

LEG HURT BY ROCK CRUSHER

THE PARK. (Special)—Kenneth Vander met with an accident at the rock crusher Tuesday. While he was filling the engine with water he stumbled over a water pipe and fell into one of the wheels of the large engine, cutting his leg severely. He was taken to the St. Elizabeth's hospital at Baker, where several stitches were taken in the wound. At last reports he was getting along nicely.

The roads here are in good condition. Cars can still go up to the Thompson place, which is very unusual for this time of the year. The deer are still up in the hills, which is also extraordinary.

Art Maudie, the range rider for the Hill Sturat cattle outfit, was at the Thompson place Wednesday hunting cattle.

Roscoe Pirman returned to his home at Imbler Tuesday.

Mrs. J. B. Hunter received word from her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Murphy, of Long Beach, California recently.

Miss Rose Gilson, the Park school teacher, visited at the home of Winn Duncan Monday evening.

John Lay, the mail carrier of the park route, was up to the Thompson place hunting some of his range horses Wednesday.

Jack Hunter will continue to trap while his partner, Roscoe Pirman, is at Imbler keeping to pack apples.

Bill Firman, owner of one of the large apple orchards at Imbler, was here recently.

A. J. Vanvander went to Baker Thursday to do some Christmas shopping.

Joe Lay and Lester Miller are riding after cattle, which were reported to be in the high mountains.

J. B. Hunter took Clarence Vander to Baker Friday to see his son Kenneth.

Edward Wolf is cutting wood for Frank Wiegsworth.

J. B. Hunter and daughter, Ida, and Mrs. Clarence Vander, went to Baker Tuesday. They called at the hospital to see friends there.

Women Who Are Sitting in New Congress

Here are the three new women members of the new congress. They are, left to right, Mrs. Mary T. Norton of New Jersey, Mrs. Florence P. Kahn of California, and Mrs. Edith Rogers of Massachusetts. From their eyes are cast down, it appears they aren't as used as most congressmen to having their pictures taken.

Forest ranger J. M. Ellis and Mrs. Ellis, who are leaving this week for Astoria have been the inspiration for many festivities this week. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Towle were hosts at a party Tuesday evening and Thursday the ladies of the Eastern Star gave a party in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis have made their home at Cove for the past eight years. Owing to his ill health he has been compelled to resign his position here and move to Astoria.

Income Tax Wiped Out Stage Success of Girl Producer

LONDON. (AP)—Eighteen-year-old Marian Wilson made $85,000 on her production of "The Beggar's Opera" and lost it all, and more too, on "The British Ballet."

The income tax got the girl producer. While money was rolling in from "The Beggar's Opera," she forgot all about the income tax and did not lay any of her money aside. Instead she put it into a new production which was not a success and when the tax collector came round she faced disaster. So the ambitious producer went back to work as an actress. She danced for a time in a cabaret at Nice, then joined up with Ben Grey's Shakespearean players and has been playing all over provincial England.

It is her ambition to become a comedienne. She never wanted to be a producer, but her father ob-

I am down to The Hootery getting shut and phoning in my ad at the same time. When we say that we are headquarters for all kinds of roofing we are not joking. Cedar shingles, best and second grade; slate surfaced roofing that weighs almost 100 pounds to the roll; genuine rubberoid roofing; slate surfaced slab shingles. The price is in competition to the mail order houses. Don't waste your time and energy in looking around. Make a straight bet for the C. C. Pratt Lumber company and bring your mail order catalog with you. Let us tell you how we do it. Nearly everyone that comes in our place of business goes away smiling and finding the money they have left. We got a check a few days ago, made out to the "poor man's friend." Our bank cashed it for us, as they know exactly who the poor man's friend is. The No. 2 cedar shingles that will no doubt be here tonight should sell for $2.10 per M, but as I want to give you a Christmas gift, just shut your eyes and fly at them at $1.95 per M, as long as they last. I mean bring your cash with you.
