dea to explain to easteners what this locality has to offer.
The purpose of the exposition is a three-way one—first, to attract capital to the northwest; second, to bring men of moderate means here; third, to create a greater market for the products of the northwest and Alaska.
The four northwestern states—Oregon, Washington, Montana, and Idaho, and Alaska will be represented in the exposition.
Formerly of La Grande.
Following his introduction by E. B. Appleby, chairman, Mr. Hiler reminisced of his first trip to La Grande—in the winter of 1897-98. At that time he held various positions here—with the La Grande Observer, the La Grande Chronicle, Bird Lewis' print shop, Dave Stewart's opera house, and in the county school superintendent's office.
