Coos Bay Hunter Kills 3 Cougars
MARINEFIELD, Ore.—Lloyd Jarvis, Myrtle Point hunter whose prowess in slaying predatory animals is often heralded, recently brought down three cougars in one day. In the last kill Mr. Jarvis made, the dogs freed a mother cougar and two well-grown kittens. He killed the mother and one kitten, but the other one climbed out of sight in the darkness, and while the dogs were watching Jarvis sleep and in the morning killed the last of the trio.

Coronels Woman Hurt in Crash
HILLSHOLE, Ore.—Mrs. Geo. Eastday of Coronalia suffered an injured arm when their auto, driven by her husband, was hit by a sand driven by S. Sandingham. Sandingham turned out to pass the Easterday machine, when his wife, who thought he had turned too far, grabbed the wheel and forced the auto back into the Easterday machine.

Constance Talmadge Here in "Her Sister From Paris"

Unless he's your husband tonight? There's a new and amusing way to discover exactly what your husband's doing, and Constance Talmadge reveals it in "Her Sister From Paris," her new starring comedy-drama of domestic life, which opens today at the Arcade theatre.

The opening scenes of the story reveal Constance as a patient, meek and loving little wife whose spouse is an author of charming stories. But she insists on feeding him doughnuts when he's thinking of moonlight and roses and lovely romance, and so they have a family rift.

But Constance never gives up. She disguises herself as her mad-cap sister from Paris, reputed to be a charmer of hearts. In this guise she lures her husband away from the family fireside and persuades him to elope with her. The rest of the story reveals a new method of winning a husband's love.

"Her Sister From Paris" is an original story by Hans Kralcy, who wrote many of the Lubitch successes. Ronald Colman and George K. Arthur share the male honors. Sidney Franklin directed.

"Lightnin's" Success Shows What Theater Fans Like Best

Any conjecture as to what the public likes best in the theater has been set at rest by the phenomenal success of "Lightnin'," the classic of laughs and heart throbs, which will be presented at the Arcade theatre, Thursday night Nov. 12th.

For three years this play poked the Gaiety theater, New York, and with 1291 performances to its credit it holds the world's record for length of run on Broadway.

With sixteen months at the Backstage theatre, it is also Chicago's long-run champion. The production to be seen here was staged under the direction of Winchell Smith, who wrote "Lightnin'" in collaboration with Frank Bacon, and the cast is a special one, organized for a series of engagements in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Denver, Salt Lake City and other large cities that have waited for the record-holder for the past four years.

For the role of Lightnin' Bill Jordan, Mr. Golden has engaged Thomas Jefferson, son of the late Joseph Jefferson, and among the other principals are Mrs. Frank Bacon, Jessie Bacon and Jack Marvin.

Seats for this attraction are now on sale at Glass drug store, Prices: Loges and lower floor $2.50; balcony, first 4 rows, $1.50; balance, $1.10.

"The Speed Spook" Is Fast, Exciting Production

"The Speed Spook," with Johnny Hines in the feature role, showing at Sherry's the last time tonight, is cheerful of racing atmosphere, so much so that the truth to detail is remarkable. Upon investigation we were informed that all of the racing sequences which are so splendidly shown in the beginning of the picture were filmed at the Alhambra Speedway during the running of the International 250-mile auto championship race last June and that the actual drivers listed such world-renowned figures as Jimmy Murphy, who won the Grand Prix in Paris in 1921 at the auto race held there; Tommy Milton, who has won no less than 200 races; Earl Cooper, who placed second in the Indianapolis race; Harry Harts, who holds the world's speed record of 128 miles per hour; Ira Vail, whose performances on dirt courses throughout the country have established him as one of the satellites of the racing world, and others too numerous to mention.

With these intrepid drivers furnishing part of the racing sequences, it is no wonder that "The Speed Spook" boasts of the greatest racing scenes this reviewer has ever seen on the screen. What is instead of interest is the fact that Johnny Hines himself entered a special hitch race with these drivers on the day after the race in order to secure the proper continuity for his story.

Bill Desmond An Adventure-Seeking Hero in "The Meddler"

Playing the part of a fascinating bandit who never stops anything but seems to get immense satisfaction from perpetrating holdups for the mere pleasure of the feat, William Desmond plays the most interesting roles in his screen career in his latest Blue Streak Western, "The Meddler," which is coming to the Star theater on Wednesday.

On one occasion circumstances forced him to keep the cash box stolen from the stage but the next day he stopped the stage again and gave the box back. The frightened driver hurried away leaving his only passenger, a beautiful girl, in the power of the bandit.

The bandit and the girl talked a long time until the sheriff's posse found them, forcing the outlaw to retreat. The mystery of the bandit's actions was not explained. Shortly after, he overheard a plot to kill the girl's father, steal his cattle and kidnap the girl. His warning to the rancher was enough to carry out another holdup to save the two from the rustlers. This he did and the girl in her attitude fell in love with the bandit.

But the bandit was in reality an eastern millionaire whose fiancée's job at his colorless life. She drives him to desperation in an attempt to make him the kind of man she wants. Returning to the city, he finds the fiancée married to a naval officer. Believing, he hurries back West and claims the rancher's daughter.

Bolton Jonney and Claire Anderson play the parts of the two girls tugging at Desmond's heart strings. Arthur Ross directed.
