School News

(By Marjorie Maguire)

Exams Over

This week end saw the last of the six weeks exams and the reports will be handed out Monday noon. The students who have not returned their cards will not receive any unless they have a special request at the office.

Assembly

A special assembly was called Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of checking up on the opera tickets. The seniors are ahead in the point contest having 13 points. The juniors and freshmen tie, each having 8 points. The sophomores are last with only 4 points.

Dress Rehearsal

The opera cast held a dress rehearsal Wednesday night. The cast was highly pleased with the continuing to each helped the other in draping the mantles and gay washes.

Gifts Presented

The junior class presented Miss Bennett, Miss Thompson and Miss Dillon with gifts for directing and assisting in the junior play.

Book Reports Due

The book reports were due the last of this week and many of the students who had waited to the last minute to read their books, have been doubly busy trying to get their report in.

Science Department

The physics class has been working out Boyle's law. Most of the students have had difficulty in gathering the full report of Boyle's law. The psychology class had a very interesting experience on the structure of the heart. In chemistry laboratory last Monday a class experiment was worked by Melvin Parker and Katherine Cullen. The experiment was with carbon monoxide, which is a very poisonous gas and must be handled with care. The physiology class is studying anatomical maps and is determining the velocity of the wind and such. The cause of air currents was also studied and their directions. Most of the science learned by students in the laboratory is through experiments.

Game But Not Forgotten

The gridiron king has passed away and his place is taken by the sire of basketball. The space between the two sports is filled up by the dramatic side of the school life.

Together They Stick

Monday afternoon the orchestra practiced with the sopranos for the first time. The cast and orchestra had been practicing separately for three weeks.

Couch Arrive

The new couch, Mr. Bennett, took charge of athletics and the study hall. The boys are already trying out for basketball and having a regular coach now will aid the boys a great deal.

More Shakespeare

English V students are studying another of Shakespeare's classics, MacBeth.

Illness

Miss Bauman, language teacher, was ill the first part of last week and she was missed greatly by the students taking languages. Wilma Schroeder has also been ill at her home in Island City for the past week. She will not be able to resume her studies for some time.

Students Surprised

The boys under Mr. Richlieu in manual training were given an examination which covered the past six weeks work.

A. G. S. Association

The Associated Girl Students have been busily engaged this semester in making out reports, doing charity work, remembering the sick. This organization is open to all high school girls. It has many committees at work which are the health, the service, social, minute, creed, art, and hiking committees. The service committee prepared several things for education week which was observed in the student body assemblies.

November Speed Test

The November speed test results have just been returned to the high school for the best record made in accuracy and speed. Mabel Schaefer won the medal for accuracy and speed, which is her third medal. She made 60 words a minute. Dean Wright also received a medal having made 49 words a minute.

Basketball Call

The first basketball practice was Wednesday after school at 2:30. Several members from the old squad were out and of course some new material. Of those who played last year are Glass, Zindel, Lyman, Larson and Hanks. The new coach, Thurston Bennett, is here and practice is beginning in earnest.

Many Stories Handed In

The English classes have handed in some clever and original stories and poems in response to the short story and poem contest held for the Mimir. The award has not yet been decided.

Morning Practice

The girls' basketball team was out early Wednesday morning to practice basketball. The school teams will be chosen soon.

MILIONS YET RIPENING.

COTTAGE GROVE, Ore.—Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Peck of this place report having picked a ripe watermelon from their garden for Thanksgiving dinner and having others ripening for Christmas. They are of the ice cream variety. Raspberry bushes in protected positions are reported bearing a second crop and are heavily laden with green berries.
