

Local News In Brief

On Business Trip—A. W. Pearly, of the O-W. R. & N., is here from Portland on business connected with the railroad.

Mrs. Zurbick Improving—Mrs. Franking Zurbick, who has been very ill for some time, is reported to be better today.

Visiting Mother Here—Mrs. C. E. Spencer is visiting in La Grande for a few days with her mother, Mrs. Hough.

Board Meets Late Today—The advisory board of the Salvation Army will have a meeting at the hall at 4:30 p. m. today.

Visiting at Baker—Mrs. Mason Raymond, of Perry, is visiting friends and relatives in Baker this week. She expects to return to her home in a few days.

Here from Idaho—Mr. Hoyle and son, of Blackfoot, Idaho, are spending a few days at Hot Lake and visiting friends in La Grande.

Here on Business—C. E. Edverson, who owns a ranch on Catherine Creek out of Union, was a business visitor to La Grande yesterday afternoon.

In City This Morning—H. C. McVay, of the Union Cash grocery, and Lan Davis, a prominent rancher near Union, were business visitors to La Grande this morning.

Passed Through City—Mrs. John F. Montgomery, whose home is in Portland, passed through La Grande this morning on her way to Imbler, where she will visit with her mother, Mrs. Osborne.

Radio Concert Tonight—A radio concert will be held at the Salvation Army hall tonight for the boys club members and their parents, beginning at 7 o'clock. The entertainment will be furnished by the Heacock company.

Returned from Portland—Mrs. T. J. Scroggin and daughter, Miss Alladene Scroggin, returned to their home in La Grande this morning after a trip to Portland.

Miss Smith Is Better—Miss Wanda Smith, who has been seriously ill for a month at the home of her parents, at 2104 North First street, is showing improvement today.

In City Last Night—A. W. Schupp, attorney of Klamath Falls, was in La Grande last evening on route to his home after a business trip to Enterprise. He attended the session of the Walla-walla county circuit court at Enterprise.

Called by Illness—Dr. and Mrs. W. P. McAdory left La Grande last night for Portland, called by the illness of Mrs. McAdory's sister, Mrs. Quinn. They expect to return to La Grande tomorrow.

Visits Mother in Portland—Mrs. U. G. Cough has returned from Albany, where she accompanied her aunt home after the latter's visit in La Grande. Mrs. Cough stopped in Portland for a visit with her mother, Mrs. S. E. McCall, and her sister Mrs. Kan Wilson.

Attended Funeral—Mr. and Mrs. James Plass, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McKenzie, Ray McKenzie and Vern McKenzie, all of Walla-walla, are registered at the Summer hotel. They attended the funeral of Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie at the Summerville chapel this afternoon.

Called to Corvallis—Called to Corvallis to act as witness in a trial between O. A. C. and the P. Adams Tailoring company of Portland, Pa. H. J. Muthersbaugh left Hot Lake Thursday night to be gone for two days. Muthersbaugh is the tailor at the seminary.

Visiting in City—Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Aeschliman, of Colfax, Washington, have been visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Wright. Mr. Aeschliman is Mrs. Wright's brother. Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Aeschliman and Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Aeschliman, of Colfax, will arrive in La Grande tonight to spend the week-end here.

On Way to Portland—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Chapman, of Enterprise, are visiting in La Grande at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Heacock. They are on their way to Portland, where they will spend two or three months before returning to their home at Enterprise. They expect to leave here Monday.

Will Attend Banquet—L. J. Allen, assistant state auditor, was in La Grande yesterday. He went to Baker, where he will spend today and tomorrow in the interest of club work and return to La Grande tomorrow evening in time to attend the boys club banquet at the Union hotel tomorrow evening.

Returned to La Grande—G. E. Hubbard, formerly manager of the skating rink here, has returned to La Grande after several months absence, and expects to start the skating rink here again sometime soon. He has been in Kansas City, Denver and Medford since leaving here. He was accompanied to La Grande by Sidney Olson, who will assist at the skating rink.

Elk Memorial To Be Dec. 6—(Continued from Page One.)

announced at the regular meeting of the club last evening.

Col. Frank C. McCulloch, a Baker lawyer whose eloquence is celebrated throughout Eastern Oregon, has been invited to make the address. The entourage will be given by R. J. Green, a past executive of the La Grande lodge. In addition to the memorial rites that will be exemplified by several, the program will include several musical numbers. R. O. Williams will sing, L. J. Landsay will play a violin duet, and other musicians will contribute selections.

Several names on the necrology this year recall men who were prominent in the work of the Elk lodge. They include those of M. H. Johnson, a most exalted ruler, who was chairman of the building committee when the present temple was erected; Nolan Skiff, another past exalted ruler, and W. H. Jones, a partner in the W. H. Bohlenkamp company.

The services are in charge of a committee composed of chair officers and H. J. Ritter, representing the membership at large.

Watermelons, which were enjoyed long before the Christian era, and originally were produced only in warm climates, are now raised in every state in the Union except Maine and New Hampshire.

FINAL HOME GRID BATTLE IS ON TODAY

(Continued from Page One.)

as their big contest of the schedule.

Earlier in the season Union held Baker, figured a stronger team than the La Grande eleven, to two touchdowns. With several weeks practice and competition since then, Union hopes today to win.

Expects Hard Battle—Before the game, Coach G. L. Dutton stated that he expected a hard fought battle and would be entirely satisfied if La Grande wins, no matter how small the margin. With McKennon, star halfback, on crutches, La Grande's offensive power is weakened considerably.

Tom Bruce gave an acceptable impersonation of La Grande, while Marion Crowe, in slick attire, represented the opponents. Miss Hazel Deal played the part of Miss Victory.

After the stunt, there were football talks by Coach G. L. Dutton and Floyd McKennon, as well as several of the players. The yell leaders stirred plenty of excitement with yell practice and school songs.

Announcement was made of the awarding of prizes for the sale of tickets to the junior class play, naming Ann Stange, La Grange, Gray and Robert Mohr, a freshman as winners. The classes won the following points to be applied on their scores for the annual pep contest conducted to promote friendly rivalry among the four groups: seniors, 5; juniors, 3; freshmen, 2; sophomores, 1.

PHROPHETIC (?) SKIT STAGED PRIOR TO FOOTBALL GAME—La Grande triumphed Union to a finish for flitting with Miss Victory in what the blue and white boosters hope was a prophetic skit, given as the annual sophomore stunt before a special football assembly at the high school auditorium this morning.

Tom Bruce gave an acceptable impersonation of La Grande, while Marion Crowe, in slick attire, represented the opponents. Miss Hazel Deal played the part of Miss Victory.

After the stunt, there were football talks by Coach G. L. Dutton and Floyd McKennon, as well as several of the players. The yell leaders stirred plenty of excitement with yell practice and school songs.

Announcement was made of the awarding of prizes for the sale of tickets to the junior class play, naming Ann Stange, La Grange, Gray and Robert Mohr, a freshman as winners. The classes won the following points to be applied on their scores for the annual pep contest conducted to promote friendly rivalry among the four groups: seniors, 5; juniors, 3; freshmen, 2; sophomores, 1.

ELK MEMORIAL TO BE DEC. 6—(Continued from Page One.)

announced at the regular meeting of the club last evening.

Col. Frank C. McCulloch, a Baker lawyer whose eloquence is celebrated throughout Eastern Oregon, has been invited to make the address. The entourage will be given by R. J. Green, a past executive of the La Grande lodge. In addition to the memorial rites that will be exemplified by several, the program will include several musical numbers. R. O. Williams will sing, L. J. Landsay will play a violin duet, and other musicians will contribute selections.

Several names on the necrology this year recall men who were prominent in the work of the Elk lodge. They include those of M. H. Johnson, a most exalted ruler, who was chairman of the building committee when the present temple was erected; Nolan Skiff, another past exalted ruler, and W. H. Jones, a partner in the W. H. Bohlenkamp company.

The services are in charge of a committee composed of chair officers and H. J. Ritter, representing the membership at large.

Watermelons, which were enjoyed long before the Christian era, and originally were produced only in warm climates, are now raised in every state in the Union except Maine and New Hampshire.

ONE AT NIGHT—NEXT DAY BRIGHT

(Continued from Page One.)

as their big contest of the schedule.

Earlier in the season Union held Baker, figured a stronger team than the La Grande eleven, to two touchdowns. With several weeks practice and competition since then, Union hopes today to win.

Expects Hard Battle—Before the game, Coach G. L. Dutton stated that he expected a hard fought battle and would be entirely satisfied if La Grande wins, no matter how small the margin. With McKennon, star halfback, on crutches, La Grande's offensive power is weakened considerably.

Tom Bruce gave an acceptable impersonation of La Grande, while Marion Crowe, in slick attire, represented the opponents. Miss Hazel Deal played the part of Miss Victory.

After the stunt, there were football talks by Coach G. L. Dutton and Floyd McKennon, as well as several of the players. The yell leaders stirred plenty of excitement with yell practice and school songs.

Announcement was made of the awarding of prizes for the sale of tickets to the junior class play, naming Ann Stange, La Grange, Gray and Robert Mohr, a freshman as winners. The classes won the following points to be applied on their scores for the annual pep contest conducted to promote friendly rivalry among the four groups: seniors, 5; juniors, 3; freshmen, 2; sophomores, 1.

PHROPHETIC (?) SKIT STAGED PRIOR TO FOOTBALL GAME—La Grande triumphed Union to a finish for flitting with Miss Victory in what the blue and white boosters hope was a prophetic skit, given as the annual sophomore stunt before a special football assembly at the high school auditorium this morning.

Tom Bruce gave an acceptable impersonation of La Grande, while Marion Crowe, in slick attire, represented the opponents. Miss Hazel Deal played the part of Miss Victory.

After the stunt, there were football talks by Coach G. L. Dutton and Floyd McKennon, as well as several of the players. The yell leaders stirred plenty of excitement with yell practice and school songs.

Announcement was made of the awarding of prizes for the sale of tickets to the junior class play, naming Ann Stange, La Grange, Gray and Robert Mohr, a freshman as winners. The classes won the following points to be applied on their scores for the annual pep contest conducted to promote friendly rivalry among the four groups: seniors, 5; juniors, 3; freshmen, 2; sophomores, 1.

ELK MEMORIAL TO BE DEC. 6—(Continued from Page One.)

announced at the regular meeting of the club last evening.

Col. Frank C. McCulloch, a Baker lawyer whose eloquence is celebrated throughout Eastern Oregon, has been invited to make the address. The entourage will be given by R. J. Green, a past executive of the La Grande lodge. In addition to the memorial rites that will be exemplified by several, the program will include several musical numbers. R. O. Williams will sing, L. J. Landsay will play a violin duet, and other musicians will contribute selections.

Several names on the necrology this year recall men who were prominent in the work of the Elk lodge. They include those of M. H. Johnson, a most exalted ruler, who was chairman of the building committee when the present temple was erected; Nolan Skiff, another past exalted ruler, and W. H. Jones, a partner in the W. H. Bohlenkamp company.

The services are in charge of a committee composed of chair officers and H. J. Ritter, representing the membership at large.

Watermelons, which were enjoyed long before the Christian era, and originally were produced only in warm climates, are now raised in every state in the Union except Maine and New Hampshire.

AGGIE ELEVEN ON WAY EAST

(Continued from Page One.)

as their big contest of the schedule.

Earlier in the season Union held Baker, figured a stronger team than the La Grande eleven, to two touchdowns. With several weeks practice and competition since then, Union hopes today to win.

Expects Hard Battle—Before the game, Coach G. L. Dutton stated that he expected a hard fought battle and would be entirely satisfied if La Grande wins, no matter how small the margin. With McKennon, star halfback, on crutches, La Grande's offensive power is weakened considerably.

Tom Bruce gave an acceptable impersonation of La Grande, while Marion Crowe, in slick attire, represented the opponents. Miss Hazel Deal played the part of Miss Victory.

After the stunt, there were football talks by Coach G. L. Dutton and Floyd McKennon, as well as several of the players. The yell leaders stirred plenty of excitement with yell practice and school songs.

Announcement was made of the awarding of prizes for the sale of tickets to the junior class play, naming Ann Stange, La Grange, Gray and Robert Mohr, a freshman as winners. The classes won the following points to be applied on their scores for the annual pep contest conducted to promote friendly rivalry among the four groups: seniors, 5; juniors, 3; freshmen, 2; sophomores, 1.

PHROPHETIC (?) SKIT STAGED PRIOR TO FOOTBALL GAME—La Grande triumphed Union to a finish for flitting with Miss Victory in what the blue and white boosters hope was a prophetic skit, given as the annual sophomore stunt before a special football assembly at the high school auditorium this morning.

Tom Bruce gave an acceptable impersonation of La Grande, while Marion Crowe, in slick attire, represented the opponents. Miss Hazel Deal played the part of Miss Victory.

After the stunt, there were football talks by Coach G. L. Dutton and Floyd McKennon, as well as several of the players. The yell leaders stirred plenty of excitement with yell practice and school songs.

Announcement was made of the awarding of prizes for the sale of tickets to the junior class play, naming Ann Stange, La Grange, Gray and Robert Mohr, a freshman as winners. The classes won the following points to be applied on their scores for the annual pep contest conducted to promote friendly rivalry among the four groups: seniors, 5; juniors, 3; freshmen, 2; sophomores, 1.

ELK MEMORIAL TO BE DEC. 6—(Continued from Page One.)

announced at the regular meeting of the club last evening.

Col. Frank C. McCulloch, a Baker lawyer whose eloquence is celebrated throughout Eastern Oregon, has been invited to make the address. The entourage will be given by R. J. Green, a past executive of the La Grande lodge. In addition to the memorial rites that will be exemplified by several, the program will include several musical numbers. R. O. Williams will sing, L. J. Landsay will play a violin duet, and other musicians will contribute selections.

Several names on the necrology this year recall men who were prominent in the work of the Elk lodge. They include those of M. H. Johnson, a most exalted ruler, who was chairman of the building committee when the present temple was erected; Nolan Skiff, another past exalted ruler, and W. H. Jones, a partner in the W. H. Bohlenkamp company.

The services are in charge of a committee composed of chair officers and H. J. Ritter, representing the membership at large.

Watermelons, which were enjoyed long before the Christian era, and originally were produced only in warm climates, are now raised in every state in the Union except Maine and New Hampshire.

America Makes Real Progress in Business

(Continued from Page One.)

as their big contest of the schedule.

Earlier in the season Union held Baker, figured a stronger team than the La Grande eleven, to two touchdowns. With several weeks practice and competition since then, Union hopes today to win.

Expects Hard Battle—Before the game, Coach G. L. Dutton stated that he expected a hard fought battle and would be entirely satisfied if La Grande wins, no matter how small the margin. With McKennon, star halfback, on crutches, La Grande's offensive power is weakened considerably.

Tom Bruce gave an acceptable impersonation of La Grande, while Marion Crowe, in slick attire, represented the opponents. Miss Hazel Deal played the part of Miss Victory.

After the stunt, there were football talks by Coach G. L. Dutton and Floyd McKennon, as well as several of the players. The yell leaders stirred plenty of excitement with yell practice and school songs.

Announcement was made of the awarding of prizes for the sale of tickets to the junior class play, naming Ann Stange, La Grange, Gray and Robert Mohr, a freshman as winners. The classes won the following points to be applied on their scores for the annual pep contest conducted to promote friendly rivalry among the four groups: seniors, 5; juniors, 3; freshmen, 2; sophomores, 1.

PHROPHETIC (?) SKIT STAGED PRIOR TO FOOTBALL GAME—La Grande triumphed Union to a finish for flitting with Miss Victory in what the blue and white boosters hope was a prophetic skit, given as the annual sophomore stunt before a special football assembly at the high school auditorium this morning.

Tom Bruce gave an acceptable impersonation of La Grande, while Marion Crowe, in slick attire, represented the opponents. Miss Hazel Deal played the part of Miss Victory.

After the stunt, there were football talks by Coach G. L. Dutton and Floyd McKennon, as well as several of the players. The yell leaders stirred plenty of excitement with yell practice and school songs.

Announcement was made of the awarding of prizes for the sale of tickets to the junior class play, naming Ann Stange, La Grange, Gray and Robert Mohr, a freshman as winners. The classes won the following points to be applied on their scores for the annual pep contest conducted to promote friendly rivalry among the four groups: seniors, 5; juniors, 3; freshmen, 2; sophomores, 1.

ELK MEMORIAL TO BE DEC. 6—(Continued from Page One.)

announced at the regular meeting of the club last evening.

Col. Frank C. McCulloch, a Baker lawyer whose eloquence is celebrated throughout Eastern Oregon, has been invited to make the address. The entourage will be given by R. J. Green, a past executive of the La Grande lodge. In addition to the memorial rites that will be exemplified by several, the program will include several musical numbers. R. O. Williams will sing, L. J. Landsay will play a violin duet, and other musicians will contribute selections.

Several names on the necrology this year recall men who were prominent in the work of the Elk lodge. They include those of M. H. Johnson, a most exalted ruler, who was chairman of the building committee when the present temple was erected; Nolan Skiff, another past exalted ruler, and W. H. Jones, a partner in the W. H. Bohlenkamp company.

The services are in charge of a committee composed of chair officers and H. J. Ritter, representing the membership at large.

Watermelons, which were enjoyed long before the Christian era, and originally were produced only in warm climates, are now raised in every state in the Union except Maine and New Hampshire.

AGGIE ELEVEN ON WAY EAST

(Continued from Page One.)

as their big contest of the schedule.

Earlier in the season Union held Baker, figured a stronger team than the La Grande eleven, to two touchdowns. With several weeks practice and competition since then, Union hopes today to win.

Expects Hard Battle—Before the game, Coach G. L. Dutton stated that he expected a hard fought battle and would be entirely satisfied if La Grande wins, no matter how small the margin. With McKennon, star halfback, on crutches, La Grande's offensive power is weakened considerably.

Tom Bruce gave an acceptable impersonation of La Grande, while Marion Crowe, in slick attire, represented the opponents. Miss Hazel Deal played the part of Miss Victory.

After the stunt, there were football talks by Coach G. L. Dutton and Floyd McKennon, as well as several of the players. The yell leaders stirred plenty of excitement with yell practice and school songs.

Announcement was made of the awarding of prizes for the sale of tickets to the junior class play, naming Ann Stange, La Grange, Gray and Robert Mohr, a freshman as winners. The classes won the following points to be applied on their scores for the annual pep contest conducted to promote friendly rivalry among the four groups: seniors, 5; juniors, 3; freshmen, 2; sophomores, 1.

PHROPHETIC (?) SKIT STAGED PRIOR TO FOOTBALL GAME—La Grande triumphed Union to a finish for flitting with Miss Victory in what the blue and white boosters hope was a prophetic skit, given as the annual sophomore stunt before a special football assembly at the high school auditorium this morning.

Tom Bruce gave an acceptable impersonation of La Grande, while Marion Crowe, in slick attire, represented the opponents. Miss Hazel Deal played the part of Miss Victory.

After the stunt, there were football talks by Coach G. L. Dutton and Floyd McKennon, as well as several of the players. The yell leaders stirred plenty of excitement with yell practice and school songs.

Announcement was made of the awarding of prizes for the sale of tickets to the junior class play, naming Ann Stange, La Grange, Gray and Robert Mohr, a freshman as winners. The classes won the following points to be applied on their scores for the annual pep contest conducted to promote friendly rivalry among the four groups: seniors, 5; juniors, 3; freshmen, 2; sophomores, 1.

ELK MEMORIAL TO BE DEC. 6—(Continued from Page One.)

announced at the regular meeting of the club last evening.

Col. Frank C. McCulloch, a Baker lawyer whose eloquence is celebrated throughout Eastern Oregon, has been invited to make the address. The entourage will be given by R. J. Green, a past executive of the La Grande lodge. In addition to the memorial rites that will be exemplified by several, the program will include several musical numbers. R. O. Williams will sing, L. J. Landsay will play a violin duet, and other musicians will contribute selections.

Several names on the necrology this year recall men who were prominent in the work of the Elk lodge. They include those of M. H. Johnson, a most exalted ruler, who was chairman of the building committee when the present temple was erected; Nolan Skiff, another past exalted ruler, and W. H. Jones, a partner in the W. H. Bohlenkamp company.

The services are in charge of a committee composed of chair officers and H. J. Ritter, representing the membership at large.

Watermelons, which were enjoyed long before the Christian era, and originally were produced only in warm climates, are now raised in every state in the Union except Maine and New Hampshire.

BOYS' DRESS SHOES

$2.49 TO $3.49

Brown or black calfskin, oak tan sole, rubber heels, solid leather counters, full vamp; serviceable and dressy.

60 STORES

C. J. BREIER & CO. THE HUB

her into the Astoria harbor. The Smith is commanded by Ensign M. A. Hanson and carries a crew of 15 men.

At least 100,000,000 acres of range and agricultural lands suffer from the devastating activities of prairie dogs which live in the most productive valleys and bench lands.

The Smith was badly battered by the high wind and finally her engine room was flooded. She was picked up while drifting helplessly off Cape Blanco by the steam schooner Collo, northbound, and was towed until the Collo met the revenue cutter Snohomish, which took the Smith in tow and brought an easy relief for constipation.

A never failing laxative, gentle in action and absolutely safe.

Never necessary to increase the dose.

They work naturally and form no habit.

24 Doses 25c

Glass Drugs Inc.

The Rexall Store La Grande, Oregon

MARKETS

PORTLAND MARKETS

PORTLAND GRAIN MARKET

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat, higher; unfavorable Argentine news.

RIVERIA PUPILS RE-ENACT HISTORY

CLUBMEN HEAR OF FISH PLAN

PENDLETON MEN ACCEPT

WOODCHOPPER'S JAW BROKEN

Like father, like son? Charles Brenner, above, has been justice of the peace in Brookings, O., township for 22 years.

People blame you for getting into a rut. Yet, along some roads the rut keeps you out of the ditch.

concluded, "I am heartily in favor of every Grande Ronde valley resident getting behind a movement to bring a normal school here."

Proceeding the address of Dr. Phyl, the Rev. W. C. Ross led the meeting in a short prayer for the future of education.

The concluding numbers were a reading, "The Message of the Flag" (Franklin K. Lane) by Miss Florence Thompson, Mrs. Ann Vickers, substituting for R. J. Hammer, sang "Because." Miss Godden was her accompanist.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Katherine McKenzie, who died at the Grande Ronde hospital early Thursday morning, were conducted at the Summerville chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon.