In many years past many dinner parties took place yesterday—Thanksgiving day. Besides the dinners given here several La Grande people visited other cities for the holiday.

Among the dinner parties here yesterday was one given by Dr. and Mrs. Ray Murphy. They entertained five couples at dinner, after which cards were enjoyed followed by a theatre party.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Claycomb also entertained at dinner. Their guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Ed. Pollock and daughters Lucille and Elizabeth, of Elgin. Covers were laid for nine. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp Sr. entertained their family at Thanksgiving dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp, Mr. and Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp, and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Bohnenkamp and their families were present.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Williams had as their dinner guests Mrs. Williams' mother, her sisters, Misses Elah and Adelaide Zeiger and her brother, Floyd Zeiger, all of Fayette, Idaho and Ray Stephens of Seufthead, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Roesch had their family home for dinner, including their two daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Fitzgerald and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Brady; and their son Marcus.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sawyer had as their guests for dinner Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Jewkes and son, of Hobbs, Idaho and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Koerner, of Spokane, Washington. Mr. and Mrs. D. Fitzgerald entertained at a family dinner with covers laid for seven. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Loughton had several guests for dinner, including Mr. and Mrs. Ray Price. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ferguson entertained members of their family and relatives at dinner at their farm home. Covers were laid for twenty-five.

married at the home of Miss Baxter's brother, Will Baxter, at Union, Grant, Idaho. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. E. Church here, performed the ceremony. Miss Emma Baxter was bridesmaid and Calloun Combs acted as best man.

The bride wore a pretty dress of rose colored satin back crepe and carried a bride's bouquet of roses. Her attendant wore blue.

About fifty friends and relatives were present and after the ceremony a reception was given.

The happy young couple will make their home here on Y avenue.

Endeavorers Entertain

Thirty-five young people were present Wednesday evening, when members of the Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church held a Thanksgiving party in the basement of the church. Each guest contributed food, to be delivered to the needy of the city on Thanksgiving day.

Games were enjoyed during the evening and dainty refreshments were served. Miss Francis Kelley had charge of the devotional services. The social committee, with Miss Gladys Owen as chairman, was in charge of the party.

"White Cargo," Tense Drama of Impressive Mood, Here Tomorrow

In a man, isolated among the natives in West Africa in climatic conditions that fairly warp his soul, to be blamed if he chooses a native half caste woman for a mate?

Sister Mary Says:

By Sister Mary
Breakfast—Stewed dried peaches, cereal, thin cream, French toast, sirup, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Tomato toast, shredded lettuce and cottage cheese salad, whole wheat bread, plain cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Beef loaf with baked bananas, baked sweet potatoes, creamed cauliflower, apple-celery nut salad, graham bread, floating island, milk, coffee.

The sweet potatoes are baked in their "jackets" and served just like plain baked Irish potatoes. A rather highly flavored vegetable is planned with the dinner as the other dishes mentioned are quite bland. Homemade pickles can be served to adults with good effect in this dinner.

Beef Loaf With Baked Bananas
One pound round steak ground, 3 large bananas, 1 egg, teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 cup stale bread crumbs, 4 tablespoons minced fat salt pork, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, juice 1 lemon.

Mix ground beef steak, pork and bread crumbs. Season with salt and pepper and add egg well beaten. Add a few tablespoons of milk if necessary to make moist enough to shape. Form into a loaf and place in roaster. Bake in a hot oven for 45 minutes. When loaf is nearly done peel bananas and scrape lightly with blunt edge of knife. Cut in halves crosswise and then lengthwise. Put around the loaf in the pan, sprinkle with lemon juice, salt and pepper and bake until a delicate brown. Arrange meat on a platter, surrounded with bananas and sprinkle the whole with minced parsley.

Try to save too much time and you may waste it all.

Hitting the high spots can give a man an awful job.

This question is answered in a tremendous way in "White Cargo" the tensely dramatic production which comes to the Arcade tomorrow night. Representatives of the press in all the cities where this sensational success has appeared to capacity audiences have proclaimed it as the best play seen in many a day.

Similar to "Itain" but voted to be more logical, it has just the suggestion of the soullessness of "Belja Donna"; "White Cargo" proved one of the most powerful dramas that has been seen in years. It is not hard to understand that the production has run for over three years in New York and duplicated its success at the Court Theatre, Chicago and the Playhouse, London.

From the time the curtain rises until it falls on the final of the six scenes there is ever present that feeling of intense interest, heat and dampness. As the curtain rises it seems as if a hot mist is lifted from the river in the background of the decaying but on the stage; as men stumbled in to the room, the perspiration, the feeling of torrid warmth creeps over the footlights to the audience and as the story is unfolded one feels that they are transported

Pan-American Exhibition Opens With 500 Paintings

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Marking the first time South American art has been placed on exhibit here since 1915, the Pan-American Exhibition, with 500 oil paintings and etchings on display, opened today.

The opening was in conjunction with the dedication of the first unit of a series of eight additions to the Los Angeles Museum in Exposition Park.

Artists living in the United States, Mexico, Panama, Brazil, Argentina, Peru, Chile, France and Spain are represented in the collection, which will remain on display until January 1, when the Latin-American section will start on a tour of the important museums of the United States, while the North American continent is visiting South America.

Among the North American artists who have their work on exhibition are Frederick E. Frieseke, Karl Anderson, John E. Costigan, Mary Cassatt, John E. Carlson, Leon Kroll, Elmer Schofield and John T. Graham. Diego Rivera, of Mexico, considered by art critics as one of the greatest living painters, and Manuel Vega, Cuban, also have contributed to the exhibition.

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil). The inventor, V. M. Johnson, 161 North Union Ave., Portland, Ore., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.—Adv.
