Paul Knautz to Sing At Band Concert

Healy and Knautz. There will be a goodly mixture of the lighter numbers during the program, including some up-to-date foxtrots pleasantly arranged by the director.

From all reports the theatre will be crowded to capacity as in the previous concert last month, much favorable comment having been heard after this concert.

The program will be given in the Arcade theatre, donated for the occasion by Meyers and Bowman, Sunday, December 27, at four o'clock and is free to the public.

HOPS POPULAR IN LONDON

LONDON (AP)—London is undergoing the most amazing rush for shingles and hobs ever experienced here due to the desire of the women and girls to be at peak of attractiveness for the holidays. West-end hair dressers are overwhelmed, some shops shingling as many as 600 daily, being hooked to the limit despite the employment of extra help.
Men wishing a hair cut are unable to get accommodated in a shop which also serves women.

It is an error to say that Franklin's kite experiment led to the construction of lightning rods. We have Franklin's own words that the kite experiment followed the rods.
