Methodist Episcopal. Spring and Fourth streets, Henry W. Parker, minister. On the closing day of this American Education week we shall speak on "America's Interest in Religion, Morality and Education," at the 11 o'clock service. The choir will furnish special music. The program for this day is "A Godly nation cannot fail. Visit your church today."

The Bible school meets at 2:45, Carl L. Wallace is the superintendent. Mr. Wallace is assisted by a fine staff of teachers. We have classes for men, women and children in our growing school.

The Epworth league will meet at 6:30. At 7:30 the evening worship, "8 o'clock - Pre-Thanksgiving Meditations" will be considered. It is good to give thanks. For this Thanksgiving day is appointed. Let us come and prepare our hearts for this day set apart by our nation. Mrs. Claude Cooper will sing at the evening service.

Zion English Lutheran. Bible school, 9:45 a. m.; morning worship, 11:00 a. m. The hour of our evening program and song service has been changed from 7:30 p. m. to 7:00 p. m. The division of our Bible into chapters and verses often breaks the thought. If there were no such divisions the thought might be impressed in its connection. How might this read, for instance, "Come, for all things are now ready, and they all with one consent began to make excuse." Why do people make excuse for not coming to church—at least some of them—and why do others think that such an omission never needs an excuse. Think it out yourself. Wm. F. Holl, pastor.

No Small Store Owner Can Afford To Neglect His Lighting.

It's just a little place, and we don't need much light. Sometimes we hear this from a merchant. It sounds reasonable—but it doesn't check with the facts. The little place—the moderate-sized and growing concern is just the store that needs a lot of light—and can't afford to be without it. Light has remarkable power to make big stores out of little ones. It attracts favorable attention—adds a note of up-to-dateness—makes buying and selling easier—speeds up turnover and stimulates profit. We are particularly interested in the lighting of small stores—and believe you will find much to think about in our special offer on the famous Ivanhoe unit. We will give you lighting planned to fit your store. A phone call will bring our representative. BUILD YOUR STORE PROFIT WITH LIGHT. Eastern Oregon Light & Power Company. WALLING'S ARCHAD ROCHESTER, U.S.A. Women who wear Arch-Aid Shoes experience more comfort and happiness than any class of women in La Grande. WHY? Because they have forgotten all their foot troubles. Callouses and corns commence disappearing from the time they put them on their feet. The narrow heel prevents wearing out your good silk hose. This alone is a saving of about $5.00 per pair on those shoes from ordinary shoes. If your shoes hurt you your face is drawn and wrinkled and you feel miserable. Women who wear Arch-Aid Shoes generally look pleasant and wear a big smile. Get Them At THE BOOTERY

Holidays Linked With Beauty and Charm. With the arrival of the winter holiday season nothing receives more attention than things possessing beauty. It is the season of beautiful things, of lovely gifts, of pretty social events, of colorful activities. Thanksgiving starts the season—and not the least are the demands made for personal beauty and charm that is in keeping with the season. More and more this shop is being recognized and referred to as the beauty parlor of unusual service—a service that is demanded by discriminating women of the La Grande territory. That is a demand that results directly from expert service and painstaking personal attention to your needs. A trial appointment will convince you.
