"On Stroke of Three" At Sherrys Today Only

Plotted from the Saturday Evening Post story, later published as one of the most successful novels of the year, "The Man From Ashabona," comes to the screen under the title "On the Stroke of Three" at Sherrys today only. E. Harmon Wright, formerly director of George Arliss, has put an exceptional cast to the task of interpreting this entertaining drama, with Madge Bellamy, Kenneth Harlan and Mary Carr in the featured roles.

Others who appear to excellent advantage are John Miljan, Eddie Phillips, Dorothy Dahm, Edward Davis and Robert Dudley. The story retains all the virile quality and dramatic intensity which characterized it in its literary form, and proves anew the value of good material in making a good picture.

"On the Stroke of Three" is the first of four feature productions which will be made by Associated Arts Corporation for F. B. O. motion picture fans.

Lloyd's Fun Brightens Serious Side of Life

In "The Freshman" as in that comedy classic, "Grandma's Boy," Harold Lloyd has taken a very serious idea, and, without in the least kidding or hitting the subject, has gotten a tremendous lot of fun out of it; and, without preaching, has put over a lesson.

"The Freshman" puts over the psychology of being yourself, in a story of a first-year student at college, whose sole ambition is to be the pride of his college and the hog of his fellow students. But, instead of achieving this worthy pliancy by himself, he imitates others who have been popular. Instead of expressing his own personality, he is a reflection of everyone's pranks and tricks, because of a boyish willingness to do everything asked of him—all in the hope of becoming the prince of regular fellows.

Harold Lamb, as the character is named, is a pathetic figure, so that, even while you laugh at him you are filled with sympathy for him, and when he finally triumphs you want to join the whole college in cheering him. "The Freshman" is playing now at the Arcade theatre, where it remains until Saturday night. It ranks high among the best screen comedy productions.

 La Grande, Ore.

The lady consumer pays a far less profit to a dealer in FURS on a purchase of SILVER FOX neck SCARVES, than on smaller and cheaper furs of any other kind. For instance: a CAPE of MINK furs, costing dealer about $20.00 costs made up to consumer about $125; dealer's profit, 600 per cent. While a SILVER FOX scarf cost a dealer $200, and sold made up for $400.00; profit for dealer, 100 per cent.

It's Quicker and Costs Less.
 Old Habits Die Hard.

Even nowadays we hear of otherwise shrewd business men who, if they have to speak with an out-of-town customer, think it necessary to go via the gasoline or steam route and see him.

What do they gain by seeing him?
 It's talk that counts!
 And can you think of a better chance of talking with a man than having your lips at his ear?
 That's the chance that, in effect, the Telephone gives you. Don't travel, then: Telephone!
