Quilts Made.
With four infants' quilts made last night for a nucleus, the auxiliary will prepare a box of Christmas gifts for distribution to children of disabled veterans throughout the state through the medium of the child welfare department of the auxiliary, which is located at Portland. Anyone who has toys or other articles to donate to this cause, is invited to take the offerings to Mrs. Richardson at the art store. The mailing must be done by December 10, so the auxiliary asks friends to cooperate in getting the work done on time.

Boxes of Christmas cheer will be packed also for every La Grande ex-serviceman who has to spend the holidays in a hospital, regardless of what part of the United States he now claims as home.

Wool La Grande. It was reported that several cases here at present demanded such a hospital.

Several other minor matters, including reading of monthly reports, and allowances of the November salary list, were attended to prior to adjournment.

Obituary

WANDA SMITH
Miss Wanda Smith, 21 years old, died at the Grande Ronde hospital this morning at 10:20 o'clock, following an illness of five weeks, during which her family many times despaired of saving her life.

She is survived by her father, L. C. Smith, and by a brother, Jennings Smith, and four sisters, Mrs. Charles Karther, Evelyn, Ella and Virginia Smith. Her mother died 10 years ago.

The body was removed to the Bohnenkamp chapel, pending funeral arrangements.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD
The funeral of Mrs. Abner Page of Imbler, was conducted at 10 a. m. today at the chapel at Summerville. Interment was in the Summerville cemetery. W. H. Bohnenkamp company supervised the arrangements.

Portland Houses to Buy Bonds
KIAMATH FALLS, Ore. — In spite of the refusal of the American National bank of this city to accept $100,000 in city paving bonds after its bid had been accepted, a firm of Portland bond attorneys has notified the city council that the passage of the city ordinance authorizing the sale was in every way regular, and a group of Portland bond houses would purchase the paper as soon as the council goes through the formality of re-opening the bids.

Names Confused.
Some time ago Robert Bradford was arrested here on an alleged dry law violation. Today it became known that this Bradford had been confused in the minds of many with Robert E. Bradford, insurance agent, who lives at 2501 North Fir Street, inasmuch as the latter is widely known here while the man who was actually arrested had few acquaintances. The Mr. Bradford who lives on Fir street has never been involved in any law violations, he declares, and wants to assure his friends that it is not he who ran afoul of the authorities.
