W. B. A. Elects Officers for 1926

Officers for the ensuing year were elected last night when the members of the Women's Benefit association met in regular session at the K. P. hall. Mrs. Hanna Wood was elected commander; Mrs. Minnie Pike, lieutenant commander; Mrs. Denver Chaffin, post commander; Mrs. Mattie Steward, chaplain; Mrs. Doris Rose, lady at arms; Mrs. Nellie Spencer, record keeper and Mrs. Lodovico Krout, finance keeper. These officers will be installed at the first meeting of the association in January.

At the close of the business meeting a social hour was observed. Little Misses Alice Jeanette and Hazel Elizabeth Cooper played several violin numbers. Dainty refreshments were served by the committee in charge, headed by Mrs. Grace Strauss. Approximately 25 members were present.

Y. O. Club Meets With Mrs. Mills

Members of the Y. O. club were delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Stanley S. Mills was hostess at her home on Washington avenue. During the afternoon's play Mrs. Gilbert Hunter won high scores among the club members. Mrs. Henry T. Hill received the guest prize.

A dainty luncheon was served after the play.

Episcopalians Plan Christmas Affair

The junior church women's service league and the Sunday school teachers of the Episcopal church met at the home of Mrs. G. N. Tarlington Monday evening to make arrangements and appoint committees for a Christmas tree to be held Friday, December 18, at Homan hall.

At the close of the meeting the hostess served dainty refreshments, assisted by Miss Marjorie Peckham and Miss Helma Rasmussen.

Miss George Hostess To 4-M Members

Miss Merle George was hostess to the members of the Four-M club Monday evening when they met in regular session. An en-

The Leader

Here is the Gipsy hat that is such a sensation in Paris as well as in this country. The dented crown makes it easily adjusted to any head, and the narrow brim is the smart line of the moment. In soft French felt, this hat cannot be surpassed in chic.

A popular evening was spent sewing and chatting. Before adjournment dainty refreshments were served.

50 Attend Lodge's Social Meeting

Members of Yoman Lodge No. 2386 held a social meeting at Caples hall Monday evening. A potluck supper was served at 7 o'clock, after which a short program was given. Following the program the remainder of the evening was spent in cards and dancing.

More than fifty people were present, including several visitors besides the lodge members.

Announcements

Social announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any functions such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day, must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock. — News editor's note.

The Ladies Aid of the Lutheran church will meet at the home of Mrs. Hotellingworth, 2107 Third street, Thursday afternoon, December 10, at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Thomas Walsinger will be hostess to the Allied Ladies Aid society tomorrow afternoon. A Christmas tree will be given for the children of the community. The husbands of the members are invited to attend the meeting.

The meeting of the Child Welfare club, which was to be held tomorrow night, has been postponed. A definite date for the meeting has not yet been announced.

STUDENT, 23 INVENTOR

SILVERTON, Ore.—Jonas Byberg, 23, of Silvertown, has decided to devote his life to inventing. He has already patented a number of things which have proved successful.

At present working on his inventions, writing for magazines, playing a pipe organ and attending Oregon Agricultural college are a few of the things he does. Each week he earns a round-trip ticket from Corvallis to Silvertown by playing a pipe organ at one of Silvertown's churches on Sunday. He comes to Silvertown each Thursday night and on Friday and Saturday devotes his time to working in his shop in his father's prune farm a mile south of Silvertown. Of his inventions the prune washer and sprayer and the walnut washer are in the biggest demand.

Women's Daintiness

Under the most trying hygienic handicap is assured this NEW way

LIGHT frocks, sheerest gowns... wear them now any day, any time, anywhere, without a moment's doubt or fear!

The uncertainty and insecurity of the old-time "sanitary pad" has been ended.

Most women now use "KOTEX" — a new and remarkable way. 3 times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads.

Desodorizes, thus ending ALL danger of offending.

Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

Obtainable at all drug and department stores simply by saying "KOTEX." You ask for it without hesitancy.

Costs only a few cents. Proves old ways are folly. Twelve in a package. In fairness to yourself, try it.

'BLOSSOM TIME' SCORES HERE

Pleasing and refreshing in its appeal to the inspirational phases of life and a delightful relief from the jazz-ridden, doubtful productions of the usual type, Schubert's "Blossom Time," under the direction of J. J. Schubert, was presented to a large crowd in the Arcade theater last night.

Soul stirring music, inspired by the joy, love and disappointments of the old master, Franz Schubert, placed its hold upon the audience, seconded by the story superbly presented by an able cast—capable of bringing out the subtle strength and deep-hidden emotions of the numbers.

Little wonder that "Blossom Time" has taken a firm grip on play-loving Americans. The operetta is free from all suggestiveness, above reproach in its purity, and beautiful in its gorgeous costuming.

Arthur G. Hudson, as Schubert, stirred the sympathetic emotions of the audience with his well-nigh perfect portrayal of the "genius" of life. Mita, the pupil, was well taken by Mary Powell as was the part of Baron Franz Schuber, the third angle of Schubert's ill-fated love. William Sillery, as Mita's father, furnished the comedy—and comedy it was.

A few of Schubert's 600 compositions, mainly his tender "Song of Love," an absolute melody that will live through the ages; "The Unfinished Symphony," "Serenade" bits of "Ava Maria" and "Melody Triade" are incorporated in the production.

The story is set in Vienna in the early 30s, giving historically correct excerpts from the master's life, and built around his ability as a musician and composer, and his failure as a lover.

The next attraction the Arcade will present is "What Price Glory" here Friday Dec. 25, both matinee and night performance.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Sewed dried peaches, cereal, thin cream, crated beef hash, cornmeal muffins, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Scalloped cabbage, toasted muffins, caramel bread pudding, milk, tea.

Dinner—Casserole of rabbit, mashed potatoes, buttered cauliflower, pear salad, junket ice cream, chocolate layer cake, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

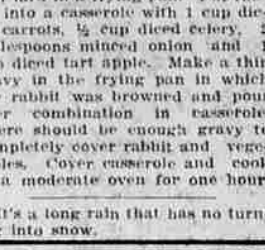

Junior under six years of age should not be allowed to eat game of any sort, so a soft cooked egg should be provided for their dinner in place of the rabbit.

The cake suggested in the dinner menu is plain cake baked in layers and put together with chocolate frosting.

Casserole of Rabbit

Be sure the tiny kernels under the forepaws of the rabbit have been removed. Cover the rabbit with cold salt water and let stand over night, or six or eight hours. Drain and disjoint. Put into a kettle with 1 medium-sized onion, cover with boiling water and let boil for half an hour. Drain and throw away water and onion. Roll pieces of rabbit in flour and brown quickly in half butter and half lard in a frying pan. Put rabbit into a casserole with 1 cup diced carrots, 1/2 cup diced celery, 2 tablespoons minced onion and 1 cup diced tart apple. Make a thin gravy in the frying pan in which the rabbit was browned and pour over combination in casserole. There should be enough gravy to completely cover rabbit and vegetables. Cover casserole and cook in a moderate oven for one hour.

It's a long rash that has no turning into snow.

Later Day Saints to Dedicate New Temple

PHOENIX, ARIZ. (AP)—The small town of Mesa, Ariz., will be the gathering place next year for thousands of worshippers who will dedicate the new temple of the Latter Day Saints.

Church authorities believe that fully 25,000 adherents of the Mormon faith will take part in the ceremonies. The structure, to cost more than $600,000, will be completed about January 1.

For some time the outer temple will be kept open for public inspection, but after dedication it will be closed to all but Mormons and even they must come recommended by officers of the church before being permitted to enter. The inner temple will be a shrine never revealed to the public. It is known, however, that some of the best artists in the country have helped in the decoration. Large paintings will depict Joseph Smith preaching to the Indians and the scene at St. George, Utah, when the entire Shiwit tribe was baptized.

Crook County After Coyotes

PRINEVILLE, Ore.—War has been declared on coyotes in Crook county by the county court, which appropriated $500 to carry on the campaign. The work is being carried on under the supervision of Stanley Jewett, predatory animal inspector. The county has been divided into three divisions, with a man assigned to each. Poisoning is the principal means of extermination used.

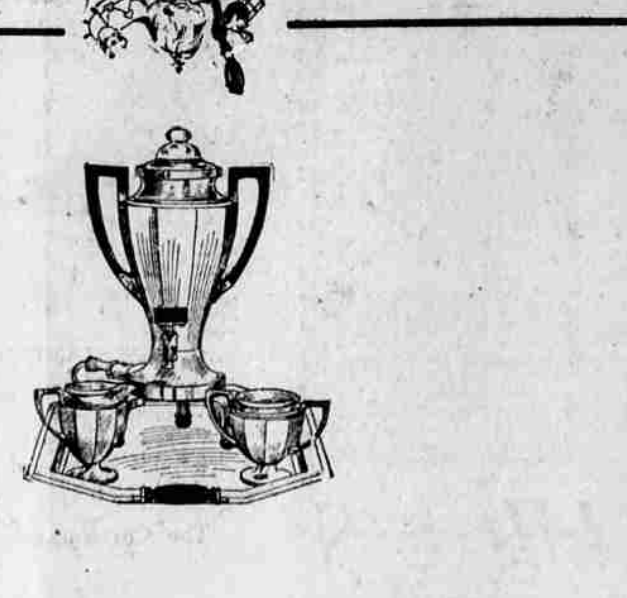

For his own family Santa Claus chooses Gifts That Last

SOME folks think of the jewelry store as the place to go, chiefly for those gifts where expense is the second consideration. But not Santa Claus! That canny old gift expert knows better than that! He judges the worth of a gift not alone by what it costs, but by what it yields—in service and satisfaction. And long ago, he discovered that a dollar goes farther at the jewelry store than it does anywhere else, in procuring enduring usefulness and pleasure. For the jeweler deals in imperishables—in gifts that last, like the fidelity of a true friendship, for as long as life itself! Specializing in jewels, the jeweler sees to it that every article in his stock is truly a jewel. And whether it be for adornment or for utility, it must measure up to jewel standards, in craftsmanship and integrity. He who must coddle a lean purse or the who may indulge a fat one, both will find there the gifts they would most like to give—comfortably priced within their respective Christmas budgets. But whatever the price, the quality is always jeweler's quality—uncompromising in its fine standards. Ah! Santa Claus! He knows!
