U. P. SYSTEM WINS MEDAL

NEW YORK (AP)—The E. J. Harriman memorial medal for the best record in accident prevention among American railroads of 1924 has been awarded to the Union Pacific system, the American Museum of Safety announced Sunday. The Delaware & Hudson and the Duluth, Missabe and Northern received honorable mention.

The western division of the Chicago Great Western railroad was awarded the silver facsimile of the Harriman gold medal given annually to the division of any railroad showing the best safety record. Joseph Kragoska, assistant foreman in the Omaha shops of the Union Pacific, received the medal for the individual employee who did most in furthering accident prevention activities during 1924. Kragoska has never received an accidental injury during 55 consecutive years of railroad service.

"The Union Pacific," said Arthur Williams, president of the American Museum of Safety, "was one of four systems whose data, submitted to the award committee, showed not a single passenger killed in train accident during 1924 though each road had a record of more than fifty million locomotive miles run during the year. In the case of the prize winning system, industrial accidents were responsible for only seven deaths and 552 injuries in a total of more than 1,200,000,000 man hours of work."

CLUB WOMEN GATHER IN INSTITUTE

brought about."

Mrs. Florence Lynch Miller, of La Grande, played a violin solo, "Gypsy Serenade" by Valdez, during a brief recess. Her accompaniment at the piano was by Mrs. Lynn Wright.

"Club Program" was the next topic dealt with directly by the state president in the absence of the hostess, Mrs. J. D. Lynch, chairman of the institute committee, presided over the sessions. Her table was adorned with a bouquet of white poinsettias and pink daisies, arranged in a silver basket.

Sixty-two clubwomen from outside of La Grande registered for the institute before noon, and others were expected to arrive for the afternoon sessions. The largest delegations came from Baker, Elgin, Cove, Union, Meacham and Haines.

A complimentary luncheon was served to the visitors at the domestic science building. High school girls under direction of Miss Lois Davis prepared and served the courses.

Mrs. Robert Sevier, of Baker, was to arrange the way for the discussion of "Club Relationships" as the first topic after luncheon.

"Finance" was the subject assigned Mrs. J. C. Baird of the Wallawa club, at 2:15 p. m.

A violin solo by Mrs. A. K. Parker, of Enterprise, will be at 2:45 p. m., preceding the second session of the afternoon.

Mrs. E. J. Mossman had pleasure in playing across the front of the club rooms to illustrate her discussion of art under the general subject of "Relations of Department to Club and Community." Mrs. H. E. Westenhaver, who originated the child welfare department in La Grande, will tell of the work of that section, and Mrs. G. J. Dutton, chairman of the music department, will speak on music.

Scholarship loan funds, endowment funds, the club magazine, the "Journal," "Hospital" movement and the relation of individual clubs to the state and general federations will be dealt with under the general theme of "Know Your Own Organization," late this afternoon under the leadership of Mrs. George Cochran.

Mrs. Dumbler will be guest of honor tonight at a dinner at the Mossman home, with Mesdames Mossman, H. J. Ritter, C. M. Humphreys, G. H. Claycomb and C. B. Appleby as hostesses.

Why Frisco's China Town Is Quiet in Tong Wars Is Told

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—While several large cities were scenes of imaginary tong wars, resulting in scores of Chinese being deported, San Francisco's Chinatown, the largest in the country, remained at peace, despite the fact that one of the warring tongs, the Hip Sing, has headquarters here.

Detective Sergeant John J. Man-

Toreador Is Caught by Bull

This unusual photograph was taken at a bull fight in Mexico City just at Silverton, famous Mexican toreador, was caught and gored by a bull. The head and shoulders of his startled companion, who is just starting to be rescued, are seen in the foreground. Silverton was seriously injured and at last reports was in a critical condition.

or gunmen, and try to keep them out of Chinatown.

The other tong concerned in the recent war, the On Leong, has no organization in San Francisco at present, but, according to Sergeant Mantion, it arranged through another tong to have some Hip Sing members slain here. Money was paid for the transaction, but the police learned of it in time to prevent it.

Sergeant Mantion, known at police headquarters as an encyclopedia of Chinese affairs, added: "Gambling most frequent is the cause of tong fighting. Gambling houses invariably are run by tongs. Rival tongs come in to play, there are disputes, charges of cheating, and soon two tongs have set their gunmen on each other."

The officer estimates that 65 per cent of the Chinese in America do not belong to highbinder tongs and have no sympathy with them.

Yet the tongs still have a strong hold here. Eight of them have national headquarters, and several others have branches. The tong for society, usually in a family clan in China. The highbinder tong, unknown in China, started in the early days of Chinese immigration to America. As the Chinese immigrants went into business, the representatives of smaller families were oppressed by more powerful families and organized for protection. Out of these tongs, formed without regard to family or other affiliation, grew the highbinder tongs. Whenever there were disputes, lives would be forfeited.

The typical highbinder, Sergeant Mantion described as an all-around criminal, cowardly, sneaking about, shooting without risk to himself. "The police have found that such gamblers usually are entirely Chinese in their associations and habits. The young Chinese educated in America or exposed to American influence is extremely unlikely to become a tongman.

Where highbinders are active, there is "captain of gunman" the go-between, taking orders and money from the tong leaders, who have no direct connection with the associates. Where there is a "job" to be done, a gunman volunteers his services and tracks down his man. The price varies with the victim's importance.

About the most dejected looking fool on earth is punies.
