Pretty Home Wedding Takes Place

A pretty home wedding took place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Olive McLaughlin and Harley Stoenking were quietly married at the new home Mr. Stoenking had prepared for his bride on Adams avenue. The Rev. William Crosby, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated. Miss Vera McLaughlin, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Ed Graham acted as best man. The bride wore a beautiful blue gown and carried a bride's bouquet. The bridesmaid wore a corsage of roses.

New Idea

Here is a new type of necklace that is a relief from the necktie pearl choker. It consists of a number of short lengths of pearls hanging from a band of black velvet ribbon. It is an excellent thing for the woman with a short neck to avoid.

W. W. G. Celebrates Anniversaries

A unique party was given by the World Wide Guild Saturday afternoon at the Baptist church honoring the tenth anniversary of the World Wide Guild, the second anniversary of the local World Wide Girls' Sunday school class and the first anniversary of the Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Pollard's residence in La Grande. Previous to the program there was a short business session, presided over by Mrs. Cornelia Hansen, president of the guild.

Miss Mabel Schaefer opened the program with a skit entitled "Birthday Girls from Near and Far." Miss Cornelia Hansen exhibited trinkets of a ten-year old and Miss Bonnie Oliver presented the human birthday cake. Miss Marjorie Magnus led in the devotional which was entitled "Double-you, Double-you Guild." Several of the girls told of the fifteen point system used by the guild and the work they are doing.

Mrs. W. P. McAdory, counselor for the guild, made a few appropriate remarks, after which a social hour was observed. The guests were divided into groups according to the season of the year in which they were born and were given the names of famous missionaries born during the same season. Dr. and Mrs. Pollard were presented with gifts from the World Wide Guild, the Ladies' Aid society and the Ladies' Missionary society.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. William Shade, assisted by Mrs. Roscoe Clark, Mrs. H. P. Nelson and Mrs. Grant Wilson.

Mrs. R. A. Maguire, Mrs. W. J. Devine, Mrs. Charles Whitney and Mrs. C. E. Happerstedt were patronesses for the affair.

Witch Is Guest At Hallows Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brown on M avenue was the scene of a Halloween party for which 29 of their friends were received Saturday evening.

Decorations in orange and black, featured by witches, cats and other emblems of the season, were used on curtains, walls and the table, which was centered by a huge jack-o'-lantern. In the adjoining room stood a check of fodder, from which came a dull orange light.

When the guests had assembled, a knock at the door announced the arrival of a witch, riding the proverbial broomstick. Seating herself in a previously arranged booth, she took the hand of each guest in turn and gave him a glimpse into the future. After her disappearance, games in keeping with the occasion entertained the guests until a late hour, when refreshments concluded the party.

Mrs. Green Entertains

Mrs. R. J. Green was hostess to the members of the Club Saturday afternoon at the country club with a prettily appointed luncheon at 1:15 o'clock. A beautiful bouquet of mixed flowers served as a centerpiece. The placards were in Halloween colors. These tables of bridge were at play following luncheon with Mrs. Ray Murphy winning high score for the club prize. The guest prize was presented to Mrs. H. M. Bay.

Party Compliments Miss Smith

Miss Melba Smith was the inspiration for a delightful party Saturday afternoon when her aunt, Mrs. W. Vedder, entertained 13 of her little friends in her home. Various games were played during the afternoon, after which luncheon was served. The table was beautifully decorated with a centerpiece of roses. A favor, suggestive of Halloween was at each place. The children present were: Catherine Avery, Betty Mae Allen, Dickie Allen, David Douglas, Marjann Smith, Lee Ha Smith, Catherine Sporn, Evelyn Sporn, Marguerite Brown, Margaret Davies, Lloyd Davick, Wayne Williamson, Cathleen Williamson and the honor guest.

Three-Score Children At Entertainment

The children of the primary department of the Presbyterian Sunday school were entertained at a Halloween party Saturday afternoon in the basement of the church, by the superintendent of the department, Mrs. John S. Hodgins. Sixty children were present and spent an enjoyable afternoon at various games, appropriate for the occasion. The church basement was decorated with black cats, witches, ghosts and other motifs of Halloween. Refreshments were served after the games.

Mrs. Crowley, Mrs. Koyle Entertain

Mrs. Alvah Crowley and Mrs. Chester Koyle entertained sixteen people Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Crowley on Oak street. The home was decorated suggestive of Halloween, jack-o'-lanterns being used. Cards were the main feature of the evening.

Miss Snook Hostess To Children

Miss Grace Snook was hostess to the children of her Sunday school class Saturday afternoon at her home on M avenue. Twelve children were present and the afternoon was spent in telling ghost stories and playing games in accordance with the Halloween season.

Miss Mulholland Entertains

Miss June Mulholland entertained a number of friends at a Halloween party Saturday night. Games were played during the evening, after which refreshments were served.

Union (Special)—The Woman's club met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pearl McGee in North Union. The topic for discussion was "The Home and Home Beautifying." Several musical numbers added to the interior of the meeting.

After the program luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Weston, Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Murelda Sturgill.

Cove (Special)—The Young Men's club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Lynn Chadwick Saturday evening. Five candidates were at play Miss Hysa Kelly and A. H. Orton winning high scores. The Halloween idea was cleverly carried out in the decorations of the home. After the play a delicious luncheon was served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Orton, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Holtz, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Conklin, Mr. and Mrs. William Hallmark, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller, the Rev. and Mrs. William Murray Bradner, Miss Boss Kelly and E. D. Kelly.

Promise (Special)—The Young Men's club party at Mrs. J. H. Poulson's last Saturday evening. The time was spent at games, after which refreshments were served by Mrs. Allie Smith and Mrs. Stella Poulson.

REVIVAL MEET IS UNDER WAY

MEDICAL SPRINGS (Special)—The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Orr of Elgin are holding revival meetings at the school building. Mr. and Mrs. R. Malone of Cove are visiting relatives and friends here and attending the revival meetings. They were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Looney. Mrs. Looney of Boise, Idaho, has been visiting her son and family, George Looney, for some time. She left for her home the first of the week. F. Wilson and wife, of Baker, were Monday night guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kennedy. Mr. Wilson demonstrated a radio at the Wilson home. Several Medical Springs people were present. People from Medical who were shopping and visiting at Baker last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Winn Duncan, Mrs. J. F. Kennedy, Misses Edith Turner, Edna Henniger, Ida Stone, Fae Kennedy and Cy Turner. Mrs. L. A. Chandler met her mother, Mrs. J. F. Kennedy, at Baker Saturday and spent the day there, returning to her home at La Grande that evening. J. R. Wanker, Vivian Kennedy, Lester Miller and Ed Hack went to the mountains to ride for cattle. Orville Lay delivered a load of and cookies, so a set of tiny muffin pans is a good investment. The tiny cake need not be baked for small persons who find a whole cake far more desirable than half a cake. A simple cake, with the meat is preferable to candy between meals.
