"The Merry Widow" Is Ideal Screen Entertainment

Seldom does a picture create such widespread interest as has "The Merry Widow" the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production now at Sherry's. But it was inevitable with such a significant combination of story, director and cast. The title suggests picturesque romance, and in the hands of the gifted director, Erich von Stroheim, happily suited to stage such a thing the production has exceeded the fondest expectations held for it. The title role, in which Miss Murray is featured, furnishes the brilliant actress with the best role of her career, and that she gives "The Merry Widow" the charm and vivacity it needs goes without saying. John Gilbert, one of the most popular men on the screen, today invests the part of "Prince Danilo" with a brilliance and dash which has come to be associated with this actor. Other members of the cast including Roy D'Arcy, a new von Stroheim discovery who plays the villainous Crown Prince, Tully Marshall, George Pawcett, Josephine Crowell, and Dale Fuller acquit themselves nobly in their respective roles.

"The Merry Widow" was filmed at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios. The picture is based on the international famous stage play of the same name as written by Victor Leon, Leo Stein and Franz Lehar. It was adapted to the screen by Erich von Stroheim and Benjamin Glazer. Comedy showing "High Hopes."

Bebe Daniels' Newest Showing at Arcade Today and Tuesday

Bebe Daniels' newest Paramount starring production in the Arcade today and Tuesday. "Lovers in Quarantine" is an unusual picture—unusual because it is one of the few screen versions of famous Broadway stage successes to come up to the legitimate play for entertainment. And "Lovers in Quarantine" adopted by Townsend Martin and Luther Reed from P. Tennyson Jesse's New York hit, "Quarantine," goes even further than that—it surpasses the stage play for fast-moving action, thrills and laughs.

Harrison Ford is featured opposite the star. He is an explorer, in love with Bebe's sister Pamela. Bebe, as Diana Gordon, a harpist, is irresistibly lovable, has a crush on him.

During Tony Blunt's (Ford) two years in the jungles, Pamela has become engaged to another man, and his unexpected return sort of takes her by surprise. Knowing that there will be no end of explaining to be done, Dan has Diana entertain him until he can get rid of her new fiancee.

Tony, impatient for a night of fun, is annoyed at the carriage-ride of the impetuous Diana. Dan finally arrives on the scene and dismisses Diana with a wave of the hand. Indignant and curious to learn how her sister will explain her approaching marriage to Mark Joseph, Diana conceals and plans to elope that night.

Diana, however, is not one to give up a man so easily, so an exciting time approaches as she locks Pamela in a closet and with a spy-glass eavesdrops on Mark Joseph's cabin. For three days Diana remains in her cabin pleading off an ill, while the curious gossip passes around the infirmary, the president of the group scheme honey-moon completion is ill.

Then when Diana finally does come out and Tony discovers that she has eloped with the wrong girl! What a situation it is! And to make matters worse all the passengers on the boat are ordered to a quarantined island where more complications arise for the "bride and groom."

Here's a laugh picture-plus for your life! It moves right along without a hitch and it's NEW! "Lovers in Quarantine," the story of a ship's bride and a strange honeymoon, in the finest thing Bebe's ever done—and that's something!

Alfred Lunt, as Mack Joseph; Edna Gray, in the role of Pamela; Bebe's flexible and interesting sister; Edna May Oliver, cast as the Gipsy singer; and Marie Shotwell complete the cast of the production.

Co-Eals Use Men's Hose as Protectors—Set a New Fad

BLOOMINGTON, (AP)—Coeds of Indiana University have created a new fad in feminine footgear which already is spreading throughout the state.

A group of them made their bow at a football game with men's hose pulled on over their own thin silk hosiery to protect their ankles from the busts of autumn winds.

A few days later all the coeds on the campus had adopted the custom, and clothing merchants reported that there was not a pair of cotton hose left in the city's stores.

The hose are pulled up as far as they will reach and give the impression of half-hose, coming a few inches below the bottom of the skirt. They threaten to supplant gaiters for military cold weather among the fair sex.

My dear Friends: After my attack of Flu I was thin, run-down and weak. I had a sallow complexion, my cheeks were sunk in and I was continually troubled with gas on my stomach. I felt stuffy and had lost my appetite. I had read about McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets and decided to give them a trial. At once, I began to pick up an appetite, my cheeks filled out and my complexion became healthy looking and I gained 15 pounds in six weeks and am very thankful for what McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets did for me.

Miss Alberta Rogers, 264 W. Cerro Gorda St., Decatur, Ill.
