Richardson entertains
 dinners were laid for fifty at small tables yesterday afternoon when Mrs. A. L. Richardson entertained at a prettily appointed luncheon at the country club. The centerpiece of each table was a floral bouquet of pink rosebuds and blue daisies. Small pink taper candles in clever little hand-painted holders were also attractively arranged on each table. Musicals harmonized with the flowers, which were in the form of lily umbrellas in iridescent red, pink and blue predominant.

After a four-course luncheon the girls adjourned to Mrs. Richardson's home on O avenue, where the tables of bridge were formed. Bouquets of long stem lily-of-the-valleys were used to decorate the living room, reception and music room and in the dining room large pink carnations were used. Unique score cards in same colors were used. Mrs. V. Jesse won high score during play. Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp second prize and Mrs. Charles the third prize. Miss Currier and Miss Adelaide Ruth assisted the hostess in the dining room, where punch was served during the afternoon.

The conclusion of the play "Adelaide Ruth Clark, soprano, sang two numbers, which received much comment from those heard her. Her selections were "Hail" by Curran and "Fiddlers" by Huerter. At the try club, during luncheon, W. H. Bohnenkamp Jr., composed three solos. Her numbers were "Allah" by Kramer, "Love but a Day" by Gilberte "Morning" by Speaks. Mrs. Bohnenkamp received much praise for her numbers by those present. She has a beautiful contralto which is improving both in tone and beauty. Her last number sang for Yeatman Griffith summer during his stay in and was highly complimented by him. Mrs. E. L. Holmes accompanied both Miss Clark and Mrs. Bohnenkamp.

Novel Trimming

So often there is a question as to which necklace will be most effective with a certain frock, and then the wrong one is selected. This black satin frock has an ornament of gold braid and colored beads in front which makes any other type quite superfluous. It also serves to trim the frock.

Beautiful bouquets of seasonal flowers, attractively arranged, decorated the living room of the home, where three tables of bridge were at play. Mrs. Fred Kiddle was high score.

B. B. B. Club Members Are Entertained

Members of the B. B. B. club spent a delightful afternoon yesterday when Mrs. E. C. Coughlin and her daughter, Miss Clara, were hostesses at their home on Washington avenue. The home was decorated with a pretty color scheme of pink and white, bouquets of carnations being used.

Bridge was played at three tables during the afternoon with Mrs. McClure winning high score and Mrs. Boyd Pideock second highest honors. A dainty two-course luncheon was served after the play. One of the members, Mrs. H. W. Hilley, was ill and unable to attend.

Lutheran Aid Plans Christmas Program

There was a large attendance yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Hollingsworth was hostess to the members of the Ladies Aid society of the Lutheran church at her home at 2107 Third street.

During the business session arrangements were made for a Christmas tree and program, to be given by the society Christmas eve for the children of the church. A social hour was observed and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess before adjournment.

NEW POSTOFFICE ASKED

KIAMATH FALLS, Ore.— According to private telegraphic addresses received here, United States Senator Stanford introduced in the senate a bill providing for a federal building in Klamath Falls. The junior senator for Oregon, asked for an appropriation of $250,000. The movement for a federal building was started here during the summer months.

For 82 Years

"Aunt Hannah" Bradbury of Green's Fork, Ind., has just celebrated her 87th birthday and has been a Sunday school teacher for 82 years. She wears her hair short, but won't let it be bobbed. "Just cut short for convenience," she says.

Man Faces Assault Charge

OREGON CITY, Ore.— Joe Kolshinski, homesteader residing near Scotta Mills, was arrested and brought to Oregon City by Constable Portune on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. He will have a hearing in justice court. Kolshinski, who was the father of the children killed early last spring when powder exploded on his farm, is alleged to have threatened the life of his remaining son with a gun.

5-CENT FARE ORDERED.
SALEM, Ore.—The public service commission has issued an order eliminating the sale of 49 one-way adult tickets for $1 on the line of the Troutdale Electric Railroad company, which operates from the Portland city limits to Parkrose, in Multnomah county. In lieu of the sale of these script books the commission has established a single cash fare of 5 cents, regardless of the number of tickets purchased at any one time.

The sale of limited school children's tickets in books of 49 coupons for $1 remains in effect under the commission's order.
