Introducing

Valeteria

A New Service For Well Groomed People

If you have been reading The Saturday Evening Post you know about Valeteria—the remarkable new service that shapes and presses the clothes. It is now our privilege to announce that we are opening the very first Valeteria shop in Oregon outside of Portland.

We have spoken of this service as "new," yet it is not new, for without realizing it, perhaps, you have actually been benefiting from this service for years.

Before that suit you are now wearing left the hands of the maker, such as Hart Schaffner & Marx, Kuppenheimer, etc., it was pressed—but not in the way one ordinarily thinks of clothes being pressed. Actually it was shaped.

The collar was specially pressed and shaped on a collar press; the shoulders on a shoulder press;

the coat on a forming press (two of them); and the trousers on a trouser press—or, in case of skirts, on a skirt press.

And the more famous the label—the greater the likelihood that the garment was finished by this specialized method which combined shaping with pressing.

It is this service which your clothes received when they were tailored that is brought to you for the first time by our Valeteria Shop.

Not only do we smooth your clothes—we shape them, restoring their original lines and styles. Your apparel doesn't require pressing so often; it keeps its shape longer. Coats, cloaks, suits, skirts—all respond equally to this better service. Certainly any one who takes personal pride in their appearance will want this service.

You Are Cordially Invited to Visit Our Opening Monday, December 14th. We are located in The Harris Bldg., 408 Fir St., Across the Tracks.
