SKINNY MEN CAN DO THE SAME

That's going some—but skinny men, women and children just can't help putting on good, healthy flesh when they take McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. As chock full of vitamins as the nasty, fishy tasting cod liver oil itself, but these sugar-coated, tasteless tablets are as easy to take as candy and won't upset the stomach.
One woman gained ten pounds in twenty-two days. Sixty tablets, sixty cents and money back if not satisfied. Ask Glass Drugs, L. & L. Drug Co., or any druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. Directions and formula on each box.

"The Speed Spook" To Show at Sherrys Monday

When Johnny Hines, the dynamic and inimitable film comedian, mounted on trucks, was installed at the speedway, and a series of wood fibre horns spaced at intervals along the grandstand, permitted Starter Fred Wagner to describe every phase of the race to the thousands seated in the big stand. It is the first attempt of this nature ever attempted in the world and its results were so satisfactory that all other mammoth sporting events will probably have this unusual mechanism on tap at other great races with its attendant throngs.
Comedy showing, "Oh What a Fight."

"La Perry Bob" Is Latest Hair Style for Constance

Hail the "La Perry Bob" introducing a bewitching mode in her latest screen triumph, "Her Sister from Paris," Constance Talmadge is expected to precipitate a flood of demands on the nation's hair-dressing experts who cater to midday's whims.
The bob that Constance wears in this new picture is her own idea. It is a radical departure from anything in hair styles the vivacious star has ever worn, and it took several sittings with hair-dressers to achieve just the effect Constance wanted.
She christened it the "La Perry bob" because she wears it to the greatest advantage in the role of the dancing charmer, "La Perry," in the new picture.
"Her Sister from Paris" is the story of a charming but unappreciated doughnut-making wife who suddenly drops her drab plumage and becomes a bird of paradise as "La Perry," her own sister. In this disguise who vamps her own husband, and precipitates an alarming and at the same time highly amusing trend of events which ends in a most unexpected fashion.

Produced by Joseph M. Schenck for First National, "Her Sister from Paris" develops its tense and captivating plot under the deft direction of Sidney Franklin. Ronald Colman, as the vamped and bewildered husband, gives able support to the star. George K. Arthur is a "gay dog" bachelor who forms the third side of an unusual triangle.
The picture is the screen attraction at the Arcade theater Tuesday and Wednesday.

"Lightnin'" Will Be Presented at Arcade Thursday.

Thursday night, Nov. 12th at the Arcade theater, "Lightnin'" will be presented with all the splendor and artistic finish that characterized its three years' run on Broadway. The cast includes the best-remembered favorites of the play's long runs in Cleveland and the principal cities, Thomas Jefferson, who will play Bill Jones, Bossie Bacon, the vamping vaudeville actress, and Mrs. Frank Bacon will play Mrs. Jones.
Perhaps the gentleness of Lightnin' Bill Jones, his central character, invests the play with its strongest charm. When the broil of plausible circumstances finally brings him, in his A. I. uniform, into the Reno courtroom, unsuspecting that his own divorce suit is to be tried, it is this very gentleness that saves the day, frustrating and steering his adopted daughter into the arms of the right young man.
The property involved in the swindling scheme happens to be a hotel built outside the California-Nevada boundary line, with the result that the first act is full of run hung on this line. A sheriff is bailed of his fell purpose by it, and numerous divorce-seeking men and women cross it as a refuge from the stormy seas of matrimony.
"Lightnin'" second act, showing the Reno courtroom, is rated as one of the finest examples of playwrighting in stage history. The procedure is strictly legal, but the succession of laughter, tears, and thrills is no less rapid or convincing because of that.
Seats for "Lightnin'" are now on sale at Glass Drug store. Prices: Loges and lower floor, $2.25; balcony, first four rows, $1.65, balance $1.10. These prices include the tax.
A tender usually wishes he was doing something else.
An optimist is one who eats chestnuts in the dark.
