D. A. R. Tea at Bohnenkamp Home Mrs. Lynn Bohnenkamp and Mrs. L. Busey entertained at a tea yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bohnenkamp for the members and those eligible to become members of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Thirty ladies were present.

Fancy Handle

There is very little that can be done to an umbrella to change its lines or add to its general utility, but a great deal of ornamentation and expense may be lavished on the handle. This one is filled in with colored stones to give a mosaic effect.

Compliment Teachers With Dancing Party

One hundred couples attended a dancing party at which the Union county chapter of educators complimented the visiting teachers last evening in the ballroom of the Elks temple.

Depending with a receiving line in order that the affair might be completely informal, the hosts started the dancing promptly at 8 o'clock. The Sunset orchestra furnished the program, which continued until 11:30. Misses Bernice Wilson and Myra Lyman poured the punch.

On the committee in charge of the dance were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Perkins, Dr. and Mrs. W. P. McAdory, Mr. and Mrs. Holger M. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Foxworth, Misses Lucille Black and Erma Lyman.

Visiting Officials Guests at Luncheon

Mrs. W. B. Pickett entertained with a luncheon yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at her home on Alder street, complimenting Mrs. Seymour Jones, state regent of the organization of Salem, and Mrs. J. L. Soule, state registrar, of Baker, were present. Mrs. Jones gave an interesting talk telling of the activities and purpose of the D. A. R. Mrs. Soule gave a talk dealing with what is necessary to become a member of the organization.

The D. A. R. has not yet been organized in La Grande. When three more women register as members an organization will be formed here.

Alumni Honor Miss Wade, Mr. Gentle Thomas Gentle, head of the education department at the Oregon Normal School at Monmouth, and Miss Lucy Wade, who was graduated from there in 1922, were the honored guests at a reunion luncheon of graduates at the Elks temple at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the L. O. O. F. dining hall.

Eight covers were laid at tables bright with bouquets of marigolds. An orchestra furnished music during the course. Little Billie Duncan recited "The Raggedy Man" and Mr. Gentle addressed his former students in a brief talk.

Teachers Camp At Wallowa Lake

Wallowa Lake lodge is the scene of a week-end party in which a group of high school and grade teachers are participating. Those who drove there last evening included Superintendent and Mrs. J. T. Longfellow, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wren, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gray, Campbell, Misses Spears, Esther Bretholz, Ruth Johnson, Ethel Bickford, Marion Dunmore, Lois Davis, Florence Thompson and Owen Heibron. Misses Verity, Caroline Hamman and Mabel Doty joined them at the lodge this morning.

Announcements

Social announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any functions such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock. — News editor's note.

The Monday Bridge club will meet Monday, October 26, at the home of Mrs. Charles Dingman, 1462 Second street.

All ladies members of the Ku Klux Klan are requested by the excellent committee to meet at Eagles hall Monday evening, October 26, at 7:30 o'clock, to take part in a public meeting.

The Parent-Teacher association of the Central school has launched a campaign for more parent members, allowing until Monday noon for those who wish to become members. The state Parent-Teacher association is offering a loving cup for the best record in Oregon. "Let no one think that they can place responsibilities on some one else that they should take themselves. Just when the world is wondering whether mothers and fathers have forgotten their duties of parenthood and their sacred responsibility to their children comes the plea for parents to co-operate with teachers having children 26 hours a week to weed and hoe in the garden of souls," says the committee in charge, speaking of the campaign, adding, "In speaking of parents we mean fathers as well as mothers."

States are committed by persons under 25 years of age. An eastern judge states the fact that 200 youth crimes which come before him, not one was brought up in the Sunday school of 100 that were dismissed with the understanding and promise they would attend Sunday school regularly only 62 ever returned to court again. We believe a return to the "old paths" is the need of the hour, and will help to lessen the crime wave that is sweeping our fair land. Our Sunday school is run for the benefit of the children of La Grande. Bring them each Sunday morning, 9:45. Morning worship, 11:30; evening message, 7:30, both by pastor.

Methodist prayer meeting next Wednesday, 2:30 at the home of Mrs. B. Jordan. Regular weekly prayer meeting Thursday evening, 7:30. Place of worship, Riverside chapel, three blocks north and one block west of Second street viaduct. D. D. Meggers, pastor.

Christians. O. W. Jones, minister. Sunday will mark the close of the present pastor's relation as minister of the church. There will be services both morning and evening. Bible school meets at 9:45; C. E. at 6:30. A cordial invitation is extended to all services.

First Baptist. Sixth street at Spring avenues. Services for Sunday, Oct. 25, 10:25. Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. The graded lessons are in use in all the classes. The Sunday school is the great antidote to crime: are you supporting it? Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Anthem by the choir under the direction of L. P. Barnett, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say," by Dykes. Sermon by the pastor on the theme, "Our Duty to Hate." Children's sermon there: "Prince Baruch."

Presbyterian. "Religion at its source is personal adventure on a way of living. Christianity is a stirring and costly adventure in personal character and social relationships," says a well-known writer recently. We believe in this way of life and all for our service are aimed to help in this adventure. You will find a real joy in our Sunday school each Lord's day morning at 9:45. With classes for all ages. A men's class starting tomorrow in which we will utilize many. The orchestra is a great asset to the school. At the morning worship hour, Mr. Raymond Williams sing a baritone solo: "I Come to Thee" by Carlo Roma and Mrs. Tedford presides at the pipe organ. This morning hour is affording many an opportunity for worship that should be embraced by all. Our Junior C. E. at 4 and our intermediate C. E. at 6:30 grant privileges for expression of belief to our young folks. The evening service at 7:30 continues the studies in the leaders of Israel with life applications. We try to build Christian character upon God's truth in all our work and extend to the community a most cordial invitation to share with us these goals. Wm. Crosby Ross, minister.

Nazarene. The best available statistics show that more than 27,000,000 children and youths under the age of 25 in the United States are receiving no religious education. Other sets of statistics show that approximately 75 per cent of the crimes committed in the United States are committed by persons under 25 years of age.

and the Maine Prison." Evening service at 7:30 o'clock. This will be the first of a series of six combination services under the auspices of the W. W. G. girls. The service will open with a presentation by the girls of chapter one in the mission study book, "Prayer and Missions." The specific theme for the evening is "Prayer." Special music has been arranged. The girls will sing their adopted prayer lyrics, "Have Thine Own Way, Lord." Mr. Harrott will sing a baritone solo from the Gratiano Kilm, "I've Never, All Ye People," by Mendelssohn. The music quartet, Mr. Barnett and Mr. Polard, tenors, Mr. Barnett and Mr. Devine, basses, will sing "Interceder for Me," by Kirkpatrick. The pastor will bring the sermon message on the theme: "The Prayer Life of Jesus." We cordially invite the public to worship with us on these services. George Albert, Colford, pastor.

Sister Mary Says: BY SISTER MARY Breakfast—Olives of grapefruit, broiled bacon, scrambled eggs with rice, bran muffins, milk, coffee. Luncheon—Cheese timbales with sauce, sliced tomatoes, whole wheat bread, rolled oats, drop cookies, milk, tea. Dinner—Oyster stew, baked beans, brown bread, celery-pepper, apple salad, jellied pears, milk, coffee. Children under ten years of age should not be allowed to eat the baked beans suggested in the dinner menu. However, a well-balanced diet for the day is provided without the beans. Cheese Timbales. Four eggs, 1 1/2 cups milk, 1 cup stale bread crumbs from soft part of loaf, 1/2 cups finely chopped cheese, 1/2 teaspoon mustard, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon butter. Beat eggs slightly with salt and mustard. Add milk, bread crumbs, cheese and butter. Mix well and pour into well-buttered timbale and the Maine Prison." Evening service at 7:30 o'clock. This will be the first of a series of six combination services under the auspices of the W. W. G. girls. The service will open with a presentation by the girls of chapter one in the mission study book, "Prayer and Missions." The specific theme for the evening is "Prayer." Special music has been arranged. The girls will sing their adopted prayer lyrics, "Have Thine Own Way, Lord." Mr. Harrott will sing a baritone solo from the Gratiano Kilm, "I've Never, All Ye People," by Mendelssohn. The music quartet, Mr. Barnett and Mr. Polard, tenors, Mr. Barnett and Mr. Devine, basses, will sing "Interceder for Me," by Kirkpatrick. The pastor will bring the sermon message on the theme: "The Prayer Life of Jesus." We cordially invite the public to worship with us on these services. George Albert, Colford, pastor.
