Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)
Breakfast—Halves of grapefruit, spinach with poached eggs on toast, crisp buttered whole wheat toast, milk, coffee.
Luncheon—Tribbles of cauliflower with tomato sauce, whole wheat bread, peach and orange marmalade, rolled oats cookies, milk, tea.
Dinner—Roast beef (English cut), brown gravy, baked potatoes, creamed new turnips, stuffed pepper salad, Washington cream pie, graham bread, milk, coffee.
An "English cut" of beef is one of the cheaper roasts. The meat is not as coarse-grained as many of the cheaper cuts and is quite tender and juicy. However, this cut must be "well done" to make it palatable.
Tribbles of cauliflower are delicious for a main luncheon dish or can be used as a vegetable entrée in a formal dinner.
Tribbles of Cauliflower
One head cauliflower, 3 eggs, 1 cup milk, 4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, butter.
Break cauliflower into separate salted water for half an hour. Drain and cook in slightly salted boiling water for 20 minutes. Drain or let the water cook away. Nearly fill four well-buttered tin-bale molds with the tiny flowerets.
