Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)
Breakfast—Orange and grape juice, cereal, thin cream, poached eggs on graham toast, crisp graham toast, milk, coffee.
Luncheon—Navy bean and tomato soup, toasted brown bread, apple and celery salad, ginger pudding, milk, tea.
Dinner—Baked halibut steaks, potato puff, stuffed green peppers, tomato jelly salad, rye bread, cherry pie, milk, coffee.

Of course the cherry pie is not for juniors under 10 years of age. A baked apple or dish of stewed fruit with a plain cookie should be planned for any children at the family table.

Be sure that the crust of the pie is well baked. A hot oven should be used for baking the pie, since the filling is cooked.

This ginger pudding is so simple and so good that it might take the place of a rich plum pudding if prepared.

GINGER PUDDING
One-fourth cup granulated sugar, 1/2 cup molasses, 1/2 cup butter, 1 1/2 cups flour, 1/2 teaspoon ginger, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon soda, 1/2 cup boiling water, 1/2 cup seeded and chopped raisins, 1/2 cup cleaned currants, 2 tablespoons minced candied orange peel, 2 tablespoons minced candied lemon peel, 1/2 cup chopped figs, 2 tablespoons vanilla.

Cream butter and beat in sugar. Add molasses and beat well. Mix prepared fruits with 1/2 cup flour. Mix and sift remaining flour with spices. Add flour to first mixture and mix smooth. Add half of the boiling water and mix thoroughly. Add flour and mix well. Dissolve soda in remaining water and stir into mixture. Beat until smooth. Beat egg until light and stir with vanilla into batter. Pour into a buttered mold, cover and steam for two hours. Serve warm with hot sauce, lemon sauce or whipped cream.

This recipe will serve six persons.

played by Lillian Wagner, handysome and clever. William Sellery will give us his version of the amusing comedy role of "Kranz." "Mrs. Kranz" will be in the hands of Mary Stockwell. All the other parts are carefully cast, according to the director's good-looking and animated. A specially augmented orchestra, which boasts a harp (always an addition to operatic companies) is under the direction of Carleton Kelsey.

The artist who did the original production for New York and all the scenic effects are fresh and rich. The costumed costumes of the period of the play—the early 1820's—are new and of charming coloring and design.

We knew a man once who got so mad at his neighbors he gave his little boy a drum for Christmas.

Sharking Coyote Replaces Lion as Menace in Montana

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP)—The mountain lion has yielded to the sharking coyote as the greatest menace to wild life in Montana. To save himself and his stock, the buckskin-coated pioneer of the eighties fought the lion. In modern days, the state posted a bounty of $20 for each of the animals killed.

The warfare has progressed to the stage where only one deer, a favorite prey, has been killed by the mountain king this year. The coyote, however, has claimed several victims.

The stingiest man is with us again this year. Has some Red Cross seals he saved from last Christmas.

"Blossom Time" As Popular Now As 5 Years Ago

"Blossom Time," the operetta with Schubert as its hero, and his immortal music for its score, which will be at the Arcade Tuesday, December 8, is as popular in its fifth season as in its first. It has a record over 400 performances in New York city, and several seasons of triumph on the road. It will come to and probably last engagement here.

An entirely new cast of principals and a larger chorus of young women and men than is usual with this performance will combine to make this engagement especially attractive to local theatergoers.

Arthur Gordon Hagan, the well-known operatic and concert baritone, is singing the role of "Franz Schubert" and he brings to it in addition to fine voice and histrionic talent a personality remarkably like that of the composer, as we know it from memoir and pictures. Mary Powell, a dainty little actress and possessed of a fine voice, will be the "Elisabeth." Warren Proctor will have the important tenor role of "Baron Franz Schubert." The dashing "Hella Brunn" will be
