MINNESOTA TO MEET YOSTMEN

CHICAGO (AP)—Final disposition of the western conference football championship was deferred until next Saturday as the result of Saturday's conference games. If the Minnesota Gophers are able to defeat "Harry" Yost's Wolverines at Ann Arbor next week the Gophers will have a fairly strong claim to the title. Minnesota, the only undefeated "Big Ten" eleven, must defeat Michigan to have an undisputed claim to the championship. If the Gophers are defeated Northwestern and Michigan will lay claim to the title. Northwestern has completed its "Big Ten" schedule with but one defeat, that by Chicago. The Purple has triumphed over Michigan, Indiana and Purdue and against Notre Dame, a non-conference school, next Saturday, in its final contest of the season. Michigan, if victorious over Minnesota, will have lost but one out of six conference starts. The Wolverines have defeated Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and Ohio State. They lost to Northwestern in the surprising battle of the mud in Chicago a week ago.

UNION GIRLS WIN FIRST BATTLE OF TOSSERS' SEASON

UNION, Ore. (Special)—The U. S. girls basketball team started its season here Saturday night by defeating the peppy team from Enterprise 31 to 23. The first quarter found Union ahead 6 to 2. Enterprise rallied and Union did not regain the lead until the fourth period of play when they forged ahead and won by a margin of eight points. Spencer and Skiff played forward for Union, Childers, Harn and Smith centers, and the guarding was done by Johnson, McClellan and Goetsch. Enterprise has a good team, and the members are adept at passing, but not so good at basket shooting. Spencer started for Union, making about three-fourths of the points, nearly all from field goals. Mr. Bennett, of the Enterprise schools, and a number of other Enterprise fans accompanied the girls on their trip to Union. Golden Geertsen, of La Grande, refereed.

Iowa Will Meet U. S. C. In Intersectional Tilt

DES MOINES Ia. (AP)—Iowa and Kaleb, conquerors of Illinois and "Red" Grange, will engage the University of Southern California in an intersectional tilt next Saturday. Another intersectional game will be played at Cedar Falls, Iowa Wednesday when the crack Iowa state teachers' team will clash with Colorado Teachers, one of the strongest teams in the Rocky Mountain conference.

5,000 Raids

"Honest Tom" Clavinbaugh, Pittsburg police lieutenant, has resigned from the force after having made more than 5,000 raids. One he descended on 200 places in two days. He had been on the force twenty years.

Billy Evans Says:

GRID UPSETS. Just throw out the results of the football games of Saturday, Nov. 7, in making your gridiron comparisons. At least as far as the middle west is concerned.

It is a college precedent that no football game should ever be postponed, regardless of weather conditions. I have always thought it a mistake. Now I am convinced the games of Nov. 7 furnished some of the most startling aspects of years in football. In a dozen cases the results failed to prove the better teams.

Perhaps the biggest surprise was the defeat of Michigan by Northwestern. The score was 2-2. Without desiring to detract in any way from the Northwestern victory, I feel that Michigan is at least three touchdowns better than the Evanston eleven.

Yet only one first down was made during the game and that by the losers. It was an end run by a Michigan back for something like 12 yards.

TEST UNFAIR. That in itself gives one a pretty fair idea of the condition of the field. The team that overwhelmed the powerful Navy eleven 54-0 could make but one first down against Northwestern and failed to score. True, it can be argued that Northwestern faced the same weather conditions as Michigan and won, but that doesn't mean a thing. On a field such as the two teams played on at Grant stadium and in a downpour of rain, it would be possible for a team that was 100 per cent inferior under ordinary conditions, to win.

I feel that the Iowa team is two touchdowns better than Wisconsin, yet playing on a field covered with snow, it was defeated. In the Michigan-Northwestern game the athletes wore rubberized uniforms so as not to sop up the moisture from the soggy field. In the Iowa-Wisconsin contest, the players were forced to wear canvas gloves because of the biting cold. Thirty-three fumbles were made by Iowa and Wisconsin. Certainly that game was no true test of the merits of the two elevens.

Regardless of college precedent there are times when football games, because of adverse weather conditions, should not be played. Saturday, Nov. 7 was such a day in the middle west.

California Potato Crop

SACRAMENTO, Cal. (AP)—A shortage in the potato crop in California will augment this year the general scarcity which has been prosaged by reports from several of the potato producing states. The joint state and federal crop estimating service here Saturday put California's probable potato yield at 7,248,000 bushels, compared with 7,759,000 last year and a steady average of 9,225,000. Estimate of the crop reporting service for 15 important potato producing states places the total production for these states this year at 246,362,000 bushels as compared with 454,784,000 in 1924.

PENDLETON IS EASY VICTOR

PENDLETON, Ore. (Special)—Recovering from their defeat at La Grande Armistice day, the Pendleton Buckaroos tore and thundered on the grid field Saturday to the consternation of the Herndon warriors, and won 29 to 0 for the first opposing victory of the season.

NAMPA WINS TITLE. BOISE, Ida. (Special)—Nampa high school won the football title of southwestern Idaho Saturday by defeating the Boise Braves 13 to 6 in a stirring gridiron battle. Nampa was superior in the first half but a Boise rally in the last, featuring an aerial attack, nearly upset the winners.

CUBS WIN FROM UNION SECONDS BY TOUCHDOWN

After having its tail twisted to the tune of six points early in the game, the L. H. S. Tiger cut got its ire up and clawed up the Union high school team on the football field at Union Saturday afternoon, finally winning 13 to 6. The game although hard fought and interesting throughout, developed no particular stars, both teams playing well as a unit. This brings the cubs' victories over Union this year to two. In a first encounter here they won 6 to 0.

Lee Reynolds Learns Score While He Works. Six Reynolds brothers who are all graduates of Oregon Agricultural college stood by while their alma mater whipped her traditional enemy at football Saturday. Some of them saw the game from the grandstand, others heard it over the radio, but Lee Reynolds, who is still on the home farm, calmly remained at his work in the fields while the results came in by a series of relays. Carl C. Reynolds, listening in from the radio at Lester Stoddard's home, phoned the game play by play to the farm, where Dorothy Lee Stoddard scuttled the news to her father out of doors. Oregon university alumni may or may not have felt their grief over Saturday's game alleviated this morning when they found in their mail mourning-banded cards bearing the following condolences: "Allow us to express our deepest sympathy in this your dark hour." The cards bore no clue to the identity of the mysterious sympathizer.

Where Minutes Are Golden When you read your newspaper, you probably think of it as informative, interesting entertainment—as a source of news which keeps you abreast with people and what the world is doing. That is all true—but your newspaper serves still another and equally important purpose! It brings to you news which can vitally affect your home, your mode of living, the clothes you wear, the menu for your dinner. Advertisements. You aren't spending time when you are reading advertisements. You are saving both time and money. Each day advertisers help you to compare values and prices. They tell you where you can secure the best and most serviceable at lowest cost. Advertisements are more dependable than goods unadvertised. They must be exactly as claimed. They can't afford to be otherwise. Make a daily habit of reading the advertisements. It pays.
