"Dixie Handicap" At Sherrys Is Exciting Film

For thrills, comedy, beauty and more thrills we recommend "The Dixie Handicap." Reginald Barker's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production at Sherry's today and tomorrow, as one of the most all-around satisfactory pictures of the year. Rarely have we seen any picture as exciting, or at the same time, as pleasing to the eye. There are several reasons for both. For excitement there are a number of horse races that surpass anything done before on the screen picturing the "Sport of Kings." The earlier ones take place at a county fair, and the climax race is the International contest between the horse of the film and the English champion. These scenes were taken at Latonia and their authenticity added a good deal of interest to the picture.

Beauty Easy to Find For beauty you need go no further than Chire Windsor, who plays the leading feminine role, that of Virginia, the daughter of Judge Roberts (portrayed by Frank Keenan). No such treat for ailing eyes has passed across the screen in many a day; it is indeed easy to understand why Miss Windsor has been picked as one of America's most beautiful women. And the backgrounds of the picture offer a very pleasing sight, with their Southern atmosphere and quaint views of the track. Then, of course, there is Frank Keenan as the Judge. Always a colorful actor, Mr. Keenan does some of his best work in "The Dixie Handicap," playing his role of the aristocratic old Southerner who falls into poverty, with rare restraint. "Comedy showing," "The Cloud-hopper."

"Jumping Jack" Holt Makes Perilous Leap In Grey Film

"Some day I am going to make a jump and come out whole!" That is the announced ambition of Jack Holt, who is one of the featured players in Zane Grey's "Wild Horse Mesa," which was recently produced for Paramount by George B. Seltz. For one of the dramatic episodes in the production, the popular actor jumped his horse off a 50-foot cliff. The horse was not hurt, but Holt was laid up for three days. At that figure for his hospital time is improving, for his debut in the films was by a similar jump off a cliff which resulted in two cracked ribs and necessitated the horse of the film and the English champion. Since then, he has made many dangerous leaps, but never without sustaining some minor injury. "Wild Horse Mesa" is the feature at the Star today, Saturday and Sunday.

Denny Picture At Arcade Called Rib-Shaker

"I'll Show You the Town," the Universal-Jewel feature starring Reginald Denny which is now playing at the Arcade theater, is a story without a single heroine. It has four of them! Four leading women, of diverse and distinct types, support Denny in his latest comedy feature. They are Marian Nixon, Margaret Livingston, Cissy Fitzgerald and Lilyan Tashman. Miss Nixon plays the role of a sweet, unsophisticated girl from the far west; Miss Livingston as Denny's boyhood sweetheart from the country; Miss Fitzgerald as a wealthy widow, and Miss Tashman as the dance loving wife of Denny's friend. Trying to show the sights of the town to three of the heroines at the same time, each of the women being unaware of the others' existence is the problem which confronts Denny in the role of Professor Dupree, a scholar who is attempting to write a dissertation on "Apartment House Life in Ancient Rome." How this unusual feat is accomplished is revealed in a series of highly comic situations. "I'll Show You the Town" is the screen version of Elmer Davis' entertaining novel of the same name. It was produced under the direction of Harry A. Pollard. Denny is surrounded by an unusually strong cast including Hayden Stevenson, Edward Kimball, Neely Edwards, William A. Carroll, Martha Mattox, Helen Green and Lionel Braham.

"Abie's Irish Rose" At Arcade Saturday

"Abie's Irish Rose," the three-act comedy by Abie Nichols, opens an engagement of two performances at the Arcade theater on Saturday afternoon at 2:30, October 31. The night show starts at 8:45. Miss Nichols has woven a refreshing comedy around the racial characteristics of Hebrew and Irish, yet so good natured and true that it is inoffensive. The story tells how Abie Levy secretly marries his Irish Rose, Murphy and how his father—ignorant of the prospect of his marrying little Jewish Rose—and not a "schelm." Many complications develop when Abie's father discovers that Rosemary is not Miss Murphy but the daughter of Pat Murphy. After a year of struggling—both of the newlyweds being disowned—they all get together on Christmas Eve and there is a grand reunion and general forgiveness. "Abie's Irish Rose" will be presented here by the same excellent cast of metropolitan players that recently concluded an engagement of eight weeks with this wonder play at the Broadway theater, Denver. Another company is now in its fourth year at the Republic theater, New York, while another ran over a year at the Studebaker theater, Chicago.

Reserved seats are now selling at the Glass drug store.

Haymaking by means of hot air under pressure now makes it possible to bale hay eight hours after raking.
