"A Good Place To Trade"

LARGE CROWD TO SEE CARD

Indications are that a large crowd of fight fans will gather in the I. O. O. F. temple gym tomorrow evening to witness the 20 rounds of fun that is promised at the scheduled La Grande A. C. U. P. A. C. of Huntington card.

Earl Ford and Kit Caldwell, of La Grande and Weber, respectively, will appear in the curtain raiser. Both balance the scales at 90 pounds.

Following the first four-round event, Cleman and Dana, La Grande, will provide the thrills. Speed Martin, of Huntington, will touch mitts to Davis, of La Grande, in the third preliminary. Carl Becker, La Grande, and Hatting Johnson, of Huntington, will end the four-round events and clear the way for the six-round preliminary with Deibert Allen, La Grande, facing Red Bowen, of Huntington in what promises to be a real slug.

The final event will find Meir, of La Grande, trying out Hank Potter, 145 pound heavy of Huntington, reputed to be a wicked and

Sport Gossip

(By the Associated Press) Flying feet will beat upon wooden paths this week in the first important indoor track meet in a season that promises to equal in interests that of last year when the phenomenal Paavo Nurmi of Finland, invaded America.

Tuesday night in Brooklyn a Christmas fund benefit program will bring into action some of the leading American distance men. Jimmy Burgess of Georgetown, George Masters of the New York Athletic club, Vin Laly of New York, Billy Sullivan of Georgetown, Abel Reviat of New York and Francis Sober of the college of the city of New York, George Millestori of Colby college, New England sprint champion, will appear in the century against Eddie O'Shea of Georgetown and Tom Halborn of the New York Athletic club. The walloping demonstration will find the American champion, Willie Piant, in action.

For another month has passed a foreign invasion will be under way, one that is to bring the champion of pole vaulters, Charley Hoff of Newcom, in their shoes. Then there will come Herbert Johnson, German, who conquered Loren Murchison and Charley Paddock on their visit to Europe last summer. Adrian Patten, a Dutch sprinter, may come, but Nurmi will not appear in the United States again until next fall.

The week in boxing has proved the soundness of Louis (Kid) Kaplan's claim to the featherweight title and the soundness of the Dempsey-Wills negotiations. Kaplan, meeting Babe Herman for the seventh time here Friday night, won with ease on points. Dempsey's camp has announced that end of one contract with Floyd Fitzsimmons of Michigan City, and the prospect of a new "deal."

There were reports early in the week that the present difficulties in the Dempsey-Wills matter would bring Tex Rickard into possession of the title belt and that it would be fought in New York.

The championships for 1925 have been settled but a bout of the contender class is scheduled for New York Wednesday, when the former light heavyweight champion, Mike McTigue, meets Tiger Flowers, Atlanta negro. McTigue has improved since he lost last summer to Paul Berlenbach and has been offensive leather pusher. The 20-round card is the season's opener and special efforts have been extended by the athletic club officials to procure the best talent possible, so as to give the winter's calendar a good send off.

The storm of criticism of which fell following the college football season, appears to have spent itself and with Red Grange suffering from injury and Eric Nevada at play in St. Augustine New Year's ident on the eve of his departure for Florida to play professionally. Further attacks upon the game are expected to await the meeting of the coaches and officials.
