OREGON TRAIL FOX FARM, H. W. Smith, Prop., La Grande, Ore.

This Silver Fox Farm Guarantees grade A stock, and makes good all quotations. No higher belt values in the west, or reliable pipe to purchase foundation stock. Now is the time to drop in and see them. My made up silver fox coats on hand will speak for themselves.

Mrs. Smith has several young CANARIES SINGING, for sale at $3.00 each. I am delivering two more pair of fox the last of this month.

FOR SALE

A neat small home for $1500. Lot 60x110. A small payment; in fact, $150 will handle this, balance $26 per month including interest. If purchaser can arrange for the first payment to be made out or before six months this will be acceptable. Investigate this. It is a good one.

A well-furnished house, with good plumbing and large lot for $2,000. That offers an opportunity for someone to own a good home instead of accumulating a bunch of rent receipts.

A very desirable bungalow on paved street in western residential section of city. A cozy home for $3,000. Terms.

"Lightnin'"—Famous Comedy Classic, at Arcade Tonight

It's here at last! Awaited with breathless interest these many months by those who are familiar with the record-shattering feats in New York and Chicago, "Lightnin'" will be introduced at the Arcade theatre to night by an all-star cast which John Goble organized for engagements in San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and the principal cities. Its engagement is for tonight only. There are still a few good seats left so don't be one of the disappointed ones.

Thomas Jefferson, son of the beloved Joseph Jefferson, heads the cast in the role of Bill Jones, the gentle old mountain truant about whom most of the action pivots. Mr. Jefferson invests the role with the same wit and wit with humor that gave his father's "Tup Van Winkle" a niche with the classics. The roles are similar but the plays themselves are vastly different. Beasts-Bacon and Mrs. Frank Bacon are prominent in the cast, which also includes Frank Thornton, Felix Haney, Jack Marvin, Mark Miller, Robt. Lowe, Myra McCarthy, James Wardley, Ethel Allen, Nellie Keller, Wm. Warner, Genevieve Lytle and many other favorites.

House Peters Role In "Raffles" Promises Novelties.

House Peters, who is coming to the Arcade theatre next Friday in his latest starring vehicle, "Raffles," Universal-Jewel version of the famous character created by E. W. Hornung, is an actor who has done much to prove the optimistic contention that there is romance in the every-day tasks of those who labor where nature is a great obstacle to be overcome.

Peters is particularly qualified for such roles by reason of his early experience. Part of his education was obtained in Australia and the callings of his early career took him into the distant places as an explorer, traveler and mining engineer. His first stage play was "The Squaw Man" and his first big screen portrayal of such a character was in "The Storm," a Universal success of a number of years ago, and he followed that recently in "The Torment" and "Headwinds," also Universal-Jewels.

However, in "Raffles," Peters steps into a different role from those referred to, as this character moves in the highest social circles in England. Also, his part is that of an amateur cracksmen, who by his brilliancy penetrates all efforts on the part of his captives and the best brains of Scotland Yard to detect him. His friends suspect him, and detectives are convinced of his guilt, but even though they regard jewels, they disappear.

The supporting cast in "Raffles," which was directed by King Baggot, includes some of the best known character actors in picture work. Miss Dupont, Hedda Hopper, Walter Long, Freeman Wood, Winter Hall, Kate Lester, Frederick Campbell, Roland Bottooley, Lillian Langdon and Robert Bol- dor.

"Off the Highway" Showing at Sherry's Today.

Tonight marks the last performance of the extremely successful showing of "Off the Highway," the Hunt Stromberg Special production, at Sherry's today.

"Off the Highway" is a powerful pictureization of Tom Galton's amazing novel, "Tatterly," which concerns a master's impersonation of his valet and double when the latter dies suddenly without witnesses. The photoplay is produced on a lavish scale and is rich in scenic descriptive of life in the artist's studios.

William V. Moon, famous character actor; Marguerite De La Motte, more exquisite than eye, and doubling John Bowers head the all-star cast.

The Sherry audiences voted it one of the finest and most entertaining pictures they had seen in a long while.

"Son of His Father," New Wright Novel, Coming to Star.

The Paramount picture, "A Son of His Father," coming to the Star Friday, produced by Victor Fleming from Harold Bell Wright's latest "best seller," is claimed to be the finest "Western" that has ever reached the screen. To back up this claim Paramount mentions—

First—the author, Harold Bell Wright, Wright's tales of the west have come into more homes than those of any other writer. During the last eight years his books have been read by more than 50,000,000 people in the United States alone.

Second—the director, Victor Fleming, who made "Adventure" and "The Beverly Carra." He also made "The Last Mile," the first Zane Grey-Paramount production, "The Call of the Canyon," another Zane Grey special, and "Empty Hands" are also on his long list of successes.

Then—the cast, Leslie Love Warner Baxter and Raymond Hatton are featured in the leading roles. Stockade, Billy Eugene and James Farley.

In order to have "A Son of His Father" historically and geographically correct, Fleming took his company of two hundred to a location seventy miles from Tucson, Arizona, a beautiful stretch of wild country, within walking distance of the Mexican border.

All this was in actual keeping with the story. To make the production even more perfect, men and women were engaged right "on the spot" to play the minor roles. It is rather interesting to think that some of these men once might have engaged in the actual gorilla warfare which, after the loss of many lives, finally rid the state of cattle smugglers.

We have our ups and downs. The man who goes the highest is the one who bottoms when he hits the bottom.
