TIGERS ARE ON WAY TO IDAHO

Nineteen members of the La Grande high school football squad, following an assembly this morning, left for Boise about 10:20 o'clock, where they will compete with the Braves tomorrow afternoon in the only interstate game on the schedule for this season.

Neither Boise nor La Grande has played any team this year that has met the other so there exists no doubt but it is felt that the Tigers will, they will have accomplished a feat no mean proportions.

Boise is considered one of the strongest teams in Idaho this year while La Grande has yet to have its goal line crossed by a high school opponent.

The men who make up the squad now en route to Boise are as follows: Captain Strand, Larson, Smith, Gillen, Landry, Hughes, Zundel, Glass, Paine, Jones, Price, McKennon, Courtney, Wallace, Hanks, Sherwood, Brown, Scott and Snyder.

The team will probably line up as follows: Collier, center; Landry and Smith, guards; Hughes and Strand, tackles; Larson and Zundel, ends; Glass, quarterback; Price and McKennon, halves; Paine, fullback.

BOISE IS READY.

BOISE, Ida. (Special)—With the intention of wiping out the sting of last Saturday's defeat the Boise high football team, with a week of hard work behind it is going into the game with La Grande Saturday determined to win, according to Coach Bauer. Because of injuries and sickness in the squad the first of the week was given over to light practice and chalk talks. Bauer has been seeking to drill team work into the player and to perfect the different formations, according to the idea that if every man did the part allotted to him on each play every scrimmage would result in a touchdown.

"We were defeated last Saturday," the coach stated. "But it is no disgrace to be beat. The disgrace lies in staying beat. In laying down and quitting and there is not a man on the squad that has quit. They are fighting harder now than ever before and the defeat by West high has made them more determined."

LEAGUE HOLDS MEETING

RANDY, Ore.—The Mount Hood Loop Development league held its second meeting at Spaulding's Restaurant at Arrah, Wagon. The temporary officers, W. L. Northwick, president; Jack Greenwood, vice president; and O. B. Spaulding, secretary, were elected to hold over until the annual meeting. Property owners, business men and residents of the mountain districts, Sandy and Parkdale, were present.

OREGON TEAM ON WAY SOUTH

A committee on by-laws was named, and many questions concerning the interests of the 12 communities west of Government camp were discussed. An effort will be made to enlist ever community in the work for mutual interests.

'Nother Champ

Nearly all other titles having been claimed by someone else, 12-year-old Paul Lezer of St. Paul, Minn., steps out as the "junior sweater" making champion of the world. He won this crown in a contest which a St. Paul charitable institution, recently staged.

Colorado Teachers vs. Colorado Mines at Greeley, Colo.
Impressing others is a waste of time. Those legends you can't look down on you. And those above you must.

Two strikes never worried Lajoie, but he hated to have the umpire call the third one on him. He always wanted to expire swinging. "Call the third one right," was Lajoie's favorite remark to the umpire.

There is no telling what kind of overcast today would have hung up hitting against the fiery ball. Really there is little to choose between these two superlative batsmen.

Unquestionably Hornsby is the greatest right-handed batter of modern times. There is rhythm, poise and power to his swing. However, Lajoie's style at the bat was no less beautiful. It was a picture any time Larry cut at the ball and now it would travel, usually on a line.

When State meets Illinois it will be interesting to watch the battle for supremacy that is certain to be waged between these two stars of the Big Ten.

Most of the experts think very well of the young man but there are some dissenting voices, particularly as to whether he is a second "Red" Grange.

In football there could be no tougher spot than to be compared with Grange. It's just like calling a baseball rookie a second Ty Cobb.

In Big Game

"Red" Grange will make his first and only appearance in the east when Illinois and Pennsylvania clash at Philadelphia, Oct. 31. Of course he'll be leading the Illini with Joe Whelan piloting the Quakers. Grange is the one at the top in above layout.

BIRD SEASON NEARING END

Hunters in Union, Umatilla, Baker, Grant, Malheur, Morrow, Klamath, Hood River, Wasco and Wallowa counties will have their last chance to make up their Chinese pheasant quota tomorrow inasmuch as the open season closes at sundown.

In Union county, excepting the first few days of the open season, limit bags have been quite rare and most nimrods have had to be satisfied with a bird or two in repayment for a day's hunting.

MONTANA TO PLAY AGGIES

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, CORVALLIS, Ore. (Special)—Start for Corvallis early in the advice being broadcast by the athletic department regarding the big homecoming game with Montana Saturday. A double reason for promptness exists as the game will be called at 11:20 instead of the customary 2:10, and the early comers will get the good seats reserved in advance.

A colorful team using much of the open style of play so popular with fans will be seen in action on the field. While it will be the initial appearance of the Aggies on the local campus, they will be well respected in advance as the northern team is composed mostly of veterans and contains some of the outstanding stars of the conference.

Schulmerich, triple-threat half for the Aggies was injured in the terrific battle at Stanford but will probably be back in a suit for Saturday's game. Every Aggie player except Hill should be in condition for the fray. The line is being given heavy scrimmage this week, and Coach Schlessler was far from satisfied with their charging last week.

Jennman, Edwards, Ward, and Schulmerich, who made sensational gains against Stanford by passing and open field running, will have worthy opponents Saturday in Sweet, Kelly, Ilman, and Ritter. Sweet is the fastest man in the conference by long odds, while Kelly is a passer par excellence who handles the ball almost like a baseball pitcher. The Aggies are determined to win, but a close score is anticipated.

Officers of the club look for a great attendance Sunday, since most of the hunting is over for this season.

SHOOT TO BE HELD SUNDAY

Trapshooting meets at the Long Tree field will be commenced at 10 o'clock next Sunday morning, and will be continued each Sunday thereafter for the remainder of the season under the auspices of the Wink, Jim and Phoebe club.

"So if you failed to get your deer this year, or fell short of your bag in the China sheasant season, and shoulder your spatter gun and take it out on the city pigeons. And if you have a gun, the club will furnish you one," officials of the club say.

"You have just three weeks to get in shape for the annual turkey shoot, which the club announces will take place Sunday, Nov. 7."

The turkey contest will be conducted on the plan that has been followed in other years. Each man will be privileged to try for five birds the prize to go to him who proves most successful. Should two or more contestants bring down their full quotas, they will pepper another round of birds to shoot off the tie.

Officers of the club look for a great attendance Sunday, since most of the hunting is over for this season.
