BULGARIAN REPORTERS RECEIVE $8 A MONTH

SOPHA (AP)—News reporters here presumably exist on what many newly married couples always feel they can fall back on—love and fresh water. The average reporter receives about $8 a month and, an important editor such as Nikola Mileff, who was assassinated, receives less than $50 a month.

FOR SALE

Here is another opportunity! Two big lots, 60 by 110 feet each, a small house near the high school for $1200; a small payment down and small monthly payments will place you in immediate possession. Not much of a house, it is true, but the lot values will soon be worth more than the owner is asking for the property. Keep it a few years and your equity and advance in property will permit you to own a better home. Anything beats paying rent year in and year out, and here is a chance to work into something better.

A 30-acre home close in to the business center of Cove has recently been reduced in price in order to make a quick sale. Investigate this.

Corinne Griffith Films New Story By Noted Author

Corinne Griffith, star; Edna Ferber, author; June Mathis, scenarist. Sounds like a pretty good combination where screen entertainment is concerned, doesn't it?

This triumvirate is responsible for the new bill to be offered at the Grande theater Wednesday and Thursday when First National presents "Classified."

Thousands have read the story of that name as it appeared in Cosmopolitan magazine. Other thousands are familiar with June Mathis' achievements as a screen writer. And as for Corinne Griffith, it would be a daring thing to attempt to estimate the number of her admirers the world over.

"Classified" brings to the screen a new type—the girl who takes your want ad over the phone. Also, it gives Miss Griffith a new opportunity at characterization, as she has never before attempted to portray this sort of personality. Her success is reported as having been complete.

Jack Mulhall and many prominent screen artists are enrolled with Miss Griffith in placing this delightful story of life in a New York flat upon the screen.

Jack Hoxie Starred in Big Riding Drama

Jack Hannerster risked a shot for a kiss, the revolver being held in the hand of an alluring South American beauty. Then his troubles began and, though she scorned him for a time, she gave him the title of "Don Dare Devil," which, by the way, is the title of the newest
