCALITY AND FAME.

The conviction of Edward Bok that a man cannot be buried in any locality, large or small, if he have the elements of greatness and achievement in him, should be of encouragement to those who feel that their talents are wasted because of an unappreciative or depressing environment. "Cream will rise to the surface anywhere," asserts Bok, and an observation of the early life of successful men goes to confirm his statement. Abraham Lincoln in his boyhood split rails for a scanty living, and Daniel Webster was brought up in a New Hampshire log cabin where hard work was the rule and money was seldom seen.

Riches have proved a more formidable handicap to success than poverty. Opposition has been and still is the material upon which character feeds for its development and growth. No Gopher Prairie is strong enough to down a man if he has the will to forge ahead.

The country boy has, if anything, the advantage of the city boy, because he has quiet and distance to give him a sane point of view. But the man who will succeed, will succeed anywhere. He has the choice of being engulfed by his circumstances or of triumphing over them.

GIRL IS LOYAL TO LONE WOLF

"The Wolf" came back to Chicago to face the music. He went to the office of his lawyer, Robert L. Collins.

"He is innocent," another way of expression was sought for Washington. He still was dying, the courts were told. But this time, "The Wolf's" plea fell on deaf ears.

A few days later he was being helped from a taxi at the Coliseum penthouse in Atlanta.

After returning behind with a copy of her father's will, which he drew amid much publicity just before the prison trip's start. It disposed of a purported estate of $2,000,000, representing the spoils of a lifetime in "The Wolf's" rise from northern grip to glory to a state of view in criminal Chicago.

The world may say "Wolf" but I shall always call him "Wolf" and love him, says Alice. He is innocent of any crime, and I shall fight the world for him, since he no longer can fight for himself. "I don't care what the world thinks or says about it either."

Injuries Found More Severe
SANDY, the 12-year-old brother of Sandy, hurt in an auto accident

Legion Orders Ambulance
ALBANY, Ore.—The new ambulance for Albany has been purchased by the American Legion from the Albany garage, and will be a special job to be turned out at an eastern factory. Wrestling matches and amateur shows will be put on by the legion to pay for it. Donations are also being made by physicians and Albany business men to swell the fund.

CHECK RAISING CHARGED
EUGENE, Ore.—Harold Lockwood, formerly of this city, was arrested at Seattle on a warrant issued here today charging him with raising a check from $15 to $45 and cashing it.

Lost Found
Lost—Found was employed for a time by Chris Marx of the Marx building. A cleaning woman received the effect as part of his services, but after cashing it, she kept it.

The philosopher who said ten years ago that it was dangerous to judge the contents of a bottle by the label it bore must have foreseen the conditions that prohibition was going to bring.

GO TO IT.
When you feel like the whole darn world is wrong, and your lips want to hum a melancholy song, Get off in a corner, far away from your clan, And yell the darn song just as loud as you can. Then a sweet state will come to your face, For it's funny to sing in an out-of-the-way place.

CIRCULATION OF U. S. CURRENCY AT PEACE TIME PEAK

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The American people generally are demanding more and more money, and the circulation of currency in the United States now has reached the highest point for any peacetime period in history.

Figures made public Tuesday by the treasury showed the circulation on October 1 was $4,827,696,544, an amount exceeded only on November 1, 1919, when post-war conditions sent it to $5,628,417,722.

Assistant Secretary Dewey of the treasury, with a committee of experts is looking about for emergency means of meeting the situation. An important part of the present demand is for dollar bills, but the call for other bills of smaller denominations, notably fives, also has increased. The circulation on one-dollar bills has increased forty millions in the last six months.

Some of the treasury economists maintain that the unusual demand for a larger circulation is evidence of an expanding business. They contend that there has been an important trend among business interests to the theory of quick sales and small profits, which necessitates a rapid change in the ownership of money.

The treasury itself will make no official comment on the situation until Mr. Dewey's committee makes a further inquiry, which is to include a study of the whole currency situation as well as of the demands now evident.

This whole country seems to be absolutely untouched as far as slate surface strip shingles is concerned.

We are handling the Pabco shingles which will wear indefinitely. Mr. Ed. Holland of the Paraffine Co., Inc., is here looking over the field in our interest. He tells us that it is one of the richest fields that he has entered for many a day as there are so many poor leaky roofs that can be easily remedied by placing the slate surface shingles over the old cedar shingles. This will eliminate lots of trash to be cleaned up and make a cool insulated roof in the summer and warmer in the winter. How could that be? It is the same proposition as a man blowing in his hands to make them warmer or blowing in his coffee to make it cooler. We are able to combine with mail order houses and give you a better piece of goods. Nails, $4.95 base in keg lots. We are busy so will say goodbye.
